A New ERA

A new era in the proud tradition of Maryland Athletics will begin in November 2007 with the first extensive expansion to Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium in over a decade.

Phase One includes the expansion of Tyser Tower along the South concourse, allowing for the addition of 64 Suites of varying sizes. Additionally, mezzanine seating for approximately 500 will be added (featuring heated and covered seating and food service); a University Suite with seating for 200 guests; new work areas for television, radio and print media; new work areas for coaches and game day operating staff; a new game-day merchandise outlet; enhanced seating for disabled customers; and a new state-of-the-art video scoreboard on the West concourse.

Phase Two includes the installation of railings in the North and South lower bowl to enhance fan safety and comfort; chairback seating in the 200 level on the North side; and additional restrooms and concessions on the South side. The playing field will be lowered to improve sight lines for seats on the first 10 rows, converting those 3,000 seats from obstructed view to some of the best views in the stadium. Additionally, all of the blue roofs in the stadium will be painted.

Future Expansion includes the renovation of Gossett Football Team House to include larger locker rooms and training areas, as well as the transformation of the West End Zone with the addition of nearly 8,000 seats, which will bring stadium capacity to approximately 60,000 seats.

The expansion plan is an ambitious one. Critical to its success is the leasing of all available Suites within the expanded Tyser Tower. You can support the proud tradition and future growth of Maryland Football by contributing to the Great Expectations campaign or leasing a luxury Suite at the stadium.

TERRAPS

- Our goal is to strive to be the best in everything we do.
- In the classroom, our expectation is that each and every student-athlete will earn a degree while achieving the highest possible academic average.
- On the field, we expect to become a consistent Top 20 team. Our primary goals are to win the conference championship and be in a position to contend for the national title. We will do this by mastering the art of preparation, which will enable us to perform at our optimal level.
- We will apply the lessons learned through football into our daily lives. We will learn to be accountable for our actions, to rely on one another, and always do what's best for the good of the team.
- We will embrace the concept of family through team bonding and working toward common goals.
- We will learn to fight through adversity and to be winners in every aspect of our lives.
- We will develop relationships that last a lifetime.
- We will have fun playing the great game of football.

Maryland Alma Mater

Hail Alma Mater!
Hail to thee, Maryland!
Steadfast in loyalty,
For thee we stand.

Love for the black and gold,
Deep in our hearts we hold,
Singing thy praise forever
Throughout the land.

Maryland Victory Song

Maryland, we're all behind you.
Wave high the black and gold,
For there is nothing half so glorious
As to see our men victorious.
We've got the team, boys,
We've got the steam, boys,
So keep on fighting, don't give in!
M-A-R-Y-L-A-N-D
Maryland will win.

Attendance at Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium has continued to be strong over the last six years. In 2005, Maryland set a school record for per-game attendance when an average of 52,426 attended the five home games in College Park. The Terrapins have drawn more than 49,000 fans in each of the last four seasons, the first time in school history that milestone has been achieved. In Ralph Friedgen's six seasons, a total of 1,852,473 fans have attended 38 home games, an average of 48,749. The home attendance in the last six years is more than the previous 10 years combined prior to Friedgen's return to College Park.

GOSSETT

The Gossett Football Team House expansion project, which began with the first phase in the Spring of 2002, has improved the University of Maryland's football facility to better meet the needs of Terrapin student-athletes and recruits through the expansion of four components:

- Expanded academic support and career development unit
- New recruit meeting room/dining facility with kitchen
- New team meeting auditorium
- Expanded entrance and lobby

Phase One of the 15,500 square-foot renovation included the creation of an expanded academic support lab. This increased the existing space dedicated to support and strengthen the academic and career-achievement initiatives of football student-athletes by more than 4,000 square feet. In addition, a brand new video board was finished in time for the 2002 season, giving fans a more vibrant and exciting experience in Byrd Stadium with game action and replays shown on a board measuring 21 feet by 28 feet.

Phases Two and Three, completed in the summer of 2004, include a 3,500 square-foot meeting room and dining facility which provides a multi-purpose showcase for hosting recruits and their families.

It also includes a new team meeting auditorium which gives the entire football team the opportunity to meet together in one room, allowing the coaching staff to teach using state-of-the-art technology in an environment that has sufficient seating space for all the players. This addition improves the staff's capability to effectively present offensive and defensive game plans.

The construction also includes an enhanced entrance and lobby for the Gossett Team House that will showcase the program's tradition, importance and success. A striking first impression for recruits and visitors, the entrance and lobby highlights the rich past of Maryland football and will showcase the Terps' return to national prominence.

TEAM HOUSE

Beginning with Maryland's first-ever NFL draft pick in 1937 and continuing in 2000 with Frank Wycheck's lateral in the "Music City Miracle," the Terrapins have fashioned an impressive tradition in the National Football League. Names like Scarbath, Jones, Nolan, White, Avellini, Esiason, Shiner, O'Donnell, Collins, Nehemiah, Lewis, Glover, Atkinson and Mike-Mayer have dotted NFL rosters over the years. In all, nearly 150 Terrapins have gone on to play professionally following their Maryland careers.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Maryland has had 194 National Football League Draft choices since 1937, fourth-most among Atlantic Coast Conference schools.
- Including Vernon Davis, the 6th pick overall in the 2006 Draft, there have been 14 Terrapins taken in the first round of the NFL Draft, including a pair of No. 2 overall selections in Jack Scarbath (1953) and Randy White (1975).
- Butkus and Bednarik award-winning linebacker E.J. Henderson was selected early in the second round of the 2003 NFL Draft by the Minnesota Vikings. Henderson was the 40th selection overall.
- Four former Terrapin quarterbacks have appeared in the Super Bowl: Boomer Esiason (1988), Frank Reich (1990-93), Neil O'Donnell (1995, 2000) and Scott Zolak (1996).
- 28 former Terrapins were on NFL rosters prior to the start of the 2007 training camps.
- Three former Maryland head coaches (Bobby Ross, Lou Saban and Clark Shaughnessy) and four former Maryland players (Dick Modzelewski, Dick Nolan, Ron Waller, Mike Tice) have gone on to serve as head coaches in the NFL.
- Former Dallas Cowboy Randy White made eight Pro Bowl appearances during his career, among the most in NFL history. White was co-MVP of Super Bowl XII and was later inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Merriman was honored at half-time of a recent basketball game.

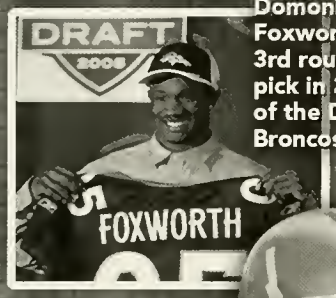
TERPS AND THE NFL DRAFT

Shawn Merriman 12th overall pick of the 2005 NFL Draft

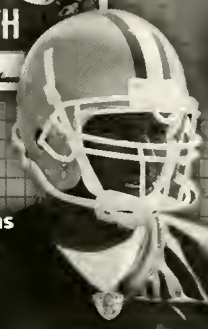


Domonique Foxworth 3rd round pick in 2005 of the Denver Broncos

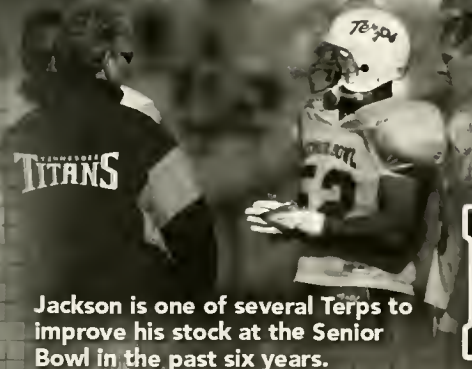
Vernon Davis, seen here with 49er coach Mike Nolan, was the No. 6 overall pick of the 2006 NFL Draft. He is the highest Terp selected since 1975 and the highest a tight end has been picked in the NFL since 1972.

Davis blew scouts away at the NFL Combine with his speed and strength.

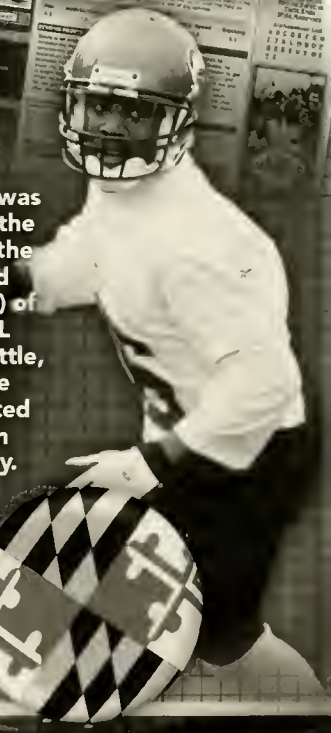
Davis was featured on the NFL's website, among other places, leading up to the draft.



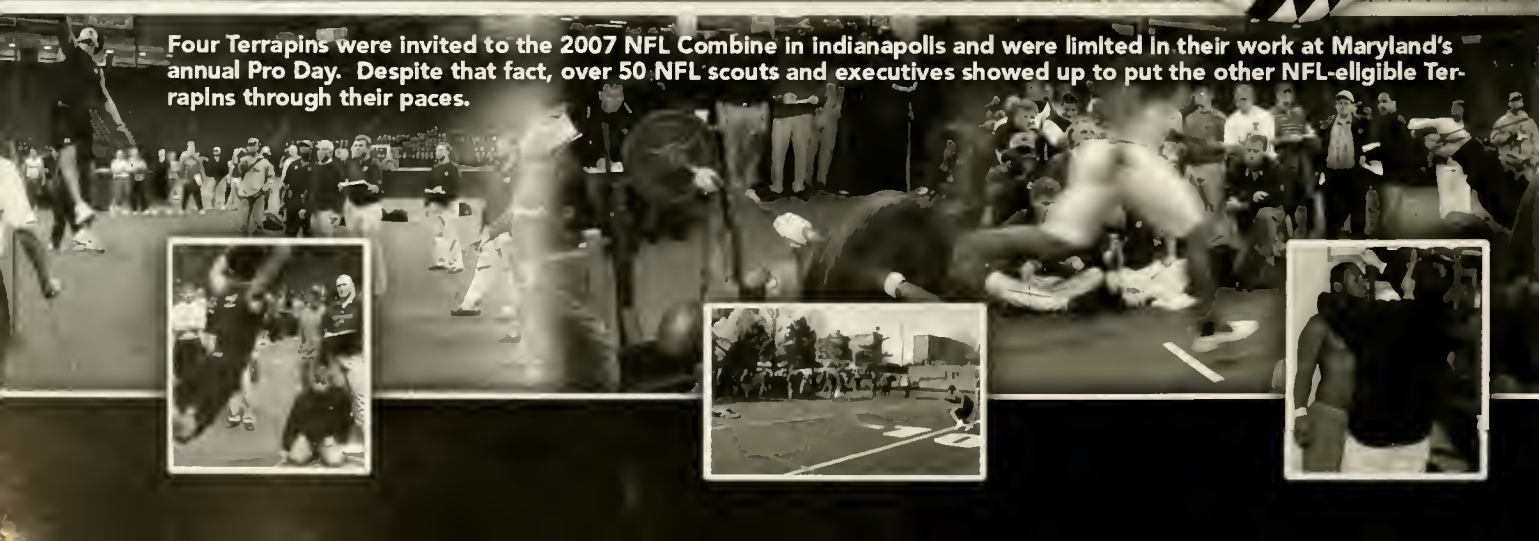
D'Qwell Jackson, seen here in Browns minicamp, was the second pick of the second round.



Jackson is one of several Terps to improve his stock at the Senior Bowl in the past six years.

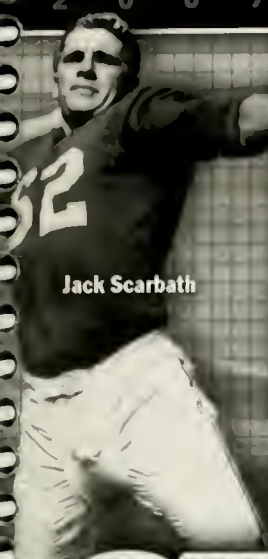


Josh Wilson was chosen with the 23rd pick in the second round (55th overall) of the 2007 NFL Draft by Seattle, becoming the highest drafted cornerback in school history.



Four Terrapins were invited to the 2007 NFL Combine in indianapolis and were limited in their work at Maryland's annual Pro Day. Despite that fact, over 50 NFL scouts and executives showed up to put the other NFL-ellgible Terrapins through their paces.

QUARTERBACK LEGACY



Jack Scarbath

JACK SCARBATH (1950-52) — Maryland's split T quarterback was runner-up to Billy Vessels for the Heisman Trophy and was a unanimous All-America selection in 1952. In three seasons, the Terps were 24-4-1 with Scarbath as QB, including 10-0 in 1951.

DICK SHINER (1961-63) — An honorable mention All-America selection in 1962 and a two-time first team All-ACC choice who helped lead the Terps to a 21-17 win over Penn State.

BOB AVELLINI (1972-74) — Set school marks at the time for total offense (312 yards) and passing yards (314) while completing 21 of 31 passes in a game in his first career start his sophomore year vs. Duke. Went on to have a 10-year NFL career.

NEIL O'DONNELL (1987-89) — A two-year starter in college, he ended his career in the No. 2 spot on most major Terp passing charts. Drafted by the Steelers in 1990, he became the team's franchise player during his six seasons, making a Pro Bowl appearance in only his second year and leading Pittsburgh to an appearance in Super Bowl XXX.

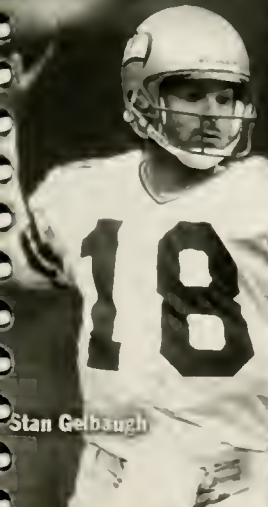
SCOTT ZOLAK (1989-90) — Despite starting just one season for the Terps, he finished his collegiate career among Terp leaders in passing yards (3,124) and completions (270). His 2,589 passing yards in 1990 ranked as the second-highest single-season total in school history and helped earn him honorable mention All-America recognition from Football News. He was taken in the fourth round of the 1991 NFL Draft by the New England Patriots.

Scott Zolak

BOOMER ESIASON (1981-83) — A two-time All-American who set 17 school records, led the Terps to the ACC championship in 1983 and a berth in the Tangerine Bowl. Arguably the most prolific left-handed quarterback in NFL history, Esiason was a four-time Pro Bowl selection and league MVP in '88.

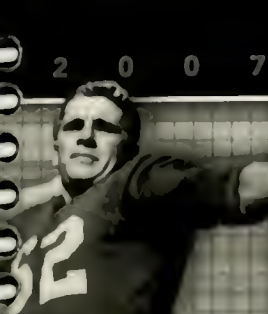
FRANK REICH (1983-84) — Best known for leading the Buffalo Bills back from a 32-point deficit in the 1992 NFL playoffs against Houston, he also commanded the second-greatest comeback in the college game as well rallying the Terps after halftime against No. 6 Miami (Fla.) and down 31-0. Maryland pulled off the miracle upset, 42-40, and Reich finished the season as one of the top-rated passers in the country. Appeared in four Super Bowls.

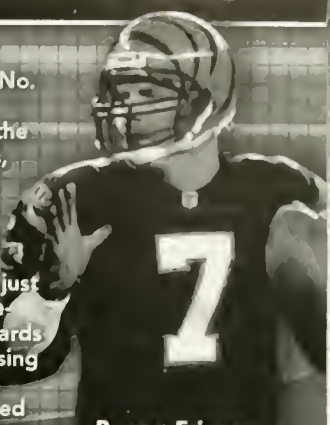
STAN GELBAUGH (1984-85) — Played behind Esiason and Reich before moving into the Terps' starting lineup in '84 when Reich went down to injury. Gelbaugh stepped in to lead Maryland to four wins and a one-point loss on the road to Penn State. The following season, the Terps went on to win the ACC title and a Cherry Bowl championship.



Stan Gelbaugh

Neil O'Donnell





Boomer Esiason

SCOTT MILANOVICH (1993-95) — Left campus as one of the most decorated Terrapin QBs ever. In fact, Milanovich still owns most Maryland passing records, including career standards for yards (7,301), TDs (49) and completions (650). He is currently the QB coach with the Montreal Alouettes of the CFL.

SHAUN HILL (2000-2001) — Sparked the Terrapins to the 2001 ACC championship and earned team MVP honors, throwing for 13 touchdowns and rushing for seven more. Originally picked up by the Vikings, Hill is currrently in his sixth season with the San Francisco 49ers.

SCOTT MCBRIEN (2002-2003) — Southpaw transfer from West Virginia who led the Terrapins to 21 wins in his two years as a starter — most by any Terp QB in two years — and was named MVP of the Peach and Gator Bowls. Currently with the Montreal Alouettes of the CFL.

Friedgen was featured in the Sports Illustrated 2003 College Football Preview.

It caught on quickly and continues to spread...

Fridge Fever, that is.

Perhaps never in the history of Maryland Athletics has a coach overseen a more immediate and dramatic turnaround of his team's fortunes than Ralph Friedgen, the consensus national Coach of the Year in 2001, who is second all-time in the Atlantic Coast Conference in the number of wins in the first six years of his career. Friedgen has taken the Terps to four bowls in his first six seasons, including posting a school record three-straight bowl wins.

Friedgen's rookie season included an ACC title, a BCS appearance in the FedEx Orange Bowl, and a final ranking of No. 10... Maryland finished each of the next two seasons by winning 10 of its last 11 games, including dominating performances in postseason bowls (30-3 over Tennessee in the 2002 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl and 41-7 over West Virginia in the 2004 Toyota Gator Bowl).

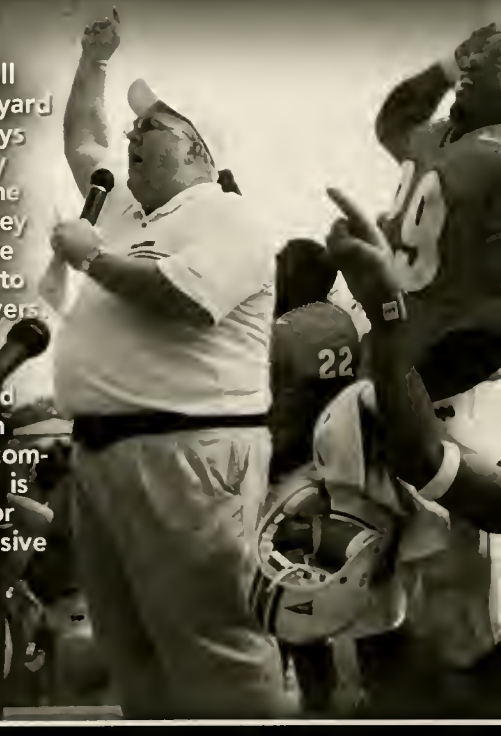
A high-powered, exciting offense that has resulted in back-to-back scoring records... an attacking suffocating defensive style... standout special teams play — all have been hallmarks of Friedgen's Terrapin teams, as they have posted a 50-24 record the past six seasons.

FRIDGE

"Some people look at a football field and see hash marks and yard lines. Ralph Friedgen sees plays and patterns invisible to every other naked eye. And if anyone on defense does see them, they see them a step too late. More important, Ralph has the skill to teach what he sees to his players.

You always hear about great middleweights who are 'pound for pound' the best fighters in the world. That's meant as a compliment to smaller men. Ralph is not a small man, but pound for pound he's still the best offensive coach in the country."

Ivan Maisel
ESPN.com



Coach Friedgen's ability to break down film was a feature story on ESPN.com.

FEVER

"Those of us who watched Coach Friedgen for all those years as an assistant knew that if any school would finally have the good sense to hire him, he would be a dynamic head coach. His first three years at Maryland have certainly proven to be true. Everyone knew he had a brilliant offensive mind, but now Coach Friedgen has shown that he has the complete package of skills to make Maryland an annual contender for the ACC championship. Ralph Friedgen is the real deal."

BOWLING

- Maryland has made bowl trips in four of the past six seasons. In going to bowls in each of Ralph Friedgen's first three years, the team made three straight bowl appearances for the fourth time in school history (1973-78 and 1982-85).
- The Terps' last three postseason victories have been by a combined 95-17 score, with victories over nationally prominent schools such as Tennessee, West Virginia and Purdue.
- Maryland set 10 school bowl-game records in the New Year's Day victory over West Virginia in the 2004 Toyota Gator Bowl.

ATLANTIC COAST CONFERENCE

MIAMI

- The Atlantic Coast Conference continued to be one of the dominant football conferences in the nation in 2006 and the competitive balance expected in 2007 has fans around the nation on the edge of their seat.
- ACC teams have won two of the last eight national championships, five titles since 1990 and nine national crowns overall since the 1981 season.
- The ACC now features three teams that played in five of the first six BCS National Championship games.
- In 2006, the ACC matched its record from the previous season with eight teams earning bowl bids. Since 2001, the ACC has appeared in postseason play 41 times. In 2002, the ACC set a NCAA record for the percentage of teams in a conference that reached the postseason when seven of the then-nine teams earned bids.

ACC CONFERENCE O

- For the first time ever, the ACC surpassed four million in attendance, with league teams drawing 4,485,625 over 85 dates. Nine ACC schools, including Maryland, drew 87 percent or better in percentage of capacity.
- The ACC remains the all-time winningest conference in bowl play among leagues with 75 or more games. The two current schools are a combined 143-125-5 in postseason play and is 25-16 over the last six years.
- Eight of the 12 ACC teams were ranked at least one week during the course of the 2006 season.

NO BETTER

There is no better place to be than the University of Maryland, College Park. With its top-ranked academic programs, nationally recognized faculty, diverse population, and lush 1,580-acre campus located between Washington, D.C., and Baltimore, Md., it's no wonder the University of Maryland is a sought-after destination for some of the state's — and the country's — best and brightest students.

Attracting them are some 127 majors and some of the highest-ranked programs in the country. As of 2006, 91 programs rank in the top 25 nationally and a school-record 31 programs were in the top 10 in the latest U.S. News & World Report undergraduate ranking of top public universities.

Specifically, the University of Maryland's Smith School of Business was ranked 18th nationally, while the Clark School of Engineering was ranked 25th. In graduate school rankings, the Smith School of Business, the College of Education, the Clark School of Engineering, the College of Information Studies and the College of Computer, Mathematical and Physical Sciences each had specialties listed among the top 25 in the nation.

High-tech, engineering, and service industries thrive in close proximity to the campus, offering a wide spectrum of internships, work-study opportunities and career choices for students. And, the campus is surrounded by the dynamic cultural opportunities that only a major metropolitan area can provide.

Whether your focus is the sciences or the humanities, a small-town atmosphere or a metropolitan feel, the University of Maryland offers a wide range of educational and cultural opportunities.

There truly is no better place to be than the University of Maryland, College Park.

FROM WALK-ON TO FRONT AND CENTER

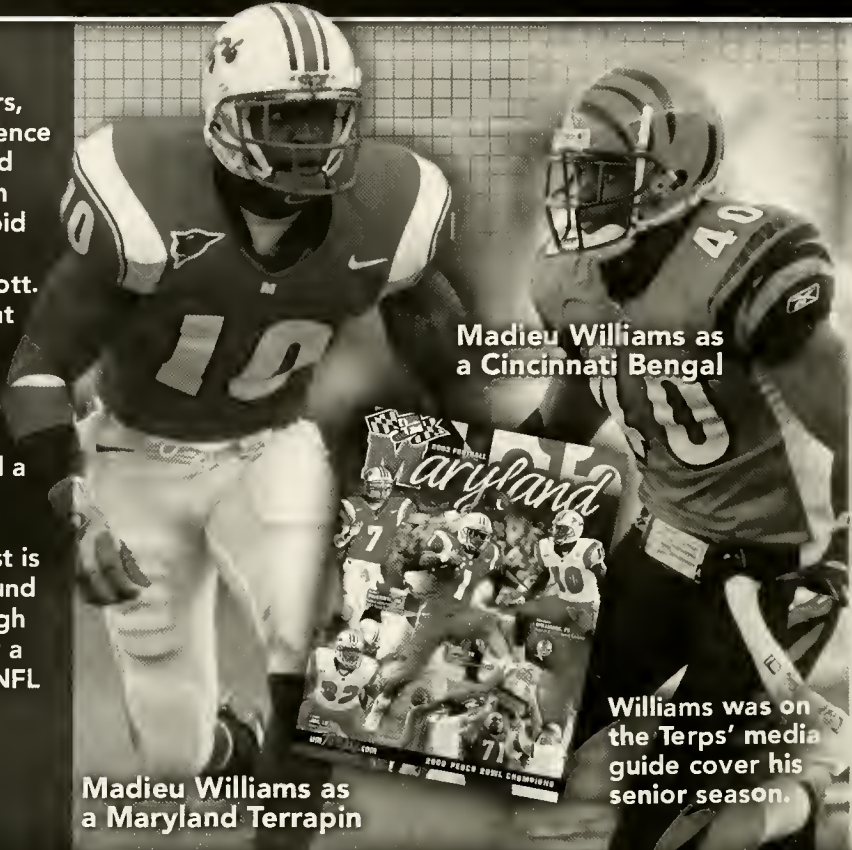
Important to any college program are walk-on players, who not only make a difference in aiding a team's depth and continuity, but can also earn their own scholarship and bid for significant playing time.

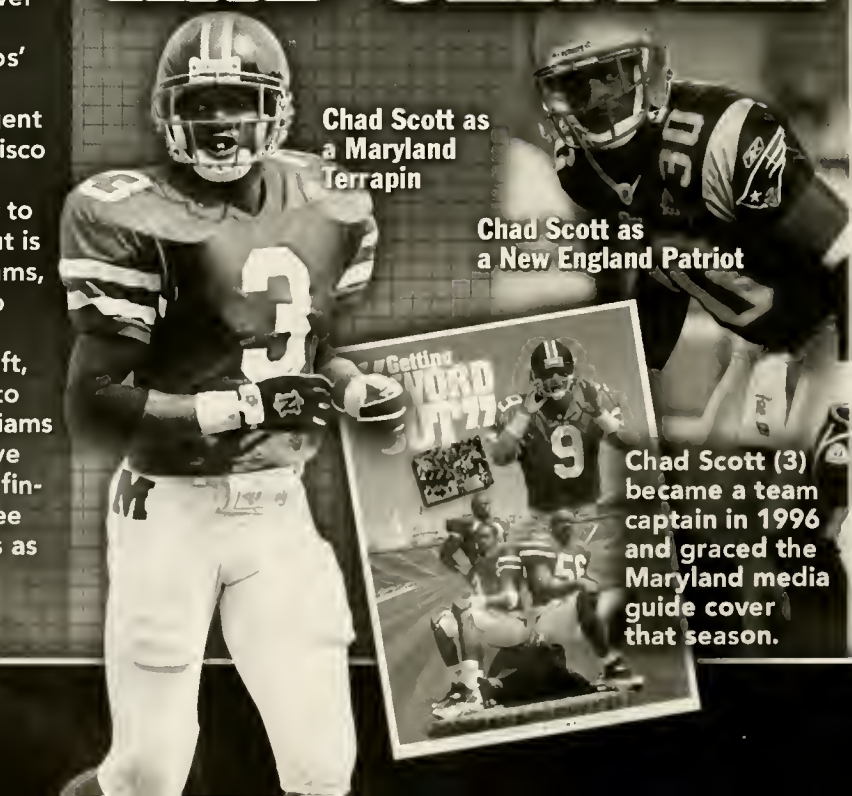
Take the case of Chad Scott. After playing two seasons at Towson in 1993 and 1994, Scott chose to walk on at Maryland, uninvited. By the end of his first semester on campus, Scott was awarded a scholarship and became a Terrapin co-captain for his senior year in 1996. The rest is history. Scott was a first-round draft choice of the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1997 and is now a member of the three-time NFL Champion New England Patriots.

Scott exemplifies the ultimate walk-on scenario. However, every season at Maryland, there are walk-on players who find their niche and contribute greatly to the Terrapins' program. With recent scholarship reductions, walk-on players have become a vital component to the rebuilding of Maryland football fortunes.

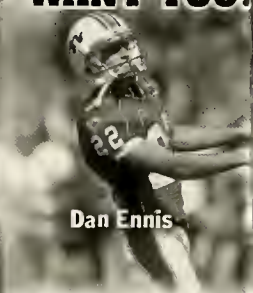
Another example is receiver Jermaine Arrington, who walked on and was the Terps' leading receiver in 1998, moving on to sign a free-agent contract with the San Francisco 49ers.

A recent Maryland player to go from walk-on to standout is former safety Madieu Williams, a transfer from Towson who became the first Terrapin picked in the 2003 NFL Draft, going in the second round to the Cincinnati Bengals. Williams was one of the top defensive rookies in the NFL in 2004, finishing with 103 tackles, three interceptions and two sacks as a starting cornerback.

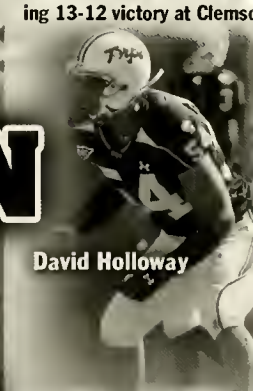




THE TERPS WANT YOU!



Linebacker David Holloway and kicker Dan Ennis were each walk-ons when they started at Maryland. Both finished their careers on scholarship. Holloway finish third on the team with 70 tackles in 2006 and signed free-agent contract with th Arizona Cardinals. Ennis le the Terrapins in scoring as senior with 92 points, and 31-yard field goal as time expired gave Maryland a th ing 13-12 victory at Clems



Players who walked on at Maryland and made significant contributions under Coach Friedgen:

Dan Ennis, PK

Moise Fokou, LB
Player to watch at linebacker a special teams in 2007.

Joey Haynos, TE

HEAD COACH RALPH FRIEDGEN

MARYLAND '70 • SEVENTH YEAR AT MARYLAND

Ralph Friedgen is in his seventh year as head coach at the University of Maryland with a reputation as one of the top offensive minds in college football.

Friedgen has lifted the Terrapins to unprecedented heights in his tenure, taking the team to four bowl games, including a pair of New Year's Day appearances, and a school record three-straight bowl victories. Prior to Friedgen's arrival, Maryland had just one bowl game appearance in the previous 15 seasons.

He is the 33rd head coach in school history and ranks second in Maryland annals in career winning percentage (.676), trailing only legendary coach Jim Tatum, who is the only other mentor to lead the Terps to three 10-win seasons and multiple New Year's Day bowl appearances.

Last year Friedgen took on added responsibility, assuming the duties of the team's offensive coordinator, marking the first time he has called the plays in his head coaching tenure at Maryland. The team went on to post a 9-4 record, marking the fourth nine-win campaign in the last six seasons and 13th in school history. The Terps culminated the season with a convincing 24-7 victory over Purdue in the Champs Sports Bowl.

A long-time successful assistant coach at Georgia Tech, where he was credited with overseeing one of the nation's most potent offensive attacks, Friedgen continues to build a new level of pride and glory to his alma mater's football program, guiding the Terps to a 50-24 record, including an Atlantic Coast Conference title and a pair of second-place finishes in his first six years.

Not only are his 50 wins after six seasons more than those of Terps legend Jerry Claiborne, they also fall just shy of the all-time ACC mark of 51, set by Clemson's Danny Ford in the early 1980s. In addition, in his first three seasons at the helm of the Terrapin program, Friedgen became the first coach in conference lore to lead a team to three-straight seasons of 10 wins or more, while his 36 wins in his first four years ranked him in the top 10 in NCAA history, surpassing the fourth-year marks of coaches such as Frank Leahy and Joe Paterno.

The consensus national coach of the year in 2001 after leading Maryland to its first ACC championship since 1985, Friedgen and company have returned Maryland to prominence on the national scene. The Terrapins have won more games (50) in the six seasons under Friedgen than they had in the 10 years prior to his arrival (37).

Long overlooked as a head-coaching candidate, the 1970 Maryland graduate was tapped as the Terps' head football coach following the 2000 season, and he wasted no time in returning the program to the glory days it achieved when Friedgen was an assistant to Bobby Ross in the 1980s.

Six years ago, in his first season as the Terps' grid boss, Maryland won its first seven games and eventually halted Florida State's reign as perennial ACC champion, earning the league's automatic berth in the Bowl Championship Series' FedEx Orange Bowl. By winning the ACC title that season, Friedgen became the first mentor in league history to win the championship in his first year as a head coach.

In 2002, despite a 1-2 start and without 19 seniors from the previous year, the Terps made their way back to a major bowl game, winning 10 of their last 11 games and finishing in a tie for second in the ACC. The 2003 campaign provided a bit of déjà vu for Friedgen and the Terrapins as they again started 1-2, and again ran off 10 wins in their final 11 games to earn a second New Year's bowl bid in three years.

"HE HAS THE COMPLETE PACKAGE OF SKILLS TO MAKE MARYLAND AN ANNUAL CONTENDER FOR THE ACC CHAMPIONSHIP. RALPH FRIEDGEN IS THE REAL DEAL."
-- ATLANTA JOURNAL CONSTITUTION

By winning 11 games in 2002, Friedgen became just the second coach in school history to hit that mark, tying matching Claiborne's 11-win campaign in 1976.

The 2006 team started 3-2 before reeling off a five-game winning streak, which placed them in the midst of the ACC Atlantic Division race. The Terps lost to eventual champion Wake Forest on the final game of the regular season, but Maryland was a force in the league race throughout the year, enabling it to earn the fourth slot among ACC postseason bids and a trip to Orlando for the Champs Sports Bowl.

Friedgen's Terps have gone to bowl games in four of his six seasons, participating in the BCS Orange Bowl his first year before posting lopsided victories over Tennessee (30-3) in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl and over West Virginia (41-7) in the Toyota Gator Bowl.

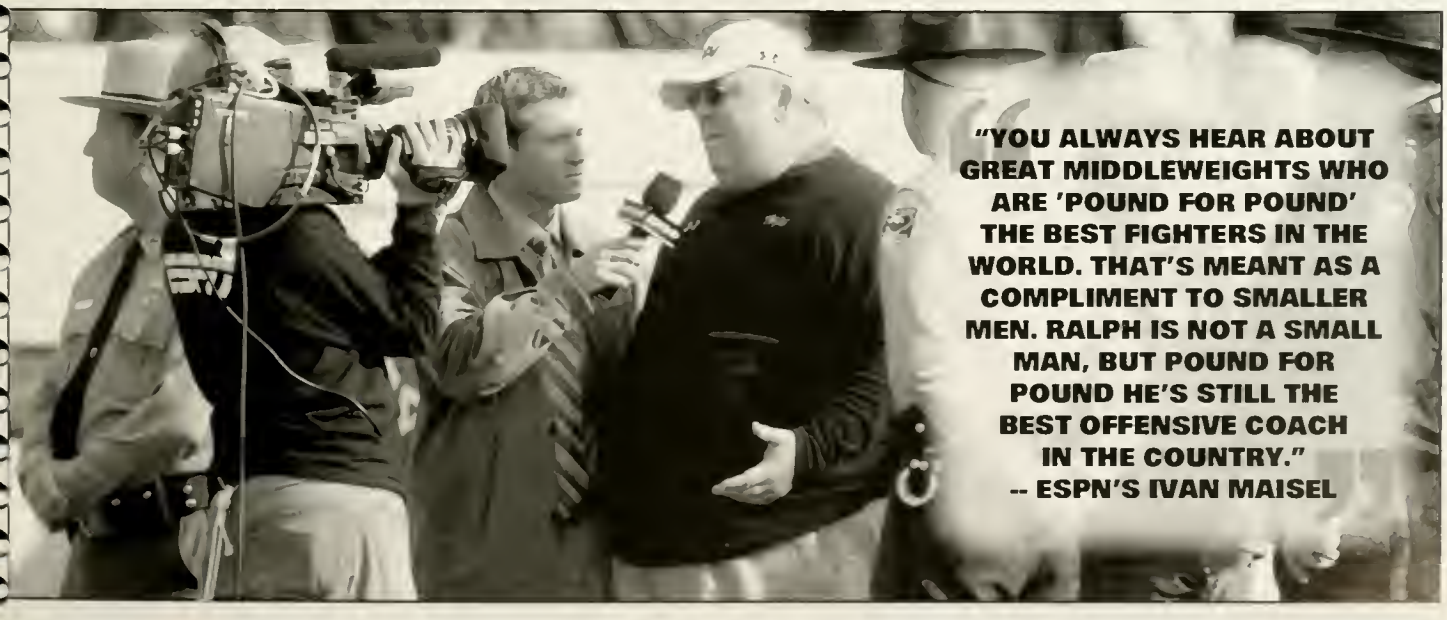
His offensive success notwithstanding, Friedgen's teams at Maryland have been superb on defense, ranking among the nation's leaders annually while producing the ACC's Defensive Player of the Year in three of the last six seasons (E.J. Henderson in 2001 and 2002; D'Qwell Jackson in 2005).

Named the winner of the Frank Broyles Award as the top assistant coach in the country in 1999 while at Tech, Friedgen brought 32 years of assistant coaching experience (including 21 as an offensive coordinator either in college or the NFL) with him in his return to College Park.

The 60-year-old Friedgen (pronounced FREE-jun) owns the rare distinction of coordinating the offense for both a collegiate national champion (Georgia Tech in 1990) and a Super Bowl team (San Diego in 1994).

Friedgen spent 20 seasons with the aforementioned Ross in coaching stops at The Citadel, Maryland, Georgia Tech and the NFL's San Diego Chargers. He returned to Tech in 1997, where he served another successful stint as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach under good friend George O'Leary, now the head coach at the University of Central Florida.

A 1970 graduate of Maryland, where he earned a degree in physical education, Friedgen launched his coaching career as a graduate assistant before heading off to a series of jobs that included The Citadel (1973-79), William & Mary (1980) and Murray State (1981).



"YOU ALWAYS HEAR ABOUT GREAT MIDDLEWEIGHTS WHO ARE 'POUND FOR POUND' THE BEST FIGHTERS IN THE WORLD. THAT'S MEANT AS A COMPLIMENT TO SMALLER MEN. RALPH IS NOT A SMALL MAN, BUT POUND FOR POUND HE'S STILL THE BEST OFFENSIVE COACH IN THE COUNTRY."
-- ESPN'S IVAN MAISEL

RALPH FRIEDGEN IS 3-1 IN BOWL GAMES AS TERP HEAD COACH

In 1982, he returned to Maryland as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach under Ross, with Friedgen's tenure lasting until 1986. During that stretch, the Terps captured three consecutive ACC championships (1983-85) and played in four bowl games. All told, the Terrapins were 39-15-1 from 1982-86 and won two bowl games (the Sun Bowl in 1984 and the Cherry Bowl in 1985). It is the type of success Friedgen has reinstilled in his current group of Terrapins.

The Ross-Friedgen connection began in 1973, when Ross hired the former Maryland offensive guard as defensive line coach at The Citadel. Friedgen spent seven seasons at The Citadel, the last three as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. He then worked one season (1980) as offensive coordinator at William & Mary and one season (1981) as assistant head coach at Murray State before Ross tapped him to be his offensive coordinator at Maryland in 1982.

During his five-year stay at Maryland under Ross, Friedgen was instrumental in the development of future pro quarterbacks Boomer Esiason, Frank Reich and Stan Gelbaugh, all of whom spent at least 10 seasons in the National Football League. Esiason played professionally from 1984-97, Reich from 1985-98 and Gelbaugh from 1986-95.

Friedgen followed Ross to Georgia Tech in 1987, becoming the Yellow Jackets' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the next five seasons, including the 1990 campaign when Tech, unranked in the preseason, captured the national championship with an 11-0-1 record. The national title came just two years after the Jackets had posted back-to-back seasons of three wins or less.

When Ross was named head coach of the San Diego Chargers in 1992, he tapped Friedgen to serve as running game coordinator for two seasons (1992-93) before elevating him to offensive coordinator in 1994, when the Chargers advanced to the Super Bowl for the first time in franchise history. During his time with the Chargers, Friedgen helped a club that had not made the playoffs in a decade reach postseason play three times in five seasons.

Known for developing balanced offensive attacks with multiple looks, Tech was one of only two teams in the country in 1999 to average at least 200 yards rushing and 200 yards passing. Tech also accomplished the feat under Friedgen's guidance in 1990, '91 and '98. The 1999 team, with Joe Hamilton at quarterback, set 59 school records, rewriting many marks established by the 1990 national championship team, which was led by another Friedgen pupil, Shawn Jones (1989-92). Friedgen was a finalist for the Broyles Award as the nation's top assistant coach in 1998 when the Ramblin' Wreck set a then-school record with 50 touchdowns.

The first Maryland alum since Bob Ward (1967-68) to serve as the Terps' head football coach, Friedgen originally came to Maryland as a quarterback in the mid-'60s and spent most of his career as an offensive lineman, lettering in 1966 and '68 and capturing Academic All-ACC honors. He was a two-time winner of the George C. Cook Memorial Award (1968-69) for having the highest academic average on the football team.

Friedgen's coaching roots run deep. His father, also named Ralph (though not a "Sr."), was a high school coach for more than 30 years and masterminded, among other teams, the 1964 Westchester County (N.Y.) High School team that went undefeated and averaged 44 points per game running what was then an unusual multiple offense. It was an offense run by a 190-pound quarterback later recruited by Maryland who shared his name. Maybe as a sign of things to come, the younger Ralph called all of his team's offensive plays from his junior year on.

Friedgen and his wife, the former Gloria Spina, have three daughters: Kelley, Kristina and Katie. Gloria is the Coordinator of Alumni Affairs and Outreach for the College of Health and Human Performance at Maryland while both serve on that college's Board of Visitors. Kelley is in her third year as an associate at Arnold and Porter in D.C., specializing in pharmaceutical and medical device law; Kristina is in her fourth year in the theater program at Maryland; and Katie is her second year of college at Maryland, majoring in art.

Friedgen was honored for his dedication to his family in June of 2007 when he named father of the year by the Washington D.C. Father's Day Council.

TERP HIGHLIGHTS UNDER FRIEDGEN

- A 50-24 record in his first six years, including the first back-to-back-to-back 10-win seasons in school history (10-2 in 2001, 11-3 in 2002 and 10-3 in 2003).
- A school-record three-straight bowl wins, culminating with last year's 24-7 triumph over Purdue in the Champs Sports Bowl. The Terps have out-scored their last three bowl opponents by a 95-17 margin.
- Four of the school's 13 nine-win seasons have come in Friedgen's six years as head coach.
- A school record-tying 11-victory season in 2002, when the Terps won 10 of their last 11 games. Only the 1976 team won as many games.
- Maryland was joined by only four other Division I-A schools - Miami (Fla.), Oklahoma, Texas and Washington State - to have won as many as 10 games in the 2001, 2002 and 2003 seasons.
- A top 20 final national ranking in both major national polls for three straight years (2001-03). Maryland ended 2003 ranked 17th in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches' poll and 20th by the Associated Press A year ago, the Terps were ranked 13th in both polls and in 2001 the team finished 10th in the ESPN/USA Today poll and 11th in the AP standings. It was the program's best three-year ranking finish since 1974-76 (when the Terps finished 13th, 13th and eighth).
- Friedgen is the second-most successful sixth-year coach in ACC history, with his 50-24 mark eclipsing those of such former league mentors as Bobby Ross and Lou Holtz. Friedgen is currently 18th among all active coaches for Division I-A victories.
- Bowl appearances in four of his first six seasons, including dominating wins in the 2004 Toyota Gator Bowl (41-7) and a 2002 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl victory over perennial national power Tennessee (a team ranked fifth in the two major preseason polls). The Terrapins also earned a BCS Orange Bowl berth during the 2001 campaign.
- A 30-18 (.625) Atlantic Coast Conference record, including a 7-1 mark in 2001 when the Terps became the first team other than Florida State to win an outright ACC title since the Seminoles joined the league, and a 6-2 mark and runner-up finish in 2002.
- Thirty wins in 38 games at Byrd Stadium, where the Terps averaged a school-record 52,426 fans in 2005.
- The program's first major national award winner since 1974 in linebacker E.J. Henderson, a two-time consensus first team All-American who was named the winner of the Dick Butkus Award (nation's outstanding linebacker) and the Chuck Bednarik Trophy (nation's outstanding defensive player) in 2002.
- Back-to-back school records in number of first team All ACC performers in 2001 (7) and 2002 (8) and an ACC best 13 overall all-conference honors (2001).
- Thirty-one weeks in at least one of the country's two major top 25 polls, including a streak of seven consecutive weeks at the start of the 2004 campaign.
- The only consensus national coach of the year awar (2001) in Maryland football history.
- Four-straight seasons of over 31,000 season ticket sold (2004-present).
- Back-to-back school scoring records (2001 and 2002 and a two-year team scoring average of more than 33 points per game in those seasons.
- A NCAA-low four passing touchdowns allowed in 2005 The defense also had four-straight seasons (2001-2004 where it allowed 20 points or less a contest.
- Seventeen Terps earning All-American recognition including two first teamers (Vernon Davis and D'Qwel Jackson) in 2005.
- Three of the last five ACC Defensive Players of the Year.
- Forty-three national television appearances, including a school-record eight showings in 2002. (The Terrapins played on national television or ABC Regional six times in both 2005 and 2006).

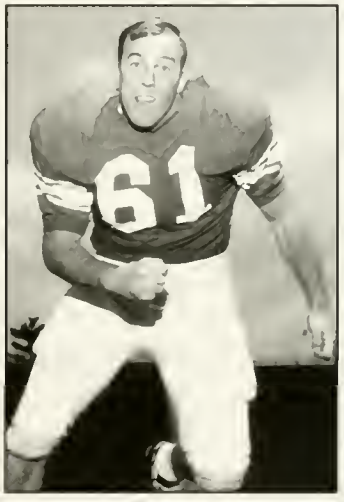
THROUGH THE YEARS WITH FRIEDGEN

Friedgen (17) was the starting quarterback for Harrison High School in New York, playing under his father Ralph Friedgen.



A high school quarterback, Freidgen spent most of his playing days at Maryland on the offensive line.

Friedgen as a student at Maryland in 1968.

Friedgen returned to Maryland as an assistant coach in 1982, where he served through 1986.

After stints at Georgia Tech and with the NFL's San Diego Chargers, Friedgen returned to his alma mater, as he was named head coach on Nov. 29, 2000.

Friedgen, winner of the 1999 Frank Broyles Award as the nation's top assistant coach, with 2000 winner Mark Mangino, then an assistant at Oklahoma.

CHRIS COSH

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/ INSIDE LINEBACKERS

Virginia Tech '83 • Second Year at Maryland

Chris Cosh is in his second year as defensive coordinator. He also oversees the middle (Mike) and weakside (Will) linebackers.

This is Cosh's second tour of duty with the Terps, having spent the 1997 season in College Park.

In 2006, Cosh was responsible for a unit that contributed to the school's first nine-win season in three years, and finished the year with a 24-7 victory over Purdue in the Champs Sports Bowl. The Terps defense held the opposition to an average of 21.8 points per game. Under Cush's leadership, the defense marked breakout performances by cornerback Josh Wilson and linebacker Erin Henderson, who each earned All-ACC honors.

Wilson went on to become a second-round choice of the Seattle Seahawks in the 2007 NFL Draft, while DL Conrad Boston (Minnesota Vikings) and LB David Holloway (Arizona Cardinals) signed free-agent contracts.

Cosh came to College Park after spending two seasons (2004-05) as a linebackers coach at Kansas State. The Wildcats defense ranked 32nd nationally in 2005 allowing an average of 128.9 yards per game in one of the nation's toughest-running conferences. Junior linebacker Brandon Archer was an honorable mention All-Big 12 selection in 2005, an honor which came a year after Cosh helped coach the newcomer to second team honors in his first year as a starter.

In the five years prior to his trek to Manhattan, Kan., Cosh served under Lou Holtz as linebackers coach (1999-2002) and defensive coordinator (2003) at South Carolina. In his tenure, he helped produce some of the Southeastern Conference's top linebackers with Kalimba Edwards (two-time first team All-SEC, Butkus and Lombardi Awards finalist in 2001) among them. His resume as a position coach also includes tutoring ultimate New York Jets first-round pick and Pro Bowler John Abraham (1999) and freshman All-American Lance Laury (2002).

During his time in Columbia, S.C., the Gamecocks won back-to-back bowl games for the first time in school history.

In addition to serving under coaching legends Snyder and Holtz (who he also worked under as a graduate assistant at Virginia Tech), Cosh was the defensive coordinator at Michigan State under former Miami Dolphins and current Alabama Crimson Tide head coach Nick Saban, one of the top defensive minds in football. In his lone season (1998) in East Lansing, Mich., the Spartans upset No. 1 Ohio State and knocked off Notre Dame. Cosh's unit helped spark those wins with the 10th-ranked pass defense in the nation.

Cosh coached the Terp linebackers in 1997 while also heading up the team's recruiting efforts. In that one year at Maryland, linebackers Eric Barton and Kendal Ogle finished second and third, respectively, in the ACC in tackles.

The greatest testament to his skill as a coach of linebackers may have come in his previous job at Illinois (defensive coordinator from 1992-96) when he led Dana Howard (1994) and Kevin Hardy (1995) to consecutive Butkus Awards. Howard posted a Big Ten record in tackles in 1994.

He also oversaw a defense which saw DE Simeon Ric- earn consensus All-America honors before being drafte by the Arizona Cardinals. Fellow LB John Holecek als went on to a career in the NFL.

A former linebacker who earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Virginia Tech in 1983, Cosh also got his start in coaching in Blacksburg, Va., where he was a student assistant during the 1983 season. He then made five different stops (Wisconsin-Oshkosh, Southeast Missouri State, UNLV and two tours at Minnesota) before settling in at Illinois. In all but one of those full-time jobs he worked either as defensive coordinator or linebackers coach.

Cosh and his wife, Mary, have two sons, J.J., who is in his first year at the United States Naval Academy, and Billy a freshman in high school. Cosh is a native of Washington D.C., and graduated from Bishop McNamara High Schoo in Forestville, Md. He was chosen Metro Defensive Player of the Year while serving as captain at Bishop McNamara before moving onto Virginia Tech where he led the Hokies in tackles in 1980.

BRYAN BOSSARD

WIDE RECEIVERS

Delaware '89 • Third Year at Maryland

Bryan Bossard is in his third year as wide receivers coach at Maryland.

Bossard guides one of the most dynamic units on the team. Last season he oversaw the breakout performance of redshirt freshman Darrius Heyward-Bey, who quickly stood out as one of the top up-and-coming wide receivers in the nation.

Under Bossard's tutelage, Heyward-Bey became the team's leading receiver (45 catches) and shattered a school mark with his 96-yard touchdown catch in a 14-13 win over Miami. His 694 receiving yards rank eighth on the Terps' single-season school list and are third-most by a freshman in Atlantic Coast Conference history.

Heyward-Bey went on to receive freshman All-America accolades, while slot receiver Danny Oquendo chipped in with 34 catches. Sophomore Isaiah Willilams also had 28 receptions and averaged 13.5 yards per catch (second on the team).

All three return to the team in 2007, along with a crop of young, talented receivers, including Adrian Cannon, LaQuan Williams and Emani Lee-Odai.

In his first season in College Park, Bossard's troops had the strongest campaign of any in Ralph Friedgen's first five years. In fact, it had not been since the pass-happy days of 1993 that the Terrapins had three wide receivers with 34 or more receptions, a feat accomplished by the 2005 group of senior receivers (Danny Melendez [40], Jo Jo Walker [35] and Derrick Fenner [34]). That came on the heels of a unit whose leader posted just 23 catches the year before.

Bossard came to the Terps after a three-year stint at nearby Delaware, his second tour of duty with the Blue Hens. His most recent stay at his alma mater was a productive one.

In his first season back in Newark, Delaware succeeded offensively despite the team having four different freshmen starters at wide receiver and a first-year quarterback. Most importantly, his efforts in 2003 helped lead the Blue Hens to a 15-1 record and the Division I-AA national championship. For the first time in school history, three different UD receivers caught 50 passes or more.

In 2004 Bossard helped coach receiver David Boler to a top 30 national ranking in both receptions per game (21st, 5.91) and receiving yards per game (29th, 82.1).

Prior to heading back to Delaware, Bossard served as a defensive backs coach at the University of Wyoming from 2000-01. He took that post in Laramie after one year at Army, his first coaching job at the Division I-A level (wide receivers).

Bossard's longest assistant coaching stint at any school was his in first post at Delaware where he was receivers coach from 1994-98. The highlight of his first stay as an assistant included playoff appearances in 1995, 1996 and 1997, each of which featured 12-2 records and national semifinal berths

Now in his 16th year overall as a full-time coach, Bossard's first collegiate coaching post was as a graduate assistant at Delaware (1990), followed by jobs with Morehouse College (1991), West Chester University (1992) and Bucknell (1992-93). Each job has either involved coaching receivers or tutoring the players trying to stop them (defensive backs).

Prior to beginning his career as a college coach, Bossard served one year as an assistant coach at Glasgow High School in Newark, Del., helping lead his team to the state title.

In addition to his coaching at the collegiate level, Bossard also served summer coaching internships with the NFL's Chicago Bears in 1996 and 1997.

A native of and all-state prep performer from Dover, Del., Bossard was a standout defensive back at UD from 1985-88, helping the Blue Hens advance to the I-AA playoffs in both his sophomore and senior seasons. A three-year letterwinner, he earned second team All-Yankee Conference honors as a senior and was selected as the team's outstanding senior defensive player (Blue Hen Touchdown Club). He posted 122 tackles that season, including the fourth-highest single-game total in school history (22 vs. Navy).

Bossard graduated from Delaware in 1989 with a bachelor's degree in agricultural business management. He and his wife, Kimber, have a 4-year-old son, Xen.

TOM BRATTAN

OFFENSIVE LINE

Delaware '72 • Seventh Year at Maryland

Tom Brattan is in his seventh season as the Terps' offensive line coach. He boasts 35 years of coaching experience, including 25 at the collegiate level.

The Maryland offensive line has been one of the team's strengths since 2001, producing six first team All-Atlantic Coast Conference performers and a handful of other players honored by both the conference and national media.

In 2006, two of his pupils earned accolades, as Andrew Crummey and Stephon Heyer were recognized as part of the All-ACC team following the regular season. Heyer also earned a spot on ESPN.com's All-Bowl team for his performance vs. All-American and first-round NFL Draft choice Anthony Spencer of Purdue in the Champs Sports Bowl.

The 2006 unit allowed running backs Lance Ball and Keon Lattimore to each rush for over 700 yards and yielded just 19 sacks, the second-lowest total in the ACC.

Last season was far from the first time Brattan's players had been recognized for their superb efforts. In 2005, he mentored a first-year player in Jared Gaither to third team freshman All-America honors and helped a young line to a season that helped Ball to second team All-ACC recognition at tailback, all despite losing its top player (Heyer) prior to the season. The season was reminiscent of the 2003 campaign when an injury-plagued unit still produced the nation's 24th-best rushing offense, allowed just 20 sacks and had a first team All-ACC performer in C.J. Brooks.

In previous seasons, the Terp line has had similar success. In 2002, Brattan had four of five linemen earn All-ACC recognition while the team had the league's second-rated rushing attack (198.8 ypg) and scoring offense (32.2 ppg) while allowing 21 sacks in 14 games.

In his first year (2001), the Terps averaged 35.5 points per game, allowed just 18 sacks and paved the way for a 1,242-yard season from Doak Walker finalist Bruce Perry. In doing so, Melvin Fowler earned All-ACC recognition en route to being drafted by the Cleveland Browns in the third round and Todd Wike earneing a first team all-league nod.

Prior to coming to Maryland, Brattan spent two years (1999-00) at Stanford University, where he served as the Cardinal's line coach in charge of centers and guards. Stanford went 8-4 in 1999 and had wins over Arizona, UCLA, Oregon State and Notre Dame on the way to a Rose Bowl bid. The 1999 Stanford offense scored at least 31 points in all but three games and hit the 50-point plateau three times. That year, Brattan's offensive line allowed just 15 sacks despite 385 passing attempts (one sack for every 27 attempts).

Brattan took his first full-time job at the collegiate level at William & Mary in 1983 as an offensive backfield coach. After just one season, he was promoted to offensive coordinator and served the remainder of his tenure (1984-91) in that capacity. He also worked with the offensive line at William & Mary. In that time, the Tribe advanced to the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs on three occasions. From 1986 to 1990, William & Mary earned national rankings in three seasons (No. 9 in 1986; No. 13 in 1989; No. 7 in 1990). The success was largely a product of Brattan's offensive design as his unit ranked in the top 20 in offense in 1985 and 1986, while it had the top-rated attack in Division I-AA for the 1990 season and the sixth-best in '91.

Brattan took his success at the I-AA level to his next job, Northwestern, where he resided from 1992-98 as offensive line coach. In Brattan's first three years at the school, the Wildcats continued their struggle to regain their winning ways, pushing their streak of seasons without a winning mark to 23.

Then in 1995, the Wildcats were in the national spotlight as they came seemingly out of nowhere to win the Big Ten championship for the first time in 47 years and advanced to the Rose Bowl where they ultimately fell to Southern California. They finished that season — despite the Rose Bowl loss — ranked seventh in the nation with a 10-2 record. Brattan's offensive line allowed just eight sacks all year while helping propel Darnell Autry to a new school rushing record. Northwestern finished fifth nationally in rushing.

The Wildcats went on to post a combined 15-1 conference record in 1995 and 1996, taking the Big Ten crown both years after having won just five league games in the previous three years. In 1996, they earned a bid to play Tennessee in the Citrus Bowl.

Brattan got his start in coaching as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Delaware, in 1972. After one year in Newark, he took his first full-time coaching post at Highland Springs (Va.) High School as an offensive line coach. After three years (1973-75) at Highland Springs, he moved back to his home state and took his first head coaching job at McKean High School in 1977. He spent one year at McKean – the same high school that helped produce Maryland legend Randy White – before moving back to Virginia and taking over as the head coach at Lloyd C. Bird High School. After serving at Bird in 1978, he returned to Highland Springs — this time as a head coach — for his final four years (1979-82) at the prep level.

A native of Newark, Del., Brattan is a 1972 graduate of his hometown school where he earned his bachelor's degree in history and later earned his master's degree in education in 1977. He was a member of the Blue Hen football team and earned a varsity letter in 1971. He and his wife, Anne, have three children — Kristen, Kate and Megan, a current Maryland student.

JOHN DONOVAN

QUARTERBACKS

Johns Hopkins '97 • Seventh Year at Maryland

John Donovan is in his seventh season at Maryland and second as quarterbacks coach.

Donovan spent his first four years with the Terps as assistant recruiting coordinator before becoming running backs coach in 2005. In June 2006 he was named quarterbacks coach.

Donovan's first season mentoring the signal-callers was one of the most successful in recent years, as he helped Sam Hollenbach complete his career among the school's passing leaders. Hollenbach finished the season fourth on the school's career passing yards list. He threw for 2,371 yards and 15 touchdowns in 2006 en route to All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors. In addition, Donovan was responsible for the development of the younger quarterbacks such as Jordan Steffy, Josh Portis and Chris Turner.

This season Donovan will help groom a new starting quarterback, as Steffy is the lone signal-caller on the squad to take snaps under center for Maryland, though he has never started a game.

Donovan has experience preparing players for starting roles.

In his lone season as Terps' running backs coach, his unit was lacking a returning starter and without the services of Josh Allen whose season had ended with a knee injury.

In the end, Donovan got strong performances from Mario Merrills and Keon Lattimore, and ultimately found a viable starter in Lance Ball. Ball ended up rushing for over 100 yards in four of the team's final seven games, earning second team All-ACC honors along the way.

Prior to taking over as running backs coach, Donovan's position in the recruiting department included maintaining and organizing the Terrapins' recruiting database, setting up all recruiting events (official and unofficial visits, game day visits, recruiting weekends, etc.) and serving as director of all Maryland football camps. In addition, he oversaw the group of graduate assistants employed by the team from 2001-2004.

Donovan's current post is his first full-time coaching position at the Division I-A level, but that is not to say that he lacks experience. Prior to coming to College Park, he served as an offensive graduate assistant at Georgia Tech for three years, working directly with then-offensive coordinator Ralph Friedgen. In that time, he broke down all opponent game film, assisted with coaching quarterbacks (1998) and the offensive line (1999-2000) while helping Friedgen with game planning and practice preparation. During his tenure, Tech won an ACC Championship (1998) and had the nation's leading offense (1999), averaging over 200 yards passing and rushing while setting 59 school records in the process.

Notably, Donovan's first job as a position coach at the Division I-A level – though temporary – came when Friedgen departed at the end of the 2000 season to become the Terrapins' head coach. Bill O'Brien was elevated to serve as the team's offensive coordinator for the 2000 Peach Bowl in Friedgen's absence and Donovan was called upon to serve as the Yellow Jackets' running backs coach for the game.

Prior to his arrival in Atlanta, Donovan worked as an assistant secondary coach at Villanova, helping the Wildcats to a 12-1 record in 1997 and a No. 1 ranking (Division I-AA) in the season's final six weeks. His responsibilities with the Wildcats included coaching the team's safeties, coordinating scout teams for the offense and special teams and breaking down game film for the defense.

A 1997 graduate of Johns Hopkins University, Donovan was a three-year starter for the Blue Jays. He was twice named an all-conference defensive back and recorded 12 career interceptions. While in school, he worked as a training camp intern for the Carolina Panthers, assisting general manager Bill Polian with the team's internal operations. He later went on to earn his master's degree in economics from Georgia Tech.

A native of River Edge, N.J., Donovan married the former Stacey Spicer of Potomac, Md., in May, 2005. The couple has a 1-year-old son (John Patrick).

KEVIN LEMPA

SECONDARY

Southern Connecticut State '74 • First Year at Maryland

Kevin Lempa is in his first season as the secondary coach with the Maryland Terrapins. He joined the staff in January 2007.

Lempa spent the spring getting acclimated with the Terps secondary which returns a pair of starters from last season in cornerback Isaiah Gardner and safety Christian Varner.

This season he'll look to mix in a talented group of veterans and newcomers, including J.J. Justice, Richard Taylor, Kevin Barnes, Terrell Skinner, Anthony Wiseman and Nolan Carroll, with the returning starters.

No matter what the combination in the defensive backfied, Lempa has over two decades grooming secondaries.

Lempa spent the last four seasons as the secondary coach with Boston College, where he led one of the top units in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

The Eagles were among the nation's best in picking off passes last season. Their 21 interceptions were tied for third nationally, trailing only Western Michigan (24) and Wake Forest (22). They also had 17 interceptions in 2004 which led the BIG EAST Conference.

Two of his defensive backs - cornerback DeJuan Tribble and strong safety Ryan Glasper - were All-ACC performers last season.

Tribble's 0.54 interceptions per game in 2006 were tied for eighth nationally, helping BC rank 34th in total defense (310.9 yards per game) and 14th in scoring defense (15.7 points per game).

Prior to his second stint at BC (he was at the school as an assistant from 1981-90), Lempa was the defensive coordinator at the University of Hawai'i from 2000-02. During Lempa's tenure, Hawai'i placed high nationally in several defensive categories. The 2001 team finished the year 9-3 and put four players on the All-Western Athletic Conference team. The 2002 team went 10-4 and played in the ConAgra Foods Hawai'i Bowl.

Lempa spent three seasons (1997-99) in the NFL as a defensive assistant with the San Diego Chargers. San Diego had one of the better defenses in the NFL during that period and led the league in yards allowed (263.0 pg) in 1998.

Lempa is a 1974 graduate of Southern Connecticut State University, where he was a two-year starter at wide receiver.

Before serving on the Chargers' staff, he was the defensive coordinator at Dartmouth College (1991-96) where he coached three All-New England/ECAC defensive backs.

He also spent four years (1977-80) at the University of Maine with former BC coach Jack Bicknell before the two moved on to Chestnut Hill, Mass.

Lempa went to four bowl games during his first 10 years at BC, including the 1985 Cotton Bowl. Overall, he has coached in nine bowl games, including the last four years with Boston College.

The Eagles went to the 2006 Meineke Car Care Bowl, the 2005 MPC Computers Bowl, the 2005 Continental Tire Bowl and the 2003 Diamond Walnut San Francisco Bowl.

Lempa has a master's degree from the University of Maine (1978). He and his wife Sara, have two grown children, Christopher and Sara.

RAY RYCHLESKI

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR/ TIGHT ENDS & H-BACKS

Millersville '79 • Seventh Year at Maryland

Ray Rychleski is in his seventh year as Maryland's special teams coordinator and tight ends/H-backs coach. He is in his 28th year of coaching overall, including 26th at the collegiate level.

Last season, Rychleski's units met the lofty standard he has set in his tenure at Maryland.

Seniors Adam Podlesh and Dan Ennis were standouts at the punter and place-kicker position, respectively, as both earned All-ACC honors.

For Podlesh, it was his fourth-straight year making the all-conference team, the only player in school history to make All-ACC team four years in a row. He went on to become the first punter taken in the 2007 NFL Draft (fourth round by the Jacksonville Jaguars).

Ennis, meanwhile, continued to improve at place-kicker and was responsible for some of the most crucial moments in the Terrapins' season, notably the game-winning field goal to lift Maryland to a 13-12 victory at Clemson.

In the tight ends unit, Rychleski developed Joey Haynos into an honorable mention All-ACC pass-catching threat as the junior was the second leading receiver on the team.

The 2004 and 2005 seasons were special for Rychleski as he helped harness the talents of Vernon Davis, which resulted in him being the team's leading receiver in 2004 and the ACC's leading pass-catcher in 2005.

Davis was the first tight end in school history named first team All-America by the Associated Press. He went on to become the sixth overall pick of the 2006 NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers, highest by a Terrapin since Randy White in 1975.

In 2005, Rychleski helped develep Ennis, who had never played football prior to college. Ennis was solid from the get go, hitting 11-straight field goals to start the year. Podlesh was again solid, earning second team All-ACC honors and finishing 13th nationally in punting average (43.6). The previous year, Nick Novak became the ACC's all-time leading scorer with 393 points (tied for fifth in NCAA history) while return man Steve Suter set the all-time ACC record for punt return yards as he finished his career with 1,271.

In 2003, Rychleski's tight ends and special teamers both made headway. Jeff Dugan continued to impress as one of the top blocking tight ends in the country while Novak had his second consecutive 100-point season, earning first team All-ACC honors and being named a Lou Groza semifinalist. Podlesh -- the first Terp freshman ever to be honored as first team all-league -- was a Ray Guy semifinalist with his 42.3-yard average and Suter – though hobbled – returned two punts for touchdowns, repeating as a first team all-conference pick.

In 2002, Rychleski saw Dugan earn honorable mention All-ACC status, while the special teams had three first team All-ACC performers. Novak finished his sophomore season ranked fifth in the NCAA in field goals and 16th in scoring, and Brooks Barnard led the ACC in punting (12th nationally) with a 43.1-yard average. But while the Terrapin return game was nearly an afterthought the year before, Suter blossomed under Rychleski's guidance into one of the top return men in the country. Suter finished 2002 with an ACC-record 771 punt return yards while finishing second in the conference in kick return average and tying an NCAA record with four punt returns for a touchdown.

In 2001, Matt Murphy went from a player in search of a position to a tight end displaying enough skills to be selected by the Detroit Lions in the 2002 NFL Draft. Highlights from Rychleski's special teams units included the fourth-best net punting average in the nation, first team All-ACC recognition for Barnard, and Novak earning honorable mention all-conference status in just his first year.

Prior to coming to College Park, Rychleski served for eight years at Wake Forest University where his tenure could best be described as diverse. For the 1999 and 2000 seasons, Rychleski was the Demon Deacons' tight ends coach while also serving as the team's special teams coach. For the three years prior to becoming tight ends coach and special teams coach (1996-98), he worked with WFU's outside linebackers. During his first three seasons at Wake (1993-95), Rychleski coached the defensive line

Rychleski began his coaching career on the prep level in Pennsylvania in 1979 before heading to Temple University, where he took a position as a graduate assistant. After a short time as the Owls' graduate assistant, he was promoted into his first full-time collegiate coaching post. He spent eight years at Temple (1981-88) before heading to Northeastern (1989-90) as a defensive coordinator/ inside linebackers coach. After two years at Northeastern, Rychleski spent a year at Penn State (1991, graduate assistant) and one summer with the Toronto Argonauts (1992, defense) as a volunteer assistant.

In 1992, Rychleski was hired as a special teams coordinator and defensive backs coach at East Stroudsburg University where he helped the Warriors to their best record in 13 years. After his brief stint there, he left for Wake Forest in 1993.

A native of Old Forge, Pa., Rychleski earned his degree in social studies from Millersville (Pa.) State College (now known as Millersville University) in 1979.

AL SEAMONSON

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS/ SPECIAL TEAMS ASSISTANT

Wisconsin '82 • Seventh Year at Maryland

Al Seamonson is in his seventh season as Maryland's outside linebackers coach, working with the strongside (Sam) backers and the LEOs. He also assists Ray Rychleski with the special teams.

Last season, he was responsible for a unit that was consistently among the defense's best tacklers. Among his pupils, Sam LB David Holloway ended the year third on the team in tackles and has moved on to the NFL.

He has also groomed Trey Covington who has been a two-year starter at LEO, a hybrid defensive end/linebacker spot.

In 2005, Seamonson helped Holloway to a productive year (61 tackles, 4.5 TFLs, 3.0 sacks) from his "Sam" spot while working to replace one of the defense's top players of the year in Shawne Merriman. Merriman was a first team All-ACC pick in 2004 and ended up second in the ACC in sacks and tackles for loss en route to being the 12th overall pick of the 2005 NFL Draft and the eventual NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year. In addition, Holloway – a former walk-on – was one of the pleasant surprises of the season as he finished fifth on the team in tackles and tied for the team lead in fumble recoveries in his first year as a starter.

In 2003, Seamonson helped lead a defense that was again one of the top units in the nation in scoring (sixth) and total defense (15th). Merriman finished the season with the second-most sacks in the ACC. In 2002, he helped coach a Terp defense that ranked first in the ACC and seventh nationally in scoring, allowing just 16.3 points per game. In addition, the Maryland rushing and passing defense each ranked in the top three in the league while the team was second in the conference in sacks (37) and red-zone defense. Seamonson's outside linebackers were a source of both steady improvement and big plays while Merriman was named to The Sporting News' ACC All-Rookie team. All of this came on the heels of a team that had the nation's fourth-best turnover margin (+1.45 average) and the ACC's lowest scoring defense (19.1 points per game) in his first season on the job in 2001.

Seamonson boasts 24 years of collegiate coaching experience. Prior to coming to Maryland, he spent the 2000 season at Bowling Green State University — where he worked under former Terp defensive coordinator Gary Blackney — as the Falcons' special teams coordinator and linebackers coach. In his lone year at Bowling Green, Seamonson helped the Falcons produce a defensive unit that ranked fourth in the MAC in rushing defense and total defense.

Seamonson's coaching tenure prior to BGSU was weighted heavily in military settings. From 1987-99, he coached at The Citadel, where he started as a wide receivers coach (1987) before serving the remainder of his tenure (1988-99) as special teams coordinator and linebackers coach. At The Citadel, Seamonson coached under former Terp offensive coordinator Charlie Taaffe and worked alongside current defensive line coach Dave Sollazzo. He helped coach five linebackers to All-Southern Conference honors and one (J.J. Davis) to an appearance in the Senior Bowl. The highlight of his tenure was in 1992 when the Bulldogs led Division I-AA in scoring defense, yielding just 13.0 points per contest en route to a Southern Conference championship while advancing to the I-AA playoffs for the third time in five years.

The Citadel was not Seamonson's first taste of the military life, however, as he was a linebackers coach at the U.S. Military Academy (Army) in West Point, N.Y., for the 1985 and '86 seasons. In his first year at Army, the Cadets were one of the surprise teams in the country as they won the 1985 Peach Bowl, 31-29, over Illinois. It was one of just four times in the Academy's history that it had gone to a bowl game.

A 1982 graduate of Wisconsin and a two-year letterwinner for the Badgers at wide receiver, Seamonson got his start in coaching in Madison. In 1982, he served as a volunteer coach for Wisconsin's wide receivers. He then was a graduate assistant for the next two years working with the secondary.

A native of Stoughton, Wis., Seamonson was a wide receiver at Stoughton High School and was a captain for the all-state Shrine Team in 1977. He and his wife, Kristi, have three children: Kylen, Kalvin and Karter.

DAVE SOLLAZZO

DEFENSIVE LINE/ RECRUITING COORDINATOR

The Citadel '77 • Seventh Year at Maryland

Dave Sollazzo is in his seventh year as defensive line coach and third season as recruiting coordinator at Maryland. It is his 10th season overall at the university as he was a volunteer defensive line coach for the Terps in 1986 and '87 as well as a graduate assistant in 1984. In his six years with the Terps, the defensive line has been one of the most overachieving units on the team.

Sollazzo's work on the recruiting trail led to the signing of a 2007 class, which was highlighted by four All-Americans, 15 student-athletes ranked among the top 100 nationally at their positions, and 18 who received all-state honors during their careers.

Last year, the defensive line, led by senior Conrad Bolston, steadily improved en route to the team's Champs Sports Bowl victory over Purdue. DE Jeremy Navarre and DT Dre Moore, who headline this season's returnees, each tallied a team-best 3 1/2 sacks in 2006.

During the 2005 season, Maryland's defensive line was one somewhat in transition, but the unit again played well. Bolston had his best season, leading the team with five sacks, while Navarre (25 tackles, 2 1/2 TFLs), a converted fullback, emerged as a true freshman.

In 2004, the Terrapin defense ranked 21st nationally, giving up an average of 315.3 yards per game. Though it had lost standout DT Randy Starks a year early (selected by the Tennessee Titans in the 2004 NFL Draft), the defensive line still performed well, helping the team to top 25 rankings in three categories.

In 2003, the Terps were first in the league in total defense (15th nationally) and pass defense while finishing third in rushing defense. They recorded 35 sacks, just one fewer than league leader Florida State, and Starks became just the second Maryland tackle in 15 years to earn first team all-conference honors.

In 2002, Maryland finished second in the league in total defense while holding its opponents to an average of 57 yards below their season rushing averages coming into their respective games with the Terrapins. In addition, the Terps finished atop the league and seventh nationally in scoring defense, yielding just 16.3 points per game. Individually, Starks earned second-team All-ACC honors in just his second season.

In his first year back at UM, Sollazzo took a group that entered the season as a concern in terms of talent and depth, and turned it into a rock-solid unit that helped anchor one of the top defenses in the ACC as the team led the league in rushing and scoring defense. Under his tutelage, nose tackle Charles Hill became an honorable mention All-ACC pick and, ultimately, a third-round choice of the Houston Texans in the 2002 NFL Draft.

Prior to his current stint at Maryland, Sollazzo spent two seasons (1999-00) at Georgia Tech as a defensive tackles coach helping the Yellow Jackets reach bowl games each year (1999 Gator Bowl / 2000 Peach Bowl).

Before joining the Yellow Jackets, Sollazzo was the defensive line coach at The Citadel from 1989-98. The Citadel was another homecoming for Sollazzo, as he had lettered for the Bulldogs for three years on the defensive line from 1974-76. In that time, he started 33 consecutive games under former Maryland coach Bobby Ross. His position coach was Ralph Friedgen.

As a coach at The Citadel, Sollazzo helped Brad Keeney achieve All-America honors and Southern Conference-leading totals in sacks and tackles for loss in 1995.

In addition, he coached nine other defensive linemen to all-conference honors while with the Bulldogs. The highlight of his coaching career in Charleston, S.C., however, may have been his involvement in helping The Citadel to the 1992 Southern Conference championship and a No. 1 ranking at the end of the regular season. That squad led the nation in scoring defense at 13 points per game and finished sixth in pass efficiency defense. In 1997, he was a part of an impressive defensive effort in which the Bulldogs finished their season by not allowing a touchdown over the final 13 quarters.

Along with his ties to Maryland and The Citadel, Sollazzo has an extensive history in prep coaching. With the exception of the Maryland job in 1984 (a season that saw the Terps win the ACC and earn a berth in the Sun Bowl), Sollazzo was a high school defensive coordinator in South Carolina from 1978-85.

Sollazzo was born in the same hometown as Friedgen, Harrison, N.Y., on Christmas Eve, 1955, and earned his degree from The Citadel in 1977. He is married to the former Ellen Beloin of Farmington, Conn. The couple has a 3-year-old son, Christopher.

PHIL ZACHARIAS

RUNNING BACKS

Salem College '81 • Second Year at Maryland

Phil Zacharias is in his second season coaching running backs at Maryland.

The college and professional coaching veteran oversees one of the deepest and most talented positions on the team.

Last season, Zacharias tutored the running backs units with great success, as Lance Ball and Keon Lattimore provided a steady one-two punch at tailback. That duo rushed for over 1,500 yards and 11 touchdowns.

Meanwhile, the fullback tandem of Tim Cesa and Cory Jackson was effective in blocking, as well as the rushing and catching the ball out of the backfield.

Ball and Lattimore are back to lead this year's unit, but Zacharias is grooming youngsters Da'Rel Scott and Morgan Green.

Zacharias possesses a wealth of experience, his resume dotted with successful stints at both the professional and collegiate levels. He spent the 2005 season working with the defensive line at Temple.

Zacharias, 48, has spent his coaching career prior to Maryland on the defensive side of the ball while also working with special teams.

He joined the Baltimore Ravens in 2002 as a defensive line assistant and coached outside linebackers in 2003 before serving as a defensive assistant in 2004 when the team reached the NFL Divisional playoffs. In 2003, linebacker Terrell Suggs was named Defensive Rookie of the Year and fellow linebackers Peter Boulware and Adalius Thomas were both selected to the Pro Bowl. Thomas was the conference's special teams selection. In 2004, the Ravens ranked sixth in the National Football League in total defense and had four defensive players selected to the Pro Bowl (Suggs, safety Ed Reed, linebacker Ray Lewis and cornerback Chris McAlister).

Prior to his move into the NFL ranks, Zacharias spent seven years at Stanford (1995-2001), directing defensive ends and special teams under Tyrone Willingham. In four of his seven seasons, he coached a Pac-10 leader in sacks. Under his tutelage, the Cardinal ranked second nationally in punt returns (2001) and kickoff returns (1995). In addition, Zacharias tutored first team All-America kick returner Luke Powell and Lombardi Award finalist Kailee Wong, a second-round selection of the Minnesota Vikings.

No stranger to success at the college level, Zacharias' stops have included trips to the Rose, Sun, Liberty and Seattle bowl games.

Zacharias began his coaching career at Georgetown (Ky.) College in 1981 as a secondary coach before moving to Saint Paul College in Virginia, where he mentored defensive backs from 1982-84.

The Sewickley, Pa., native also served as an assistant at North Carolina (graduate assistant, 1985), Morehead State (defensive coordinator, 1988; outside linebackers and special teams, 1987; strength coach and outside linebackers, 1986), Eastern Michigan (outside linebackers, 1989-90), Rutgers (outside linebackers, 1991-93) and Asbury Park (N.J.) HS (defensive coordinator, 1994).

A four-year letterwinner at Salem College (W.Va.), Zacharias earned a bachelor's degree in physical education and health in 1981 before receiving his master's in education at Georgetown College in 1982. He attended Quaker Valley High School in Leetsdale, Pa., where he played football, baseball and ran track.

Zacharias and his wife, Linda, have a 16-year-old son Jameson.

DWIGHT GALT

DIRECTOR OF STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

Maryland '81 • 19th Year at Maryland

Dwight Galt is in his 19th year at Maryland, including 13th year as the school's director of strength and conditioning. His responsibilities include managing the department's three weight-training facilities, and coordinating strength and conditioning programs for the Terps' 27 varsity sports, with special emphasis on football.

In addition to earning his bachelor's degree in business management in 1981 and his master's degree in exercise physiology in 1989 from Maryland, Galt is Master Strength and Conditioning Coach (MSCC) certified with the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches' Association and is currently one of just 43 coaches to earn this distinction.

Galt began his career at Maryland in 1984 as an intern strength coach. He assisted with the training of the 1984 and 1985 ACC Champion football teams.

In 1989, he became a full-time assistant strength coach, and for the next three years worked with all of Maryland's intercollegiate sports programs. In 1992, Galt became the assistant strength coach for football and he is now in his 16th year of providing complete athletic development training to Terp football team members.

Galt, 49, and his wife Jan are natives of Silver Spring, Md., and have four children: Angie, Teri, Dwight IV (Deege) and Tommy.

Deege and Tommy are both members of the football team.

DAN HICKSON

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Second Year at Maryland

Dan Hickson is in his third season with the Terrapins and his second as director of football operations. He served as an assistant recruiting coordinator in 2005.

Hickson's responsibilities include organizing all aspects of team travel, helping coordinate summer football camps, and organizing recruiting weekends.

He came to Maryland after three years as offensive line coach at Georgetown University where he recruited Maryland, Washington D.C., Connecticut, Rhode Island, Tennessee and North Carolina for the Hoyas.

He joined the Hoyas after two years as an offensive line coach at Good Counsel High School in Wheaton, Md., a school that he had previously served as a coach (1990-99) and assistant athletics director (1997-2002). In between stops at Good Counsel, Hickson also worked for two years as offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at Catholic University in D.C.

A retired police lieutenant who was a member of D.C.'s Metro Police force for over 23 years, Hickson is also the father of former Maryland graduate assistant, Brian Hickson, and a member of the Maryland High School Football Coaches Association and the American Football Coaches Association.

Hickson and his wife Maureen have two grown children, Brian and Michael.

JEMAL GRIFFIN

ASSISTANT RECRUITING COORDINATOR

Coppin State '96 • Second Year at Maryland

Jemal Griffin is in his second season as assistant recruiting coordinator for the Maryland football team. Griffin's efforts helped the Terps land a 2007 recruiting class, which was highlighted by four All-Americans. 15 student-athletes ranked among the top 100 nationally at their positions, and 18 who received all-state honors during their careers.

Griffin is charged with the maintenance of the recruiting database and mailings, organizing recruit visits and special events, as well as academic and compliance issues for prospective student-athletes, as well as supervising administrative assistants and student workers within the football office.

Prior to arriving in College Park, Griffin spent seven years as a member of the staff at Woodlawn High School in Baltimore. He started as defensive backs coach in 1999, a year later he was named assistant head coach and offensive coordinator, where he was tasked with all aspects of the Warriors' offense and recruiting. While there, Griffin coached two high school All-Americans, as well as a host of all-state and All-Metro players. His teams earned a 45-27 record during his tenure, including two Baltimore County 3A-4A championships and two Maryland 4A North championships.

A native of Baltimore, Griffin earned a bachelor's degree in management science from Coppin State University in 1996. He and his wife Carla have a 10-year-old son, Brandon.

RON OHRINGER

Head Equipment Manager
Maryland, '85

Ron Ohringer is in his 20th year as the Terrapins' head equipment manager.

Ohringer oversees the ordering, inventory, maintenance and distribution of all athletic equipment for the university's 27 intercollegiate sports programs. While managing the overall equipment operation for the entire department, Ohringer primarily serves as the football equipment manager on a day-to-day basis.

A native of nearby Bethesda, Md., Ohringer graduated from Maryland with a bachelor's degree in journalism and public relations in 1985. While a student in College Park, he served the football team as a manager and was the team's head student manager for his final three years.

Following graduation, Ohringer utilized his degree by serving as an assistant with both the NFL's Washington Redskins and Philadelphia Eagles. He also worked with the Washington Commandos of the Arena Football League and the former Alexandria Dukes baseball team in the Carolina League.

Ohringer and his wife Amy reside in Laurel, Md., and have two children: Casey Ryan (10) and Derek James (6).

KEVIN GLOVER

Director of Character Education
Maryland, '84
Fourth Year

A name familiar to Terp and NFL fans, Kevin Glover is in his fourth season with the Terrapins as the school's first-ever director of character education.

As it relates to the Maryland football program, Glover serves as a liaison between the team and the National Football League, taking care of all dealings regarding scouts and agents.

Glover also works with the university's other varsity sports programs, helping provide developmental programs and appropriate speakers on topics of interest to each team and their growth, collectively and individually.

A first-team All-American at Maryland in 1984 and a member of the school's Athletics Hall of Fame, Glover was a second-round selection by the Detroit Lions in the 1985 NFL Draft. He anchored a line that helped Barry Sanders to 2,053 yards in 1997 and ultimately earned three trips to the Pro Bowl. He was his team's NFL Player Association Representative for six seasons and was elected to serve on that organization's executive committee for two years.

An active speaker in local youth and church organizations, Glover and his wife, Cestaine, reside in Columbia, Md., and have three children: Maya, Matthew and Zaria.

JONAH BASSETT

Football Video Director
Catawba College, '99

COACHING AIDES

When it comes to coaching aides, the University of Maryland football program has been on the cutting edge since Ralph Friedgen arrived in 2001.

The Terrapins were at the forefront in video technology, being one of the first schools to own XOS Technologies (formerly known as Pinnacle). All Maryland practices and games are digitized into a computer system, broken down and tagged and then made into a database that can be sorted any way a player or coach wants (for example: a game could be sorted by all 3rd down plays in the red zone run to the short side of the field). Opponent's film is also loaded onto computers in the Gossett Team House and laptops so players and coaches can look at film both in College Park and on the road. Every coaches office and meeting room has an XOS computer so the Terrapins are completely "tapeless" (no video tape, all on computer).

The latest on the technological forefront for the Terrapins is the simulator the team recently purchased from Gridiron Technologies. The Pro Simulator is, at its core, is a football video game similar to the popular Madden series. But where it differs is that it has Maryland's plays and some of its opponent's formations loaded so that when players are off the field and in their leisure time playing video games, they can be reinforcing what is in their playbook that week. The system can also grade a player for his decision-making and knowledge of the offense or defense.

OUTLOOK

2007 OUTLOOK

The Maryland football team has quite a bit of momentum to build on after one of the most successful seasons in school history. Not only did the Terps post another nine-win season and make a run at the Atlantic Coast Conference title, but they did something never accomplished in school history - they put the finishing touches on their third-straight bowl win.

The Terps' dominating 24-7 victory over Purdue in the 2006 Champs Sports Bowl followed wins over West Virginia in the 2004 Toyota Gator Bowl and Tennessee in the 2002 Chick-fil-A Bowl.

Head coach Ralph Friedgen has taken the Terps to four bowl games in his first six seasons, a feat only legendary Maryland coaches Jerry Claiborne and Bobby Ross can claim.

In addition, the Champs Sports Bowl victory enabled them to finish the season 9-4, marking the 13th time in 114 years of football the Terps won at least nine games. Remarkably, four of those occurrences have come during Friedgen's tenure.

"We had a good season," Friedgen said of last year. "We had a chance to make it a real special season, but came up just a little short."

Despite finishing one win away from the ACC Championship game, Friedgen always wants his team to think big.

"Last spring we talked about winning the ACC title and I don't think our players really believed it," Friedgen said. "But we ended up having an opportunity to do that. That's where we need to look to keep setting our goals high."

Despite of the loss of some key starters from a year ago, the Terps have plenty to build on.

Maryland returns 37 letterwinners, including 12 starters, from the 2006 squad. They'll be joined by another solid recruiting class as Friedgen and the staff signed 25 student-athletes in February, a group which included four All-Americans and 18 all-state honorees.

Six starters are back on offense, including a number of skill position players as running back Lance Ball, wide receiver Darrius Heyward-Bey and tight end Joey Haynos are back in the fold. In fact, backs who accounted for 94 percent of the rushing yards have returned, as well as pass-catchers who accounted for 97 percent of the receiving yards.

The Terps do have to replace the triggerman for the last two seasons as quarterback Sam Hollenbach departed, along with All-ACC left tackle Stephon Heyer. Hollenbach and Heyer hope to take their game to next level as they were signed as free agents following the 2007 NFL Draft by the Washington Redskins.

Heyer was the leader on an offensive line which opened holes for Ball and running mate Keon Lattimore, and allowed Hollenbach to toss for over 2,300 yards en route to All-ACC honors.

Junior WR Isaiah Williams is also back and should join Heyward-Bey to form one of the top wideout duos in the league.

Though not considered a returning starter, junior Danny Oquendo complements Heyward-Bey and Williams. Oquendo is a sure-handed receiver who manned the slot last season and may see time on the outside in the fall.

Tim Cesa, the starting fullback last season, will have to be replaced, but Cory Jackson, then just a true freshman, filled in admirably at the end of 2006, starting the final three contests.

In a battle to replace Hollenbach, junior Jordan Steffy emerged from the spring atop the depth chart, but sophomores Josh Portis and Chris Turner were close behind.

Steffy served as the backup the last two seasons, but has seen limited action in his career. However, he has been in Friedgen's offensive system for three years and that gives him a leg up on the competition.

"It's a three-man race, but Jordan has a slight edge," Friedgen said of the quarterback competition heading into fall camp.

Grooming a new signal-caller is nothing new to Friedgen, one of the top offensive minds in college football, who will serve as offensive coordinator for a second season. This will mark the fifth time in the last seven years the Terps will break in a new starting quarterback.

An offensive line that surrendered the second-fewest sacks in the ACC last season will have to be re-tooled.

Senior right guard Andrew Crummey, an All-ACC performer a year ago and a 2007 preseason All-American, headlines this group.

Junior center Edwin Williams had a solid 2006 campaign and should provide plenty of leadership.

Erin Henderson was a preseason All-America selection by Playboy and was named to the Nagurski Trophy watch list.

"I feel good about our first team," Friedgen said. "We just need to stay healthy up front."

Along with the departure of Heyer, left guard Donnie Woods and right tackle Jared Gaither are not returning this season.

However, Dane Randolph, who started four games at right tackle in 2006, is expected to step into Gaither's spot while Jaimie Thomas, who split time with Woods at the end of last season, will occupy the left guard position.

Scott Burley, a four-year veteran, played well in spring practice and has stepped into Heyer's left tackle slot.

The defense, meanwhile, also returns six starters, though that unit lost three of its top four tacklers. However, there were a number of part-time players from a year ago who should step into starting roles this season.

"We have more depth on defense than we've had in the past and a lot more than we have on offense," Friedgen said. "Defensively, we have a chance to be very good. We're young, but we have enough experience."

Junior Erin Henderson, the team's leading tackler and an All-ACC performer last season, headlines not only the linebacking corps, but the whole defense.

The country took notice of Henderson. He was named to the 2007 Playboy Preseason All-America team and is on the watch list for the Bronco Nagurski Trophy, as the top collegiate defensive player in college.

The defensive line returns some veterans.

Conrad Bolston has departed for the NFL, but junior pass rusher Jeremy Navarre and senior run-stopper Dre Moore return.

Senior Carlos Feliciano, who started seven games last season, will step into Bolston's tackle spot where the Terps hope to have an improved rushing defense.

"We want to improve our tackling and the ability to shed blockers," second-year defensive coordinator Chris Cosh said.

With the departure of Wesley Jefferson and David Holloway, the linebacking corps will have to be a focus. Younger, more inexperienced players will likely man those spots, while Trey Covington is back as the starter at LEO, a hybrid defensive end/linebacker position.

The spring featured some heated battles at linebacker as junior Chase Bullock and redshirt freshman Alex Wujciak vied for the Mike position, while redshirt freshman Adrian Moten and junior Moise Fokou pushed each other at Sam.

Both of the those battles should continue through fall camp.

There are two personnel and position changes in the secondary where All-America cornerback Josh Wilson and strong safety Marcus Wimbush have departed.

Wilson translated a superb senior season into becoming a second-round choice of the Seattle Seahawks in the 2007 NFL Draft.

Senior Isaiah Gardner returns at cornerback, though he missed all of the spring to rehab his shoulder injury.

Gardner enters the fall as one starter, while junior Kevin Barnes is atop the depth chart at the other corner.

However, there should be plenty of competition at cornerback in camp.

Senior Christian Varner moved from free safety to strong safety in the spring, a switch which seemed to pay dividends

"Christian looked much more aggressive in the spring," Friedgen said. "We're looking for a big season from him."

Junior J.J. Justice entered the spring No. 1 at free safety and remained there, though sophomore Terrell Skinner will push him in August.

Offense and defense are the first aspects of a football team which come to mind, but many games are won and lost with special teams

Chief among the concerns of the coaching staff is the lack of a returning punter or place-kicker. All-ACC performers Adam Podlesh and Dan Ennis have completed their eligibility

Podlesh's resume did not go unnoticed as he was the first punter taken in last spring's NFL Draft when he was chosen in the fourth round by the Jacksonville Jaguars. No one on the roster has punted or place-kicked during a collegiate game.

Veteran Obi Egekeze handled kickoff duties for most of last season and possesses a strong leg.

Egekeze came out of the spring No. 1 on the depth chart, but true freshman Travis Baltz, who enrolled in January, is battling for both kicking jobs.

Baltz emerged as the No. 1 punter and is No. 2 at place-kicker.

"There should continue to be competition at both spots in the fall," Friedgen said.

OFFENSE

QUARTERBACK

The Terps have some big shoes to fill at quarterback where two-year starter Sam Hollenbach ended a solid career last season. Hollenbach was the unquestioned leader of the offense, directing the Terps to nine victories, including a flawless performance in the Champs Sports Bowl win.

QUARTERBACK

4	Bobby Sheahin	QB	6-1	185	Jr.	SQ
10	Chris Turner	QB	6-3	214	So.	SQ
11	Jamar Robinson	QB	6-0	184	Fr.	HS
12	Josh Portis	QB	6-4	210	So.	TR
19	Jordan Steffy	QB	6-1	209	Jr.	2V

Hollenbach earned MVP honors in the bowl game and ended his career as one of just four quarterbacks in school history to toss for over 5,000 career yards.

But Friedgen, who is also in his second year as offensive coordinator, has plenty of capable replacements.

There are five quarterbacks on the roster, but there appears to be three candidates for the starting spot this fall.

Jordan Steffy, the backup last season, enters the fall atop the depth chart. He is the only signal-caller on the roster to take snaps under center at Maryland. Steffy has played sparingly in his career, but has the necessary skills to be productive in Friedgen's system.

"Jordan has matured tremendously since he came here as far as watching tape and going through the playbook," Friedgen said. "I see a whole different person right now."

Steffy played in just one game last season, but saw action in six contests in 2004 as a true freshman.

Jordan Steffy (above) has the edge at quarterback heading into the fall, while Andrew Crummey (below) is a 2007 preseason All-American.

"It was disappointing that he wasn't able to play more last year because every game was so close," Friedgen said. "But I did see he really improved in practice and he did some good things, whether he can transfer that to the field is what we have to find out."

Sophomores Josh Portis and Chris Turner will push Steffy. Portis enters the fall No. 2 on the depth chart.

Portis sat out last season after transferring from the University of Florida, but was a highly sought-after recruit two years ago. He possesses a strong arm with the ability to move around the pocket. He played sparingly at UF as a true freshman in 2005.

"Josh has tremendous tools but what people just don't understand is that it takes a while to learn how to play quarterback, especially in our system, or any system," Friedgen said.

Portis didn't see many reps last season, as he spent most of the fall as a scout-team quarterback. He got quite a few more snaps in the spring, but wasn't quite able to showcase his elusiveness.

"Josh really didn't have a chance to show what he can do in the spring because we don't tackle the quarterback," Friedgen. "He's very athletic and has the ability to make people miss."

OFFENSIVE STARTERS RETURNING/LOST...

Starters Returning (6)

RB Lance Ball — Sr.-2V — 5-9, 223
- An All-ACC performer, ranks 13th on the school's career rushing yards list (1,719); team's leading rusher the last two seasons.

OL Edwin Williams — Jr.-2V — 6-2, 326
- An All-ACC candidate; played in last 23 games, including 13-straight starts, emerged as starting center last season.

OL Andrew Crummey — Sr.-3V — 6-5, 301
- A preseason All-American; second-team All-ACC selection last season; leads team with 28 career starts.

TE Joey Haynos — Sr.-3V — 6-8, 260
- An all-conference candidate; honorable mention All-ACC selection in 2006; has played in 30 career games.

WR Darrius Heyward-Bey — So.-1V — 6-2, 206
- A consensus preseason first-team All-ACC choice; first-team Freshman All-American by The Sporting News and Rivals.com in 2006.

WR Isaiah Williams — Jr.-2V — 6-3, 197
- Started all 13 games in 2006; second-leading receiver on team.

Starters Lost (5)

QB Sam Hollenbach — Sr.-3L — 6-4, 214
- Fourth QB in school history to throw for over 5,000 yards; honorable mention All-ACC in 2006; MVP of 2006 Champs Sports Bowl.

OL Stephon Heyer — Sr.-4L — 6-6, 320
- Started 37 career games; honorable mention All-ACC in 2006; named to ESPN.com all bowl team for performance in Champs Sports Bowl.

OL Donnie Woods — Jr.-2L — 6-3, 289
- Started 10 games at left guard last season; left team with one year of eligibility remaining to oursue a career in the Army

OL Jared Gaither — Jr.-2V — 6-9, 325
- Started at left and right tackle in his career

RB Tim Cesa — Jr.-2L — 6-1, 256
- Started six games in 2006; will not play due to injury.

Turner, who is more of a dropback passer, enters the fall No. 3 on the depth chart. He has spent two years in the Friedgen system and next to Steffy is the most knowledgeable of the offense.

Turner was also highly recruited coming out of high school in 2004

"Chris played well in the spring," Friedgen said. "He showed he could make some things happen."

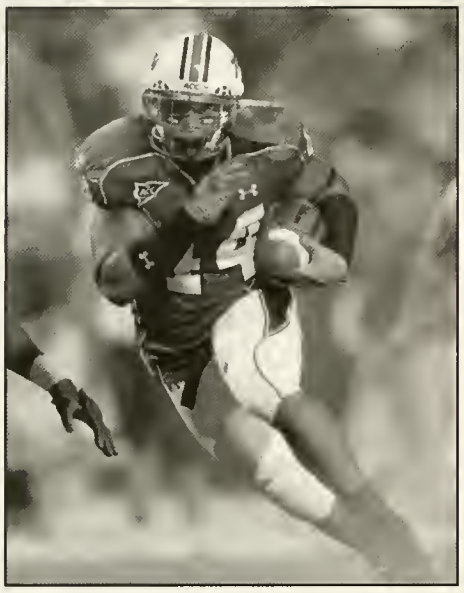
Also in the mix for time under center are junior Bobby Sheahin and freshman Jamarr Robinson

Sheahin transferred from West Virginia two years ago, and Robinson is a true freshman who signed with the Terps in 2006, but enrolled in school in January.

"Jamarr is learning," Friedgen said. "Ideally, we'd like to redshirt him, but we'll see. He's shown me something."

Sheahin is a pocket passer, while Robinson is a threat with his arm and legs.

"Sheahin may have the strongest arm on the team and is pretty mobile," Friedgen said.



Lance Ball led the Terps in rushing in 2006 with 815 yards and eight touchdowns.

RUNNING BACK

This is among the deepest and most talented positions on the roster, as the Terps possess one of the most dynamic backfield combinations in the country.

RUNNING BACK

20	Morgan Green	RB	5-11	207	Fr.RS
21	Keon Lattimore	RB	5-11	223	Sr. 3V
22	Pha'Terrell Washington	RB	5-11	202	Fr.RS
23	Da'Rel Scott	RB	5-11	192	Fr.RS
38	Cory Jackson	RB	6-1	253	So. 1V
40	David Akatu	RB	5-8	205	Fr.RS
44	Lance Ball	RB	5-9	223	Sr. 2V
46	Steve Pfister	RB	6-2	234	So.SQ

Seniors Lance Ball and Keon Lattimore have only scratched the surface of their potential. This duo combined for over 1,500 yards on the ground last season and will be looking for more in 2007 when each should vie for All-ACC honors.

Ball racked up a team-high 815 rushing yards in 2006, but Lattimore was not far behind with 743. They were one of just five running-back combos in the nation last season to collect over 700 rushing yards apiece.

"Lance Ball is one of the best running backs in the conference," Friedgen said.

Ball ranked seventh in the ACC in rushing (62.7 yards per game) last year and posted eight touchdowns on the ground. He started 11 of 13 games, but had just 14 more carries than his counterpart.

Both can also catch the ball out of the backfield, though Lattimore was used more in that role, totaling 20 receptions to rank fifth on the team.

Lattimore was slowed by a back injury in the spring, but should be ready to go for camp.

"Keon missed all of the spring, but he also played some very good games for us last year," Friedgen said. Redshirt freshmen Morgan Green and Da'Rel Scott were expected to battle for the No. 3 spot in the spring, but an injury to Scott ended that duel. Green took advantage of his opportunity.

"Morgan Green had a very good spring," Friedgen said. "He was much improved."

Green and Scott each have a solid prep pedigree. Green was ranked among the top 20 tailbacks in the nation coming out of high school by Rivals.com, while Scott was listed among top 25 athletes in the country by the same outlet.

A pair of redshirt freshmen - David Akatu and Pha'Terrell Washington - add depth behind Green and Scott.

Washington moved to tailback from the secondary in the spring and saw quite a bit of action due to the injuries to Lattimore and Scott.

Sophomore fullback Cory Jackson took full advantage of his opportunity last season and enters the fall as the lead blocker for Ball and Lattimore. Jackson saw extensive action in the second half of last season, subbing for an injured Tim Cesa, who will not return to the team this season.

Jackson proved to be a capable blocker as the Terps had two of their highest rushing totals (194 vs. Wake Forest and 206 vs. Purdue) in the final two games of the season. He also showed good hands, catching four passes as the outlet receiver.

Depth is a concern at this position as Jackson was the only fullback on the roster at the end of last season.

Sophomore Steve Pfister moved from linebacker over the winter and saw his first action at fullback in the spring. He enters the fall No. 2 on the depth chart.

"Steve gives great effort," Friedgen said. "He's been behind a number of guys at linebacker. He's someone we think can help us at fullback."

Incoming freshman Haroon Brown is a newcomer who may figure into the rotation with the depth at fullback.

Freshman Taylor Watson was an all-state running back in high school and may also compete for time in the backfield.

Darrius Heyward-Bey (top), Isaiah Williams (middle) and Danny Oquendo (bottom) form one of the top receiving trios in the ACC.

WIDE RECEIVER

After a somewhat inconsistent 2006 season, the receivin corps, led by returning starters Darrius Heyward-Bey an Isaiah Williams, has a chance to be one of the top unit on the team.

WIDE RECEIVERS

7	Adrian Cannon	WR	6-2	204	Fr. RS
8	Darrius Heyward-Bey	WR	6-2	206	So. 1V
17	Danny Oquendo	WR	6-0	188	Jr. 2V
18	LaQuan Williams	WR	6-1	184	Fr. RS
29	Chris Sheahin	WR	6-0	187	Fr. TR
81	Stephen Smalls	WR	6-1	201	Fr. RS
83	Emani Lee-Odai	WR	6-3	197	Fr. RS
84	Isaiah Williams	WR	6-3	197	Jr. 2V
87	Kevin Gresham	WR	5-11	174	Jr. SQ
89	Matt Goldberg	WR	6-2	193	Jr. SQ

Heyward-Bey, one of the most explosive players on th team, is coming off a Freshman All-America season, while Williams showed flashes last year, ending with 29 catches for 379 yards, including a 65-yard effort in the regular-season finale vs. Wake Forest.

Heyward-Bey had one of the top seasons in ACC history as his 694 receiving yards were third all-time on the freshman single-season list.

"Darrius is coming off a really good season and we expect some outstanding things from him this year," Friedgen said.

Junior Danny Oquendo also returns to man the slo receiver position as all but one wideout who caught a pass last season is back (Drew Weatherly had one reception). He was the second-leading receiver on the team in 2006 with 396 yards and served as the primary punt returner.

"Danny gives us a lot of versatility," Friedgen said. "No just in the return game, but he can also play two receiver positions."

There were certainly a number of highlights from the receiving corps in 2006, including Heyward-Bey's record-setting performance vs. Miami (two touchdowns, including a school-record 96-yard TD catch). He also hauled in three more scores and finished fifth in the conference in receiving (53.4 yards per game).

"We're pretty solid at the top, but need to find a fourth receiver," Friedgen said.

There are a number of candidates, including Adrian Cannon, LaQuan Williams, Emani Lee-Odai, and Kevin Gresham.

Some true freshmen may also get a look, including Tony Logan, Quinton McCree, Torrey Smith, Ronnie Tyler and Lansford Watson

Logan, Tyler and Watson were all high school All-Americans, while McCree and Smith were all-state prep performers.

Cannon and Lee-Odai are penciled in as backups at the X position, behind Isaiah Williams and Oquendo. Williams missed the spring with a shoulder injury, but should be ready in the fall. He hauled in 28 receptions last season and has loads of potential.

Cannon is another big target. He sat out last season as a redshirt, while Lee-Odai is a tall and rangy local product who has put on about 20 pounds since arriving on campus from Anacostia High School in Washington, D.C.

LaQuan Williams, who moved from defensive back in the spring, is listed as the backup to Heyward-Bey, along with Greshman.

Smalls joins Oquendo atop the depth chart at the slot receiver. Smalls enrolled early last year, but used 2006 as a redshirt season.

"Stephen developed as a slot receiver in the spring and showed a lot of improvement," Friedgen said.

Junior Matt Goldberg will continue to have an opportunity for playing time in the fall, though he has yet to see game action.

Freshman Chris Sheahin, whose brother Bobby is a reserve signal-caller, will provide depth at wideout.

OFFENSIVE LINE/ TIGHT END

Despite the loss of a number of offensive linemen in the off-season, the Terps should have a talented first unit and a few solid backups to start the season.

"We have a solid starting group," Friedgen said. "But we'll need some guys to step up."

The good news is the Terps return four offensive linemen who have started games in their careers, including four regulars from last season. The bad news is no one has seen any significant action behind those four players.

Center Edwin Williams and right guard Andrew Crummey are the returning starters on the line. That duo will be joined by Jaimie Thomas and Dane Randolph, each of whom started multiple times last season.

Senior Scott Burley an acclaimed high school player who has seen limited action at Maryland, stepped into the left-tackle role in the spring and played well in his first stint with the top unit.

Crummey was an All-ACC choice last season at right guard, while Williams started every game at center on an offensive line which had two running backs each gain over 700 rushing yards and allowed just 19 sacks, the second-lowest total in the ACC.

Crummey should be among the top guards in the nation this season. He's a preseason All-American and a consensus first-team all-conference choice.

Thomas started the final three games of the season at left guard as a replacement for Donnie Woods, who will not return to the team this season. After starting the first 10 games of 2006 at left guard, Woods decided to forego his final season of eligibility. Thomas enters the fall as the starter at left guard.

The Terps will also have to replace both tackles with the departure of Stephon Heyer and Jared Gaither. LT Heyer was an honorable mention All-ACC choice in 2006, while Gaither started nine games at right tackle, but will not play this season.

Randolph split time with Gaither at right tackle toward the end of last season so he comes into the season with plenty of experience. Randolph will open the spring as the starter at right tackle.

"Our offensive line at one point was a real strength and now we've lost some guys," Friedgen said.

Sophomore Phil Costa probably has the most experience among the reserves. He played in just two games last season, but spent the spring of 2005 as the starting center with Williams out of action.

He's a hard worker and one of the strongest members of the team.

Senior Jack Griffin, a two-year letterwinner, has a chance to have a more prominent role this season. Griffin is the backup at right tackle.

Redshirt freshman Evan Eastburn is listed as the backup to Thomas at left guard, while junior Lee Oliver is No. 2 at right guard. Neither has seen game action.

Other reserves who may figure into the mix include redshirt freshmen Paul Pinegar, Danny Edwards and Matthew Harraka, as well as junior Kyle Sappington

Pinegar was singled out by Friedgen a number of times in the spring for his play. He is listed as Burley's backup at left tackle heading into the fall.

Edwin Williams (top) is among the ACC's best centers, while Joey Haynos (bottom) continues the Terrapin tradition of talented tight ends.

Offensive line is generally not a position where true freshmen play, but there may be an opportunity

Tyler Bowen, Joe Faiella, Maurice Hampton, Bearthur Johnson, Carl Russell, Stephen St. John and Lamar Young were all highly recruited and may get a chance to see time in the fall.

While the offensive line lost a number of players, tight end has plenty of depth.

The Terps employ a two tight-end set quite often and return starter Joey Haynos, as well as a host of backups. Junior Dan Gronkowski can't quite be considered a backup as he started nine games in 2006.

Haynos, though, received the bulk of the reps and was the Terps' second-leading receiver with 37 catches for 369 yards. He went on to earn honorable mention All-ACC honors and is a preseason all-league selection this year.

"Joey really had a coming-out last year," Friedgen said. "He played very well for us."

Gronkowski is a solid blocker and an improving pass-catcher.

"Dan had a very good spring," Friedgen said "He and Joey give us two very good tight ends."

Senior Jason Goode also saw time last season and will be joined by redshirt freshman Drew Gloster and sophomore Tommy Galt as backups.

"Goode and Gloster are smaller tight ends, but they run very well and can make plays in the passing game," Fnedgen said. "Both can play in space."

DEFENSE

DEFENSIVE LINE

Maryland lost one of its three starters along the defensive line, but does return a part-time starter.

DEFENSIVE LINE

96	Olugbemi Otulaja	DL	6-1	278	Jr.	TR
97	Dean Muhtadi	DL	6-3	289	Jr.	TR

Junior Jeremy Navarre started 12 games at defensive end and tied for the team lead with 3 ½ sacks. He'll be joined by tackle Dre Moore who started 10 games at defensive tackle.

"Depth along the defensive line is one of our concerns on defense," Friedgen said.

Navarre missed most of the spring with a knee injury, but it did give some other guys reps.

Moore, who had a solid spring practice, collected 47 tackles, including a team-high tying 3 ½ sacks, last season and did a good job clogging up the middle.

Junior Carlos Feliciano will step into the defensive-tackle role which was occupied by Conrad Bolston last season. Feliciano actually started seven games along the line and saw significant action all season.

Backups at defensive tackle include sophomore Travis Ivey. Junior transfer Olegbemi Otulaja and Dean Muhtadi will add depth in the middle.

Junior Mack Frost and sophomore Jared Harrell are the backups at defensive end with Frost having the most experience with 19 career games under his belt.

"Mack played very well in the spring," Friedgen said. "He got some more reps with Jeremy's injury and played well."

The Terps have some depth at defensive end. Backing up Navarre and Frost are sophomore Deege Galt and junior Ricardo Dacosta

DEFENSIVE STARTERS RETURNING/LOST...

Starters Returning (6)

DE Jeremy Navarre — Jr.-2L — 6-3, 262
- An All-ACC candidate; emerged last season as one of the top pass rushers on the team; his 12 career tackles for loss are tops among active players.

DT Dre Moore — Sr.-3L — 6-4, 311
- An All-ACC candidate, posted the highest strength index on the team in spring testing; a stopper along the interior of the defensive line.

LB Trey Covington — Jr.-1L — 6-2, 252
- A solid pass rusher from the LEO position who totaled 41 stops in 2006.

LB Erin Henderson — Jr.-1L — 6-3, 236
- A preseason Playboy All-American; one of the top young linebackers in the nation; a second-team All-ACC linebacker last season; second in the ACC in tackles last season.

CB Isaiah Gardner — Sr.-2L — 5-11, 197
- A candidate for All-ACC honors this fall; second-leading returning tackler on the team with 63 stops in 2006; missed spring with a shoulder injury.

FS Christian Varner — Sr.-3L — 5-11, 205
- An All-ACC candidate; has played in all 35 games over the last three years; finished sixth on the team in tackles in 2006 (58); moved to SS in the spring.

Starters Lost (5)

DT Conrad Bolston — Sr.-4L — 6-3, 303
- A powerful player with the ability to get upfield; played in the 2007 Hula Bowl.

LB Wesley Jefferson — Jr.-2L — 6-2, 233
- An instinctive player who always seemed to be around the ball; second-leading tackler in 2006 (110); gave up his final year of eligibility to pursue a career as a state trooper.

LB David Holloway — Sr.-3L — 6-2, 230
- His 186 career tackles ranked first on the team among active players at the end of last season; played in the 2007 Hula Bowl.

CB Josh Wilson — Sr.-4L — 5-9, 187
- All-ACC and honorable mention All-America in 2006; two-time Academic All-ACC selection; also set the single-season school record for kick return yards in 2006; second-round choice of Seattle in 2007 NFL Draft.

SS Marcus Wimbush — Sr.-3L — 5-10, 202
- Recorded 68 tackles last season; voted the team's most improved defensive player in 2006

LINEBACKER

The linebacking corps may have the most question marks among the defensive units, but it's certainly not because of a lack of talent. The only thing holding this group back is experience.

There were battles at nearly every spot in the spring and some will continue into the fall.

LINEBACKERS

1	Erin Henderson	LB	6-3	236	Jr.	1V
33	Alex Wujciak	LB	6-3	248	Fr.	RS
34	Dave Philistin	LB	6-2	231	Jr.	2V
38	Brian Dickerson	LB	5-10	214	Jr.	SQ
41	Aaron Ball	LB	6-0	224	Jr.	TR
42	Chase Bullock	LB	6-2	234	Jr.	SQ
43	Rick Costa	LB	6-1	238	Jr.	1L
45	Alex Schultz	LB	6-1	233	So.	SQ
46	Hakeem Sule	LB	6-0	209	So.	SQ
47	Jeff Clement	LB	6-2	246	So.	SQ
48	Moise Fokou	LB	6-1	216	Jr.	1V
50	Jermaine Lemons	LB	6-2	251	Sr.	1V
51	Brian Whitmore	LB	6-3	244	Fr.	RS
52	Chris Clinton	LB	6-2	259	Fr.	RS
54	Adrian Moten	LB	6-2	221	Fr.	RS
55	Trey Covington	LB	6-3	240	Jr.	2V
57	Jared Harrell	LB	6-5	248	So.	SQ

Junior Erin Henderson returns to headline this unit. Henderson, the starter at Will LB, is coming off a season in which he recovered from a serious knee injury quite nicely. He posted a team-high 8.8 tackles per game, which ranked second in the ACC and 31st nationally.

Henderson, who missed all of 2005, claimed second-team All-ACC honors in 2006 and should be among the most feared defensive players in the league this fall.

He was named to the 2007 Playboy Preseason All-America team and may be in the running for some postseason awards as well.

Trey Covington (top) returns as the starter at LEO, while Moise Fokou (bottom) is battling for the starting Sam linebacker spot.

Juniors Dave Philistin and Rick Costa are behind Henderson, but both are more than capable of filling in at Will.

Philistin played in all 13 games last season, while Costa showed an ability to rush the passer off the edge. Costa is a player who could see time in nickel situations.

The other two linebacking spots are a little more open.

Junior Chase Bullock and redshirt freshman Alex Wujciak will look to replace Mike LB Wesley Jefferson who graduated in January and gave up his final season of eligibility to pursue a career in law enforcement.

Bullock, who enters the fall No. 1 on the depth chart with Wujciak, played sparingly last season. Bullock saw action in six games as Jefferson took most of the reps inside en route to posting 110 tackles.

"Both Chase Bullock and Alex Wujciak are very good players," Friedgen said. "They had a good battle in the spring."

Junior Moise Fokou and redshirt freshman Adrian Moten enter the fall No. 1 on the depth chart at Sam. These two enjoyed a tough battle in the spring to replace David Holloway, one which should continue into fall camp.

"Fokou and Moten had a good battle at Sam in the spring," Friedgen said. "Both will be good players."

Fokou is a versatile player who played in all 13 games as a reserve linebacker last season.

Alex Schultz, Brian Dickerson and Aaron Ball are reserves who provide depth at each linebacker position.

Junior Trey Covington is back to man the LEO, a hybrid defensive end/outside linebacker position.

Covington made 11 starts a year ago, tallying 41 tackles. He did miss most of the spring with an injury.

Redshirt freshman Chris Clinton and sophomore Jeff Clement enter the fall as the backups at LEO.

Senior Jermaine Lemons and redshirt freshman Brian Whitmore are behind Clinton and Clement at LEO.

Newcomers at linebacker include Derek Drummond and Ben Pooler.

SECONDARY

One of the Terps' top defenders over the last two seasons is no longer in the secondary. Cornerback Josh Wilson was not only a productive football player, but a leader in the locker room and off the field after earning honorable mention All-America honors and the James Tatum Award as the top football-playing student-athlete in the ACC in 2006.

However, his counterpart – senior Isaiah Gardner – returns and should assume more of a leadership role in the secondary this season. Gardner started all 13 games at cornerback last season, finishing fifth on the team in tackles with 63. He is expected to assume his starting role again, despite missing spring practice after off-season shoulder surgery.

Drew Moore (top) will need to be an anchor along the defensive line, while Isaiah Gardner (top middle), Christian Varner (bottom middle) are returning senior starters in the defensive backfield. J.J. Justice (bottom) is another veteran expected to see significant action.

Junior Kevin Barnes emerged in the spring and sits atop the depth chart at the other cornerback slot entering the fall. He played in all 13 games last season.

"Kevin Barnes had an excellent spring," Friedgen said. "I thought he came into his own. He's a solid cover corner."

Sophomore Anthony Wiseman and junior Richard Taylor are No. 2 at each cornerback slot. Wiseman was hurt most of last season, while Taylor played in all 13 games last season, seeing time on special teams and in the secondary.

Sophomore Nolan Carroll made the move from wide receiver to cornerback in the spring and should be in the mix for playing time in the fall.

"Wiseman and Carroll are both developing, but have shown potential," Friedgen said.

Senior Colin Nelson, redshirt freshman Brandon Jackson-Mills, junior Drew Robinson and sophomore Adam Kareem add depth at cornerback and could see time on special teams.

"There's a lot of guys who have a chance to help us at cornerback," Friedgen said.

The Terps also need a replacement for steady strong safety Marcus Wimbush, who led the secondary in tackles last season with 68.

Senior Christian Varner will move from his free safety spot to take Wimbush's place, while junior J.J. Justice assumes Varner's role.

Varner had a solid junior season and made an easy transition to strong safety in the spring.

Justice played in all 13 games last season and started one game at strong safety. Sophomore Terrell Skinner is the backup free safety after seeing action in eight games last season.

"Skinner is at the developmental stage, but he's a big, strong, fast player," Friedgen said.

Skinner should continue to push Justice in the fall.

Junior Jeff Allen should give the safety unit even more depth. He played in every game last season and looks poised to vie for extensive time this season.

"Jeff had a very good winter and we're looking for good things from him this year," Friedgen said. "He's a steady player."

Sophomore Jamari McCollough, a reserve strong safety, was recovering from a knee injury in the spring and saw limited action, but should be at full speed in the fall.

Jared Baum, Taji Thornton and Femi Akinwande add depth at safety.

The lone coaching staff adjustment for the Terps in the off-season affected the secondary as Kevin Lempa was hired to oversee this group. Tim Banks left to become the defensive coordinator at Central Michigan.

Lempa will look to groom some newcomers in the fall as Michael Carter, a transfer from Ene Community College, and freshmen Dominique Herald and Trenton Hughes will be added to the defensive backfield mix.

In addition, Antwine Perez, a heralded recruit two years ago, transferred from USC in January. He'll sit out this season and have three years of eligibility beginning in 2008.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Special teams is one of the biggest question marks for the Terps heading into the fall.

SPECIALISTS

16	David May	PK	5-11	196	Jr	SQ
31	Andrew Schmitt	LS	6-0	236	Jr	2V
35	Travis Baltz	P/PK	6-2	200	Fr	HS

53	Brendan McDermond	LS	6-2	265	Sr	2V

Adam Podlesh was an All-ACC punter and two-time semifinalist for the Ray Guy Award. His consistency may have been his best attribute, as he became the first player in school history to earn all-league honors four times, including second-team last season.

While Podlesh is taking his game to the Jacksonville Jaguars of the NFL, Dan Ennis was quietly one of the top place-kickers in the conference the last two seasons.

Ennis connected on 20 of 25 field goals last year, including the game-winner in a pulsating 13-12 road victory over No. 19 Clemson. Ennis tied for ninth nationally in field goals per game (1.54).

Junior Chris Roberts and true freshman Travis Baltz, who entered school in the spring, will continue to battle for the punting job. Baltz enters the fall No. 1 on the depth chart, but Roberts comes in No. 2.

Baltz, a freshman from Whitehouse, Ohio, is also in the mix at place-kicker.

"Travis is a good-looking kid with long legs which should give him some leverage punting," Friedgen said. "He's still in the developmental stage and it was good for him to get in early this spring and get exposed to the level of competition."

After serving as one of the kickoff specialists the last two seasons, junior Obi Egekeze is slightly ahead in the battle to replace Ennis as the place-kicker. He has never attempted a kick in a game.

Egekeze sits atop the depth chart, but Baltz is not far behind.

"We should have good competition at both kicking spots in the fall," Friedgen said.

Junior Danny Oquendo is back as the No. 1 punt returner. He ranked eighth in the ACC in returns last season, averaging 8.4 yards per attempt.

With the departure of Josh Wilson, who ranked 11th in the nation with 27.3 yard average, the Terps are in search of a kickoff return specialist.

Redshirt freshman Da'Rel Scott enters the fall No. 1 on the depth chart, but a number of individuals will get a shot, including Terrell Skinner and Anthony Wiseman.

No one in that group has returned kickoffs, though Oquendo and Nolan Carroll each have limited experience in that capacity.

2006 REVIEW NOTEBOOK

QUICK HITS

- Maryland finished the season 9-4, marking the 13th time in 114 years of football the Terrapins have won at least nine games in a season. Four of those seasons have come during Ralph Friedgen's time as head coach.
- The Terps compiled an impressive streak in the middle of the season, starting with a come-from-behind 28-26 victory at Virginia on Oct. 14. That victory began a five-game winning streak, one in which Maryland came through in crunch time, posting a combined victory margin of 13 points.
- After two straight losses to close the regular season, Maryland bounced back with its 24-7 victory over Purdue in the Champs Sports Bowl in Orlando, Fla., its third straight bowl win. The Terps finished the season second in the ACC Atlantic Division, narrowly missing a chance to play for the ACC Championship in Jacksonville, Fla.
- Senior Sam Hollenbach finished his Terps career with his best season. He passed for 2,371 yards and 15 touchdowns, while earning honorable mention All-ACC honors. The dual rushing attack of junior tailbacks Keon Lattimore and Lance Ball proved very effective for the Terps, as the pair rushed for over 1,500 yards and 11 touchdowns. In the receiving corps, Darrius Heyward-Bey had a breakout season, emerging as the Terps' No. 1 threat. The freshman All-American caught 45 passes for 694 yards and five touchdowns, all team-highs. The receptions were eighth-most ever by a freshman in the ACC, while the yards were third all-time among first-year players. In the Nov. 11 game against Miami, Heyward-Bey caught a 96-yard bomb from Hollenbach which set a new school record for longest touchdown pass.
- The Terrapins announced a sellout crowd at Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium for the regular-season finale against Wake Forest, with the attendance of 51,500 being 20th on the all-time on the single-game attendance list at Maryland. For the season, Maryland averaged 49,393 fans in its seven home games.
- Prior to the Wake Forest contest, Maryland honored 13 seniors who played their final season in a Terrapin uniform: 33-Josh Allen, 95-Conrad Bolston, 41-T.D. Callahan, 22-Dan Ennis, 70-Stephon Heyer, 14-Sam Hollenbach, 54-David Holloway, 7-J.P. Humber, 36-Adam Podlesh, 88-Greg Powell, 11-Drew Weatherly, 4-Josh Wilson, 12-Marcus Wimbush. This group of seniors finished their careers with a four-year record of 29-19 and a five-year mark of 40-22.

RECAPPING THE CHAMPS SPORTS BOWL

- In Maryland's return to postseason play after a two-year hiatus, the Terps showed no sign of rust as they jumped out to a quick lead and soundly defeated Big Ten foe Purdue, 24-7, in the Champs Sports Bowl.
- Sam Hollenbach (right) passed for 223 yards and two touchdowns, while Lance Ball and Keon Lattimore combined for 188 yards on the ground as the Terrapins offense outgained the Boilermakers 429-285. Hollenbach was the game's MVP
- The Terps defense nearly marked its first shutout of the season, yielding just one touchdown. The Boilermakers' lone score of the evening came on a 12-yard touchdown pass from Curtis Painter with 30 seconds remaining in the first half.
- Head coach Ralph Friedgen became the first head coach in Maryland history to notch three bowl victories in-a-row (2003 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl, 2004 Toyota Gator Bowl, 2006 Champs Sports Bowl).

OF DRAMA

- Maryland won five straight games (Oct. 24-Nov. 11) by a combined total of 13 points. Each game featured some fourth-quarter drama and kept Terrapin fans on the edge of their seats:
- After losing their ACC opener, 27-23, at Georgia Tech, Maryland trailed 20-0 at Virginia (Oct. 14) when the teams broke for halftime. The Terrapins got a 56-yard TD run from Keon Lattimore and a 45-yard interception return by Erin Henderson in a string of 28 unanswered points over a stretch of 6:11. Virginia pulled within 28-26 with a touchdown with 2:37 to play, but Josh Wilson tipped away the Cavaliers' two-point conversion attempt.
- The last time Maryland came from 20 points down to win a game was on Nov. 20, 1993 at Wake Forest. The Demon Deacons scored the first 23 points of the game before Maryland rallied to take a 33-32 victory.
- Before the win at Virginia, Maryland had earned two 14-point comebacks during Friedgen's tenure as head coach. Maryland trailed 21-7 at Wake Forest on Nov. 29, 2003 before winning 41-28. Also, the Terrapins trailed 21-7 against NC State on Nov. 9, 2003 before rallying for a 24-21 victory.
- Maryland used two turnovers by NC State to earn a 20-0 lead early in the game (Oct. 21), then held on for a 28-26 Homecoming win over the Wolfpack. NC State pulled to within two points with a touchdown with 58 seconds left, but the Terrapins covered an onside-kick attempt to squeak out the win.

- Sam Hollenbach threw three TD passes en route to a 27-14 third-quarter lead against Florida State (Oct. 28). The Seminoles closed to within 27-24 with 8:49 left on a 24-yard field goal by Gary Cismesia. As the Seminoles attempted a potential game-tying 46-yard field goal, DJeremy Navarre broke through the middle to block the kick and give Maryland the win.
- The fourth field goal of the day by Clemson's Jad Dea gave the Tigers a 12-10 lead over the Terps with 2:25 left in their game in Death Valley (Nov. 4). But Sam Hollenbach went 5-for-5 on a game-winning drive tha set up a 31-yard field goal by Dan Ennis as time ran out, giving the Terrapins a 13-12 road victory.
- Maryland took an early 14-0 lead against Miami (No 11), and then held on for a 14-13 win. Trey Covington had an interception at the Maryland 32-yard-line with 3:08 to play and Isaiah Gardner forced a fumble on a Miami punt-return attempt with 1:14 remaining to preserve the win.

MORE ON THE BOWL

- Maryland posted a three-game bowl winning streak for the first time in school history. The previous two win came over Tennessee 30-3 in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl (Dec. 31, 2002) and over West Virginia 41-7 in the Toyota Gator Bowl (Jan. 1, 2004).
- Maryland moved to 2-0 in bowl appearances against Big Ten Conference opponents. The Terrapins defeated Minnesota 17-7 in the Hall of Fame Bowl on (Dec. 22 1977).
- Maryland scored first for the 12th time in 21 bowl games and moved to 6-4-2 record in bowl games in which scored first. In 2006, the Terps were 7-1 when denting the scoreboard first.
- In the last three bowl games, Maryland has outscored its opponents in the first half by a combined score of 62-10 (21-7 vs. Purdue in 2006 Champs Sports Bowl; 24-0 vs West Virginia in 2004 Gator; 17-3 vs. Tennessee in 2002 Peach). Maryland has now outscored its last three bowl opponents by a score of 95-17.

ON BLOCKED PUNTS

- In special teams coach Ray Rychleski's six years, Maryland has had just two punters (Brooks Barnard and Adam Podlesh), two long snappers (Jon Condo and Andrew Schmitt) and zero blocked punts.
- The Terrapins' streak without a blocked punt goes back 85 games, now the longest streak in college football.
- The Terps have not had one blocked since Nov. 13, 1999 (Florida State). That amount of time became the longest in NCAA football recently when Georgia, which last had one blocked earlier in the 1999 season, had a punt blocked by Ole Miss.
- While the Terrapins are not yielding blocked punts, they are doing their best not to return the favor to their opposition. In the last two years, the Terps have blocked four punts. They opened this season with a Josh Wilson block against William & Mary.

SELECT COMPANY

Ralph Friedgen's 50 wins in his first six years as a head coach ranked tied for second in Atlantic Coast Conference history among coaches in their initial six years.

Though he was the top second-, third- and fourth-year coach in ACC history by wins, Friedgen's win total (41) after his fifth season fell short of the mark of 44 wins set by Clemson's Danny Ford from 1979-83. That mark, however, tied him for second with former Terrapin great Jerry Claiborne (1972-76) on the list of fifth-year mentors.

Friedgen (50-24) fell just short this season of matching the six-year ACC mark of Ford (51-15-2). Dick Crum of North Carolina also posted 50 wins in his first six seasons

BACK IN THE SADDLE

The 2006 season was Ralph Friedgen's first coordinating the Maryland offense while also serving as head coach. Prior to the year, Friedgen had not called offensive plays since leaving Georgia Tech in 2000.

Friedgen's offense was productive in his first year calling the plays, as Maryland averaged 21.8 points and 313.8 yards of total offense in 2006.

In his last stint in college as a coordinator (1998-2000), Friedgen guided a Georgia Tech offense unit that averaged 36.7 points and 444 yards of total offense per game. During that span, the Yellow Jackets posted a record of 27-8 (.771)

This run is Friedgen's second coordinating the Maryland offense as he served in the same role under head coach Bobby Ross from 1982-86. In his time with Ross at Maryland, Friedgen helped lead the Terps to three ACC Championships and was instrumental in the development of quarterbacks Boomer Esiason, Frank Reich and Stan Gelbaugh.

TOUGH ROAD

The Terrapins' road back to a bowl game was a challenging one, as their schedule was one of the toughest in the nation in 2006. The Terrapins played five teams ranked in the AP Top 20 at the time of the game (West Virginia, Georgia Tech, Clemson, Boston College, Wake Forest).

Eight bowl teams were among the 12 teams on Maryland's schedule in 2006 (Middle Tennessee, WVU, Georgia Tech, Florida State, Clemson, Miami, Boston College, Wake Forest). The Terrapins closed the 2006 schedule with five straight bowl teams.

The NCAA maintains a weekly-updated list of toughest schedules in the nation based on opponents' won-lost records. At one point, Maryland was facing the seventh-toughest slate of games among all Division I-A schools.

In his online column in the preseason, ESPN.com's Bruce Feldman ranked the Terps 2006 schedule as the 10th-toughest in college football.

SAM I AM

- For just the second time in the previous six years, Maryland started a season with a returning starter at the quarterback position. Sam Hollenbach's experience and knowledge of Friedgen's offense was indicative of the success the Terrapins had in his senior season.
- In 13 games, Hollenbach did not have a breakout performance, but did cut down on the mistakes that plagued him in 2005. In 2006, he finished 203-for-328 (61.9 completion percentage) for 2,371 yards with 15 touchdowns and 11 interceptions. His career completion percentage is third-best in school history, 61.4 percent (417-for-679).
- He finished his career at Maryland with 5,139 yards, ranking him fourth all time in passing yards behind Boomer Esiason, Scott Milanovich and Scott McBrien. They are the only four Terrapins to reach the 5,000 passing yards mark.
- On career lists, he also ranks third with 679 attempts, third in completions with 417 (461, Boomer Esiason, 1981-83) and fourth with 28 passing touchdowns.
- Hollenbach finished his career in College Park with a 15-9 record as a starter. He won the Champs Sports Bowl MVP award in his last game, and the team's offensive MVP honor at the year-end banquet.

POSTSEASON HARDWARE

- A number of Terrapins were honored for their play in the 2006 season.
- Nine Terps were named to the 2006 All-Atlantic Coast Conference team. Senior punter Adam Podlesh, sophomore linebacker Erin Henderson, junior offensive lineman Andrew Crummey and freshman wide receiver Darrius Heyward-Bey were voted to the second team, while senior quarterback Sam Hollenbach, junior tight end Joey Haynos, senior offensive tackle Stephon Heyer, senior cornerback Josh Wilson and senior place-kicker Dan Ennis were honorable mentions.
- Heyward-Bey was rewarded for his breakout freshman season with a number of additional honors, as he was named to The Sporting News Freshman All-America and Freshman All-ACC first teams, and Rivals.com's Freshman All-America first team.

Darrius Heyward-Bey

- Heyer was honored for his performance in the Terps' 24-7 win over Purdue in the Champs Sports Bowl by being selected to ESPN.com's All-Bowl Team.

Stephon Heyer

- Below is a list of honorees from the team's annual end-of-season banquet:

Defensive Most Valuable Player - Wesley Jefferson

Offensive Most Valuable Player - Sam Hollenbach

Ray Krouse Award for Team Most Valuable Player - Josh Wilson

TERPLE THREAT

- In 2006, tailbacks Lance Ball and Keon Lattimore were tremendous threats out of the backfield whenever either player touched the ball. In addition, the Terps' offense mixed in veteran Josh Allen. The trio accounted for 367 carries, 1,656 yards and 11 touchdowns rushing.
- Ball established himself as one of the league's top backs in 2005, rushing for 903 yards as a sophomore despite starting only four games. He rushed over 100 yards four times in the team's last seven games in 2005 and was ultimately named second team All-ACC.
- Ball led the team in rushing in 2006 with 815 yards on 174 carries (4.7 per carry) and eight touchdowns. He rushed for the fifth 100-yard game of his career at Georgia Tech (23 carries, 116 yards).
- Lattimore, a junior, missed spring recovering from a shoulder injury, but bounced back. He was second on the team in rushing (160 carries, 743 yards) and his 4.6 yards per carry was also second on the squad. Lattimore had the first 100-yard rushing game of his career at Virginia and surpassed that with 119 yards in the regular-season finale against Wake Forest.
- Ball and Lattimore were one of just five running back duos to tally 700 or more yards apiece during the season. They were joined by Steve Slaton and Pat White of West Virginia, James Davis and C.J. Spiller of Clemson, Darren McFadden and Felix Jones of Arkansas, and Mike Goodson and Jorvorskie Lane of Texas A&M.
- Allen gave the Terps yet another threat. He ended his career ninth in school history on the career rushing yards chart (1,958). He passed Billy Lovett (1,913/1966-68) in the NC State game (Oct. 21). He is also tied for sixth on the career rushing touchdowns list and is sixth on the total touchdowns chart with 25 (four receiving). He averaged 4.6 yards per carry for his career

MORE ON RECEIVING

- Darrius Heyward-Bey (below) had an outstanding game at Georgia Tech, often getting yards where there seemingly were none. He finished the day with five receptions for 111 yards, the first 100-yard effort of his young career and first of the season for the Terrapins.

- His 175-yard game against Miami featured touchdown catches of 65 and 96 yards on which he was able to display his showcase speed. His 175 yards accounted for the second-best game by an ACC receiver in 2006, behind only Jomar Wright's 10-for-176 game for Duke against Miami.
- His 694 receiving yards set a Maryland freshman record and were third all-time in ACC history among first-year players.
- Heyward-Bey jumped from a spot out of the top 10 on the ACC's receiving yards list into third place with his big game against the Hurricanes. He finished the season averaging 53.4 yards per game, fifth in the ACC.
- In the third game of the season (at West Virginia), the trio of Heyward-Bey, Isaiah Williams and Danny Oquendo accounted for eight more receptions (12) than they had in their collective careers prior to the season. Heyward-Bey and Williams each posted then career highs in receptions and yards and Williams caught his first career touchdown, a 35-yarder.

NOTING THE TERP DEFENSE

- When he was hired to come to Maryland, the talk about the mark Ralph Friedgen would make in College Park was all about offense. For the majority of his tenure, however, the most consistent Terp unit has been the defense.
- Since 2001, the Maryland defense has allowed an average of 19.2 points per game. In 2006, the Terps allowed an average of 21.8 points per game.
- Maryland's defense has been outstanding in the red zone, one of the key ingredients to the midseason winning streak. Between the final red-zone trip by Florida State (Oct. 28) and the end of the Boston College game (Nov 18), the Terps allowed just one touchdown and eight field goals in 11 attempts, while blocking one FG and seeing another FGA miss. The Eagles got a TD and FG in three trips inside the Terp 20. Wake Forest bucked that trend, getting four touchdowns and a field goal on six red-zone trips on Nov. 25.
- Since 2001, 46 of Maryland's 74 opponents (62 percent) have been held to 20 points or less.
- Since 2002, Maryland has held its opposition scoreless in 104 quarters (including 17 in 2006).
- Prior to the first-half shutout of NC State, the last time Maryland held an opponent scoreless in the first half was Nov. 27, 2004 when the Terps posted a zero on the scoreboard at Wake Forest. Maryland won that game 13-7.
- Maryland has held nine opponents to 100 yards or less passing since 2001 (one in 2006).
- Since 2001, Maryland has held its opposition below 100 yards rushing 17 times. The Terps accomplished the feat three times in 2006 (William & Mary, FIU, and Purdue). Against the Boilermakers in the Champs Sports Bowl, the Terps limited the Purdue rushing attack to just 21 net yards.
- Just five times since second game of 2003 has a quarterback been able to pass for more than one touchdown against the Terrapins (Virginia Tech's Bryan Randall in 2004, Clemson's Charlie Whitehurst in 2005, Virginia's Jameel Sewell, Florida State's Xavier Lee and BC's Matt Ryan in 2006).

LB UNIT HOME OF THE HARDWARE

- In the opening game of 2006, the Terps got eight players in at their four linebacker positions, with four of the team's top five tacklers being linebackers. Between Wesley Jefferson (below), Dave Philistin, Erin Henderson and Trey Covington, 28 tackles, three TFLs and two sacks were accounted for.

- Linebackers led the Terps in tackles in 11 of the 13 games (CB Isaiah Gardner had a team-high eight vs. Middle Tennessee and six vs. Purdue). Jefferson has led the Terps 5 times in games (W&M, FIU, UVa, NC State, Miami), while senior David Holloway topped the tackle chart against West Virginia and Georgia Tech. Henderson topped the tackle chart for the first time of the season against FSU, finishing with 13, then surpassed that total with a career-high18 at Clemson. He led the Terps with 11 stops against Wake Forest and had a team-best 114 on the season. His 8.8 tackles per game ranked second in the ACC. Jefferson was just behind Henderson as his 8.5 tackles per game ranked sixth in the league.
- Jefferson had a career-high 13 tackles against NC State. Jefferson had 14 at Miami and Henderson finished with a 4-9-13 chart against the 'Canes.
- Jefferson (W&M, UVa, NC State, Miami), Holloway (GT) and Henderson (UVa, FSU, Clem, Miami, Wake) posted games with double figure tackles in 2006.

PODLESH'S BOOMING SUCCESS

- Adam Podlesh finished his career as one of the top punters in Maryland history. He earned that distinction with as complete a resume as a punter can possess -- gross average, net average, directional punting and consistency -- and he has done it throughout his career at Maryland.
- In 2006, Podlesh averaged 42.9 yards per punt on 56 attempts with 23 balls inside the 20-yard line and 19 fair catches.
- Podlesh was ranked 22nd nationally in gross punt average in 2006.
- On 216 career punts (No. 4 all-time in school history), Podlesh dropped 38 percent (83) inside the opponents' 20-yard line and 16 percent (35) inside the opposition's 10.
- Podlesh earned second-team All-ACC honors in each of his four years at Maryland. In each of those seasons, he was ranked just behind last year's Ray Guy Award winner Ryan Plackemeier of Wake Forest. He is the only player in school history to earn All-ACC honors four times.
- In being named the second team All-ACC punter in 2003, Podlesh became the first freshman in school history to be recognized by the league.
- Podlesh ranked among the top 25 nationally in punting average in each of his final three seasons. His career average of 43.1 yards per punt ranks second in school history and ninth in ACC annals. In addition, his 9,314 punting yards are also second in school history and ninth in the ACC. All four of his season punting averages rank among the top 10 in school history.

HEADING TO THE NFL

- Cornerback Josh Wilson and punter Adam Podlesh were selected in the 2007 NFL Draft. Wilson was chosen with the 23rd pick in the second round (55th overall) by the Seattle Seahawks and Podlesh was taken with the second pick of the fourth round (102nd overall) by the Jacksonville Jaguars. Wilson was the sixth cornerback taken in the draft, giving Maryland at least one player taken in the first or second round of each of the last five drafts. Wilson was the first Terp ever drafted by Seattle and the highest drafted cornerback in school history (Domonique Foxworth, third round of the 2005 NFL Draft by the Denver Broncos). Podlesh was the first punter taken in the draft and the highest drafted punter since Dustin Colquitt (Tennessee) was taken in the third round of the 2005 NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs. Podlesh joined Colquitt and B.J. Sander (third round of 2004 draft by Green Bay Packers) as the only punters taken in the top four rounds of the last five drafts.

With the selections of Wilson and Podlesh, Maryland has had a least two players taken in each of the last eight drafts and had its first punter taken since 1975 (Phil Wagenheim, 10th round by Baltimore Colts).

Five former Terps signed free-agent contracts following the 2007 NFL Draft. Josh Allen (Chicago Bears), Conrad Bolston (Minnesota Vikings), Stephon Heyer (Washington Redskins), Sam Hollenbach (Washington Redskins), David Holloway (Arizona Cardinals)

DEGREE IN HAND

Seven Terps took the field at the 2006 Champs Sports Bowl with their college diploma already in hand. RB Josh Allen, RB T.D. Callahan, OL Stephon Heyer, LB David Holloway, RB J.P. Humber, P Adam Podlesh, and CB Josh Wilson graduated from the University in December.

Nine current and former Maryland football players participated in May 2007 graduation ceremonies on campus. PK Dan Ennis, TE Dan Gronkowski, OB Sam Hollenbach, LB Wesley Jefferson, DE Jermaine Lemons, RB Sammy Maldonado, WR Greg Powell, DB Christian Varner and DB Marcus Wimbush all received their degrees from Maryland. Gronkowski, Lemons and Varner all have eligibility remaining, while Jefferson gave up his final season to pursue a career as a Maryland state trooper.

MARYLAND 27
WILLIAM & MARY 14

Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium
College Park, Md. • Sept. 2, 2006

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Lance Ball ran for 86 yards and two touchdowns, Keon Lattimore had a career-high 86 yards rushing and a score, as Maryland beat William & Mary, 27-14, in the season opener for both teams

The Terrapins had little difficulty against the Division I-AA Tribe, scoring touchdowns on two of their first three possessions in building a 24-7 halftime lead Fifth-year senior Sam Hollenbach went 9-for-15 for 153 yards

Ball, who led the Terrapins with 903 yards rushing last season, had 15 carries Lattimore, a junior, ran 13 times.

William & Mary, of the Atlantic 10 Conference, got offensive production from quarterback Jake Phillips, who completed 16 of 31 passes for 127 yards, including a 9-yard touchdown to Elliott Mack in the second quarter. Backup Michael Potts went 9-for-10 and threw a 49-yard TD pass to D J. McAulay with 4:35 left

The Terrapins led comfortably at halftime despite committing three turnovers and allowing the Tribe to control the ball for nearly 17 minutes

Maryland's first possession ended with wide receiver Danny Oquendo losing a fumble, but the Terrapins went up 7-0 the next time they got the ball. After Josh Wilson blocked a punt, Hollenbach completed a 42-yard pass to Joey Haynos to set up a 2-yard touchdown run by Ball.

Oquendo atoned for his turnover on the Terrapins' next drive, making a diving catch for a 38-yard gain with Maryland facing a third-and-11 at its 49 That led to a 1-yard touchdown run by Lattimore and a 14-0 lead

Minutes later, got a 39-yard field goal by Dan Ennis with 12:19 left in the second quarter.

The Terrapins then forced a punt, but the kick deflected off Maryland's Isaiah Gardner and was recovered by the Tribe at their 44 Nine plays later, Phillips connected with Mack to make it 17-7

Hollenbach directed a four-play, 75-yard drive that restored the 17-point cushion just before halftime. Hollenbach's 47-yard completion to Isaiah Williams preceded a 3-yard touchdown run by Ball with 53 seconds left in the half.

Hollenbach opened the second half by moving the Terrapins 53 yards in a drive that produced a 25-yard field goal by Ennis

MARYLAND 14
FLORIDA INTERNATIONAL 10

College Park, Md. • Sept. 23, 2006

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) -Sam Hollenbach threw a pair of first-half touchdown passes and Chnstian Varner intercepted Josh Padnck's pass at the 3-yard line as time expired preserving Maryland s 14-10 victory over Florida Internationai

Padnck who completed 15 ol 32 passes for 221 yards, completed a desperation heave to Chandler Williams at the 9 with 1 second left Varner's interception however sent the Golden Panthers (0-4 i to their fourth loss by a combined total of 11 points this season

Hollenbach completed 17 of 30 passes for 158 yards, and Lance Ball added 82 yards rushing for the Terrapins (3-1)

Maryland took advantage of early miscues by Florida International to take the lead

After a 13-yard punt by Chns Cook gave the Terrapins the ball at the Florida International 43, their drive appeared to stall when Alexander Boslic sacked Hollenbach on a third-and-11. But the Panthers were called for a face-mask penalty and two plays later Hollenbach hit Josh Allen on a screen pass for a 14-yard touchdown

The Terps had a chance to extend the lead early in the second quarter but Lionell Singleton intercepted Hollenbach s pass in the end zone

Two plays later, Panthers tight end Samuel Smith caught a short pass from Padnck broke a tackle at the 35 and ran 87 yards for the tying score It was the longest pass play in Florida Intemational history

Following a missed 47-yard field-goal attempt by Maryland's Dan Ennis, the Terrapins took a 14-7 lead near the end of the half when Danny Oquendo s 37-yard punt return gave them the ball at the Panthers 28 Hollenbach then found Williams in the front corner of the end zone with 10 seconds left

In the second half A'Mod Ned s 52-yard run down the right sideline set up Chns Patullo's 26-yard field goal, cutting Maryland's lead to 14-10 with 10 42 to play The Panthers had rushed for a total of 31 yards prior to Ned's run

Ball finished with 82 yards rushing for the Terrapins, who held the ball for 12 minutes more than Florida Intemational in the game

#18 GEORGIA TECH 27
MARYLAND 23

Bobby Dodd Stadium
Atlanta, Ga. • Oct. 7, 2006

ATLANTA (AP) -Tashard Choice rushed for a career-high 138 yards and two touchdowns and No. 18 Georgia Tech rallied from a nine-point deficit and survived a last-minute scare to beat Maryland 27-23

Michael Johnson got to Maryland quarterback Sam Hollenbach on third and fourth down in the final minute after the Terrapins had a first-and-goal at the 7

Choice posted his second straight 100-yard game Reggie Ball added 84 yards rushing with a touchdown and completed another touchdown pass to Calvin Johnson as Georgia Tech (5-1, 3-0) won its fifth straight game.

Johnson had 10 catches for 133 yards and a touchdown. He caught four passes for 53 yards in the first possession of the game including a 10-yard touchdown.

Maryland's first points came on a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown by Josh Wilson.

On Maryland's final possession, Sam Hollenbach completed a pass to Darnus Heyward-Bey that went for 57 yards to the Tech 7

Two carries by Lance Ball gained only 2 yards, leaving Maryland with a third down at the 5 Michael Johnson harassed Hollenbach, who was penalized for intentional grounding On fourth-and-19, Michael Johnson again broke through for another sack to end the Terrapins' upset bid

Maryland (3-2, 0-1) led 23-14 after three quarters before committing two turnovers in the final period.

After Tech pulled within 23-21 Lance Ball, who rushed for 116 yards, lost a fumble at the Maryland 17 with 11:05 left The ball was recovered by KaMichael Hall to set up the go-ahead 15-yard touchdown run by Choice.

The Terrapins then drove into Tech territory before Hollenbach's fourth-and-2 pass from the 41 was intercepted by Kenny Scott

Hollenbach's 3-yard pass to tight end Joey Haynos, open in the middle of the end zone, gave the Terrapins a 17-7 lead early in the second quarter.

Choice led Georgia Tech back handling the ball on seven plays in an eight-play touchdown drive that ended with his 1-yard leap over the top for the score

Trailing 17-14 Tech drove to the Maryland 23 late in the half. On fourth-and-1, Bell faked a 40-yard field goal attempt, but his pass attempt for Durant Brooks, the holder, was incomplete.

Dan Ennis kicked a career-long 46-yard field goal gave Maryland a 20-14 lead His 32-yarder in the third quarter pushed the lead to 23-14

MARYLAND 28
VIRGINIA 26

Scott Stadium
Charlottesville, Va. • Oct. 14, 2006

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. (AP) - Keon Lattimore ran 56 yards for the go-ahead touchdown and Erin Henderson returned an interception 45 yards for another score as Maryland rallied for a 28-26 victory over Virginia

The Terrapins (4-2, 1-1 Atlantic Coast Conference) trailed 20-0 before staging their comeback

It started when Emmanuel Byers muffed a punt early in the second half and Maryland recovered at the Virginia 1 Lance Ball scored on the next play and Maryland scored three more TDs before Virginia contributed some drama at the end

The Cavaliers (2-5, 1-2) had a chance to tie with 2:37 left when Jameel Sewell hit Kevin Ogletree with a 44-yard touchdown pass, but Terps defensive back Josh Wilson helped break up a 2-point pass to Ogletree

The victory was the first for the visiting team in five meetings between the Terps with Ralph Friedgen as coach and Virginia under Al Groh Last season, Maryland scored 21 points in the fourth quarter in a 45-33 win

After a 255-yard first half Virginia managed just three first downs in the third quarter The Cavaliers still led 21-7, but were clearly on their heels

Sam Hollenbach ran 3 yards for a touchdown on the second play of the final quarter, and the Terps held Virginia without a first down Five plays after the Terps took over at their 16, Lattimore burst through the line and down the right sideline almost untouched

Two plays after the kickoff, Henderson stepped in front of Sewell's pass for Tom Santi at the Terps 45 and the linebacker outran everyone down the other side

In 6:11 Maryland had scored 21 points and taken a 28-20 lead

Fans who weren't streaming to the exits saw Sewell drive the Cavaliers to the Maryland 21 before his 6-yard run and three incompletions gave the ball back

After a Maryland punt, Sewell found Ogletree down the middle of the field on the first play But Wilson also had Ogletree on the 2-point pass, and was there to help break up the attempt

Hollenbach was 17-for-28 for 171 yards, and Sewell was 13-for-21 for 243 He also ran 10 times for 92 yards, including a 36-yard touchdown on Virginia's first series

MARYLAND	26
NC STATE	20

Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium
College Park, Md. • Oct. 21, 2006

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) -Maryland converted two consecutive turnovers into 14 third-quarter points, and the Terrapins held on to defeat North Carolina State.

Maryland (5-2, 2-1 Atlantic Coast Conference) led 6-0 before a fumble recovery and an interception produced two quick touchdowns and a 20-point cushion.

NC State (3-4, 2-2) used a long drive and a 65-yard punt return by Darrell Blackman to close to 23-13 with 8:18 left, but the comeback bid was blunted when Daniel Evans threw his second interception of the game.

After Dan Ennis kicked his fourth field goal for Maryland, the Wolfpack used a 1-yard touchdown run by Toney Baker to get within six points with 58 seconds left. But the Terrapins recovered the onside kick to secure the victory.

Maryland's Sam Hollenbach went 7-for-9 for 115 yards and a touchdown, and Lance Ball ran for 77 yards and a score.

The Wolfpack have been hurt by turnovers all season, and the same problem hindered their bid to beat Maryland for a third straight time. On the first play from scrimmage in the second half, NC State's Andre Brown fumbled when hit by Marcus Wimbush, who recovered at the Wolfpack 31.

After Hollenbach threw a 21-yard completion to Darrius Heyward-Bey, Josh Allen scored on a 5-yard pass to make it 13-0.

On the first play after the kickoff, Evans was intercepted by Erin Henderson at the NC State 24. Hollenbach promptly ran for 20 yards, setting up a 2-yard touchdown run by Ball with 10:07 left in the third quarter.

NC State got on the board with a 14-play, 80-yard drive that ended in a 2-yard touchdown run by Brown. But the conversion was blocked, and the Terrapins padded their lead on the ensuing possession, getting a 40-yard field goal for a 23-6 lead.

Maryland running back Keon Lattimore had three catches for 72 yards and added 33 yards rushing in a first half dominated by the Terrapins.

Held to one first down on its opening two possessions, Maryland moved 67 yards in 10 plays before Ennis kicked a 32-yard field goal for a 3-0 lead. The key play was a 32-yard pass from Hollenbach to Lattimore.

The Terrapins started their next drive in identical fashion. This time, Lattimore took a short pass 34 yards to the Wolfpack 24. Five plays later, Ennis kicked a 27-yard field goal.

NC State got only 25 yards passing in the first half and advanced into Maryland territory only once in five possessions.

GAME 8

MARYLAND	27
FLORIDA STATE	24

Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium
College Park, Md. • Oct. 21, 2006

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Sam Hollenbach threw three touchdown passes, and Maryland held off Florida State to keep the Seminoles in the Atlantic Coast Conference cellar.

Maryland led 27-14 in the third quarter, but was not assured the win until Jeremy Navarre blocked a 46-yard field goal try by Gary Cismesia with 42 seconds left. It was the second time in three seasons that the Terrapins (6-2, 3-1) beat the Seminoles (4-4, 2-4). After the game, thousands of fans rushed the field to celebrate the win, which made the Terrapins bowl eligible.

Florida State sophomore quarterback Drew Weatherford was a late scratch with tendinitis in his right foot, ending a run of 20 successive starts. He was replaced by sophomore Xavier Lee.

The Seminoles closed to 27-24 with 8:49 left when Cismesia kicked a 24-yard field goal after Lee completed a 55-yard pass to Chris Davis. Florida State then forced a punt and took over at its own 15 with 5:30 to go.

The Seminoles got to the Maryland 16, but a sack by David Holloway and an incomplete pass preceded the ill-fated field goal try by Cismesia. A brisk wind with gusts of up to 40 mph affected with the kicking game.

On the opening drive of the third quarter, FSU Coach Bobby Bowden decided against punting into the wind on a fourth-and-1 at midfield.

Fullback Joe Surratt was stuffed by Navarre, and a personal foul against the Seminoles gave Maryland a first down on the FSU 33. On third down, Hollenbach threw a 30-yard touchdown pass to Darrius Heyward-Bey.

It turned out to be the Terrapins' final score. Lee then directed an 80-yard drive, capping the march with a 17-yard touchdown pass to Davis.

Hollenbach finished 9-for-16 for 113 yards. He threw two touchdown passes in the first half to stake the Terrapins to a 20-14 lead.

Maryland took advantage of a turnover to go up 7-0 in the first quarter. After FSU receiver Greg Carr lost a fumble, Hollenbach capped a 48-yard drive with a 3-yard touchdown pass to Dan Gronkowski.

After Antone Smith scored on a 9-yard run for FSU, Dan Ennis put Maryland back in front with a field goal. The Terrapins then forced a punt, and Danny Oquendo returned the kick 35 yards, setting up a 5-yard touchdown catch by Heyward-Bey for a 17-7 lead.

A 28-yard punt gave Maryland the ball at the Florida State 49, and the Terrapins converted the fine field position into another field goal.

The Seminoles then closed to 20-14 when Carr made a leaping catch in the end zone with 53 seconds left in the half.

GAME 9

MARYLAND	13
#19 CLEMSON	12

Clemson Memorial Stadium
Clemson, S.C. • Nov. 4, 2006

CLEMSON, S.C. (AP) - Dan Ennis kicked a 31-yard field goal as time ran out, lifting Maryland to its fourth straight victory, a win over No. 19 Clemson that moved the Terrapins into a tie for first place in the Atlantic Division race.

The Terps (7-2, 4-1 ACC) used the same blueprint as Virginia Tech to keep Clemson's powerful running game in check. But it looked like it wouldn't matter after Jad Dean kicked his fourth field goal with 2:25 left to put the Tigers (7-3, 4-3) ahead 12-10.

But Sam Hollenbach drove Maryland 54 yards to Clemson's 12 - converting a fourth-and-inches with his sneak - to set up Ennis' game winner.

The Terps jumped and hugged Ennis in celebration. They had a lot to be happy about - the victory keeps them in the mix to represent the league's Atlantic Division in the championship game.

Maryland came into the weekend tied in the division with No. 16 Boston College and No. 22 Wake Forest. It remained on top with Wake Forest after the Demon Deacons' win over the Eagles later Saturday night.

Maryland's chances seemed slim after the Tigers got a key call overturned by the replay booth to help them take the lead.

Clemson trailed 10-9 midway through the final period when quarterback Will Proctor had the ball ripped from his hands at the end of a run near Clemson's 10. Tailback C.J. Spiller chased the ball back to the goal line and slid into the end zone as he collected it. When Maryland linebacker David Holloway fell on Spiller, officials gave Maryland a safety.

But after a lengthy review, Spiller was ruled down on Clemson's 1.

Two plays later, Proctor completed a 71-yard pass down the middle to tight end Thomas Hunter to Maryland's 28.

Clemson appeared to put the game away when James Davis rushed for a touchdown. That play, however, was nullified by an illegal procedure call and the Tigers settled for Dean's final kick.

Hollenbach led the Terps, completing 23 of 34 passes for 247 yards. He hit on 11 straight throws during one stretch, including Maryland's only touchdown play - a 7-yard scoring pass to Danny Oquendo.

GAME 10

#23 MARYLAND 14
MIAMI 13

College Park, Md. • Nov. 11, 2006

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Sam Hollenbach connected with Darnus Heyward-Bey twice, including a school-record 96-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter, as the Maryland Terrapins outlasted the Miami Hurricanes.

The Terps (8-2, 5-1 ACC) maintained a share of first place in the ACC Atlantic Division following the win. Miami fell to 5-5, 2-4 in the conference.

With the win, Maryland became the first team in 21 seasons to defeat both the Hurricanes and the Florida State Seminoles in the same year, a feat last accomplished by the Florida Gators in 1985.

Despite only recording six first downs, the Terps staked an early 14-0 lead and the defense prevailed, with a key interception by Trey Covington on the Hurricanes' final drive. Although Miami forced a late punt, Isaiah Gardner swooped in to cause Bruce Johnson's fumble, which was recovered by J.J. Justice to seal the victory. Maryland's fifth in a row.

Hollenbach, who threw for over 200 yards for the second straight game, finished with 202 yards on 11-of-16 passing. Heyward-Bey eclipsed the century mark in receiving yards for the second time in his career, with five catches for 175 yards.

The duo connected on the Terps' then-longest play of the season, a 75-yard strike for the opening touchdown with 11:45 remaining in the first quarter. It was the first time Maryland had scored a touchdown on its opening possession since Middle Tennessee on September 9.

However, they eclipsed both the season and all-time marks with the 96-yarder down the right sideline in the second quarter. The play broke the previous record of 92 yards (Stan Levine to Ed Bolton vs. South Carolina), a mark that stood for 57 seasons. In addition, it was the longest play ever given up by the Miami defense in that school's history.

Meanwhile, the Maryland defensive effort was led by linebackers Wesley Jefferson and Erin Henderson, who notched 14 and 13 tackles, respectively. Cornerback Josh Wilson had five pass breakups in the game, including one midway through the fourth quarter which stopped a potential scoring drive for Miami.

Both teams played with great emotion following a pre-game moment of silence and tribute to Hurricanes senior defensive tackle Bryan Pata, who was shot and killed earlier this week.

GAME 11

#20 BOSTON COLLEGE 38
#21 MARYLAND 16

Alumni Stadium
Chestnut Hill, Mass. • Nov. 18, 2006

BOSTON (AP) - Boston College led 14-0 in the first four minutes on Jolonn Dunbar's returns of 14 and 38 yards before Matt Ryan threw two scoring passes in a win over 21st-ranked Maryland on Saturday.

Any hopes for a comeback were dashed by two more Terrapin turnovers - a 42-yard interception return for a touchdown by DeJuan Tribble and an interception in the end zone by Jamie Silva after Maryland reached the 4-yard line early in the fourth quarter.

The loss ended Maryland's five-game winning streak.

On the second play from scrimmage, Danny Oquendo took a pitchout to the left from quarterback Sam Hollenbach and was blasted by Larry Anam. Oquendo fumbled, Hollenbach slid for the ball but it squirted toward Maryland's end zone, and Dunbar scooped it up and ran for the touchdown just 42 seconds into the game.

On the fifth play of the next series, Hollenbach tried a pitch to the other side with similar results. Lance Ball fumbled and Dunbar was there again, grabbing the ball and racing untouched into the end zone.

Ryan finally got in the game with 6:36 left in the first quarter and threw a 21-yard completion to Tony Gonzalez on his first play. That series ended with a missed 42-yard field goal attempt by Steve Aponavicius. Maryland scored midway through the second quarter on the first of Dan Ennis' three field goals, a 29-yarder.

Then Ryan led BC to touchdowns on a 34-yard pass to Gonzalez and a 17-yarder to Brandon Robinson for a 28-3 lead. On those two series, Ryan completed 9 of 12 passes for 140 yards.

Ennis' 37-yard field goal on the last play of the half and his 46-yarder cut the lead to 28-9. After Tribble's interception, Maryland scored its only touchdown on Josh Allen's 9-yard option pass to Oquendo.

The Terrapins had a chance to get within two scores early in the fourth quarter, but Hollenbach's pass was intercepted in the end zone by Jamie Silva.

They also had a first-and-goal from the 5-yard-line later in the quarter, but turned the ball over on downs.

GAME 12

#20 WAKE FOREST 38
MARYLAND 24

Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium
College Park, Md. • Nov. 25, 2006

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Kenneth Moore ran for 165 yards and a touchdown, Kevin Harris scored twice, and freshman quarterback Riley Skinner went 10-for-13 for 125 yards and a touchdown for No. 20 Wake Forest, which became the first ACC team in history to go 6-0 on the road with a victory over Maryland.

Wake Forest handed Maryland (8-4, 5-3) its first home loss of the season. It was Wake Forest's first win in eight tries against Maryland since 1998. The Demon Deacons were 13-40-1 against the Terrapins all-time.

Wake Forest went up 28-14 with an 80-yard touchdown drive to start the second half. Moore had runs of 15 and 23 yards and Skinner went 3-for-3 for 35 yards before Harris scored from the 3.

Maryland's Keon Lattimore then accounted for all the yardage in a 49-yard drive that produced a 26-yard field goal by Dan Ennis, but the Deacons answered with a field goal to restore the 14-point cushion.

Maryland closed to 31-24 when Sam Hollenbach threw a 5-yard touchdown pass to Isaiah Williams with 12:54 left. But Wake Forest responded with a 10-play, 76-yard drive that ended with a 1-yard touchdown run by Rich Belton on a fourth-down play.

Lattimore rushed for 119 yards and a touchdown, only the third player to reach the 100-yard mark against the Demon Deacons this season. Hollenbach was 14-for-26 for 125 yards, but threw three interceptions.

Wake Forest yielded 215 yards in the first half, but benefited from turnovers in taking a 21-14 lead.

The final game of a crazy ACC regular season matched two of the league's most surprising teams in a duel for the Atlantic Division title.

Both teams scored TDs on their opening drives. Lattimore ran in from the 12 before Harris concluded a 13-play possession with a 2-yard run.

Next came an exchange of turnovers. After Riley Swanson took an interception 30 yards to the Maryland 16, an apparent touchdown run by Moore was erased by a holding call. On the next play, Skinner threw his first interception on the road. A 19-yard touchdown run by Moore made it 14-7 early in the second quarter.

The Terrapins' next two drives ended in interceptions by Alphonso Smith. After the latter turnover, Skinner threw a 49-yard TD pass to Willie Idlette for a 21-7 lead. Maryland then got a 1-yard TD run by Lance Ball.

Despite the loss, the Terps still posted their fourth eight-win regular-season over the last six years.

CHAMPS SPORTS BOWL • GAME 13

MARYLAND	24
PURDUE	7

Florida Citrus Bowl Stadium
Orlando, Fla. • Dec. 29, 2006

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) - Maryland methodically and meticulously put away Purdue - and looked nothing like the team that ended the regular season with two losses.

Sam Hollenbach passed for 223 yards and two touchdowns, Lance Ball rushed for 98 yards, and the Terrapins won the Champs Sports Bowl 24-7.

Maryland missed a chance to play for the Atlantic Coast Conference title by losing to Boston College and Wake Forest.

The Terrapins (9-4) were able to keep Purdue's offense, the NCAA's 10th best at 425 yards per game, in check by blanketing its speedy wideouts, batting down several passes - and keeping the ball away from the Boilermakers.

Keon Lattimore added 86 yards rushing on 20 carries for the Terps, who held the ball for 39:48. It hardly mattered that Dan Ennis' 22-yard field goal with 6:22 left in the third quarter was the only scoring in the second half.

Maryland milked the clock with 429 total yards and 20 first downs and Purdue did little when it had a shot.

Boilermaker quarterback Curtis Painter completed 23 of 36 passes for 264 yards, one touchdown and one interception. Maryland's offense was virtually mistake free, but Purdue (8-6) had several costly miscues.

The biggest was Dorien Bryant's fumble after a 31-yard reception that would've been Purdue's biggest play of the game on its opening drive of the second half. Purdue never got its ground game on track after falling behind early and finished with 21 yards rushing.

Darrius Heyward-Bey showcased his 4.38 speed on a 46-yard second-quarter TD pass. Hollenbach appeared to overthrown him on the sideline route, but the wideout got underneath, making it 21-0.

Purdue missed its first chance to score by ending a 55-yard first quarter drive with a missed field goal. Ball ran five times for 49 yards on the next series to set up a TD. Out of the shotgun with five wideouts, Hollenbach dumped it to Joey Haynos for a 4-yard score to give Maryland a 7-0 lead.

Starting from their own 40, the Terps made it 14-0 after Hollenbach orchestrated another flawless drive. He hit Heyward-Bey over the middle for a 19-yard gain, and Danny Oquendo for 11 yards to the Purdue 4. Cory Jackson ran in from a yard out for the touchdown.

The Boilermakers got their only touchdown just before halftime. Painter led them 71 yards in 1:25, hitting Greg Orton for a 12-yard touchdown.

Maryland played its first bowl game since 2004, while Purdue returned after missing last year for the first time in Tiller's 10 seasons. It was the teams' first meeting.

THE ATLANTIC COAST CONFERENCE

ACC Commissioner

THE TRADITION

Consistency. It is the mark of true excellence in any endeavor.

However, in today's intercollegiate athletics, competition has become so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency.

Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds. Now in its 55th year of competition, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture, the numbers support it.

Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 105 national championships, including 56 in women's competition and 49 in men's. In addition, NCAA individual titles have gone to ACC student-athletes 139 times in men's competition and 86 times in women's action.

The conference had an immediate impact on the national college football scene in the fall of 1953 when the University of Maryland captured the first of what would eventually be five national football titles for the ACC. Clemson laid claim to the league's second national title in 1981 while Georgia Tech followed suit in 1990. Florida State pocketed national titles No. 4 and 5 in 1993 and 1999, respectively.

In addition, Miami has laid claim to five national gridiron titles over the past 22 seasons. Four of the Hurricanes' five national titles (1983, 1987, 1989, 2001) were unanimous with both the sportswriters and coaches polls, while in 1991 Miami (AP) shared the national title with Washington (coaches).

This past season eight ACC players earned first team All-America recognition, while nine others garnered second or third team honors. The 12 institutions that take to the field this fall under the ACC banner have produced 523 first or second team gridiron All-Americans and 72 first team academic All-Americans.

Led by Georgia Tech wide receiver Calvin Johnson, the second overall selection by the Detroit Lions, the ACC had 31 players selected in the 2007 NFL draft, including six first round selections. Over the past two years, the ACC has had more players selected on the first round (18) and overall in the draft (82) than any other conference in the country. A year ago, the ACC set NFL draft records with 51 first round selections and 51 players drafted overall.

Clemson defensive end Gaines Adams was the first defensive player chosen in the draft when he was selected fourth overall by Tampa Bay. The combination of Johnson and Adams being selected second and fourth gives the ACC two of the top four picks for the second straight year.

The 12 current ACC schools have had 2,124 players selected in the annual professional football draft, including 210 first round selections.

If success is best measured in terms of wins and losses, then the ACC over the years has prove itself to be among the elite in Division I-A football. The ACC is the nation's winningest bowl conference as the 12 current league teams are a combined 143-123-5 (.537) in post season play.

Following its 4-4 bowl mark in 2006, the ACC is the only conference to post a .500-or-better record in post-season play in each of the past six seasons. Since 2001, the ACC is 25-16 in post-season play and has the best bowl winning percentage (.609) among all BCS conferences.

In 2002, the ACC set an NCAA record when seven of its nine teams (78%) received bowl bids.

Boston College is tied with Penn State for the best bowl game winning percentage in Division I-A history among teams with 15 or more post season appearances. The Eagles are 12-6-0 (.667), while the Nittany Lions are 25-12-2 (.667). Georgia Tech, with a 22-13 (.629) bowl game mark, is fifth and Florida State 21-13-2 (.611) seventh.

For the first time in ACC history, league schools surpassed the 4.4 million mark in total attendance in 2006. Over 85 home games, ACC teams drew 4,485,625 fans, breaking the existing record of 3,835,260 set in 2005

2006-07 IN REVIEW

The 2006-07 academic year concluded with league teams capturing five national team titles and 24 individual NCAA crowns. In all, the ACC has won 39 national team titles over the last 11 years. The ACC has won two or more NCAA titles in 25 of the past 27 years.

A total of 137 ACC teams placed in NCAA post-season competition in 2006-07. League teams compiled a 102-64-7 (.610) mark against non-conference opponents in NCAA championship competition. In addition, the ACC had 181 student-athletes earn first team All-America honors this past year. Overall, the league had 247 first, second or third team All-Americans. In addition, the ACC produced nine national Player of the Year and six national Coach of the Year honorees.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. - In front of the first capacity crowd in Gator Bowl history, 16,666, Maryland's Lu Gambino was a one-man wrecking crew, rushing for 165 yards and scoring three touchdowns. Gambino's three scores propelled Maryland to a 20-7 lead, but Georgia reeled off 13 points in the fourth quarter to tie the game. The Bulldogs threatened to win the game in the closing seconds, but time ran out with Georgia on Maryland's four-yard line. Despite the tie, there was no question as to the game's most valuable player. Gambino won the Burkhalter Award, signifying the game's outstanding performer. Gambino was inducted into the Gator Bowl Hall of Fame in 1992.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. - Three times in the first half Missouri turned the ball over, and all three times Maryland scored a touchdown as the Terrapins defeated the Tigers, 20-7, to earn their first-ever postseason victory. The Terrapin running attack, led by Bob Shemonski and Ed Modzelewski, amassed 266 rushing yards, the second-most by a Maryland bowl team. Maryland defensive back John Idzik set up Maryland's first score with a 26-yard interception return to the Tiger 11-yard line. Shemonski scored on a sweep on the next play for the go-ahead touchdown. Shemonski scored again on a six-yard run late in the second quarter to put the Terps up 20-0.

NEW ORLEANS - In what may have been perhaps the biggest win in Maryland football history, the Terps upset No. 1-ranked and regular season national champion Tennessee, 28-13, in the 1952 Sugar Bowl. The Terps were led by running back Ed "Mighty Mo" Modzelewski (153 yards on 28 carries) and the brilliant play of running back/defensive back Ed Fullerton who scored two touchdowns and threw for another. The Terps put the game out of reach in the third quarter with a 46-yard interception for a touchdown by Fullerton, giving the Terps a 28-6 lead. Maryland finished the season with an overall record of 10-0-0 and a No. 3 national ranking.

MIAMI - This was the first game of the contract that pitted the Big Eight Conference champion against the Atlantic Coast Conference champion. The Terrapins took an undefeated record and the nation's No. 1 ranking into the game against an Oklahoma squad that used a powerful running attack to grind out a second quarter touchdown to propel the Sooners to a 7-0 win. Twice the Terps had first down opportunities with the ball inside the 10-yard line and failed to come away with any points. Despite the narrow loss, the Terrapins claimed the 1953 national championship.

MIAMI - The third-ranked Terps came into the Orange Bowl riding a 15-game winning streak, only to have it snapped by an Oklahoma team that extended its winning streak to 30 games with its 20-6 win. The Terps, who led 6-0 at halftime, were stunned when the Sooners went into their famous "fast break offense" and reeled off two third quarter touchdowns to earn the national championship. Ed Vereb, who scored the Terps' lone touchdown, finished with 108 rushing yards. Maryland was hurt by five turnovers.

ATLANTA - Maryland came away from its first bowl game in 18 years a bitterly disappointed team. The Terrapins dominated Georgia in all phases, but the game was tied 10-10 at the half thanks to a couple of big plays by the Bulldogs. In the third quarter, a costly Terp fumble led to Georgia's go-ahead touchdown. Seven times the Terrapins were inside the Georgia 20-yard line, coming away with only nine points. The Terps' lone touchdown came via Walter White's 68-yard touchdown reception.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. - The Maryland defense, led by All-ACC defensive tackle Randy White, shut out Tennessee for nearly four quarters but lost the game when the Volunteers' quarterback, Randy Wallace, found Larry Seivers for an 11-yard touchdown pass with 2:08 to play. The Terps were punting from their own 13 when a bad snap from the center was recovered by the Volunteers on the Maryland seven-yard line. Maryland had a chance to win the game but an apparent 20-yard touchdown pass was ruled out of bounds.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. - The ACC champion Terrapins headed into the 1975 Gator Bowl as a seven-point underdog to the Florida Gators. However, this did not deter the Terps, who were coming off their best season (8-2-1) in 20 years. Maryland shut out the Gators, 13-0, in front of a large pro-Florida crowd in a steady downpour. The Maryland defense held the SEC's total offense leader scoreless and intercepted two Florida passes which led to the first 10 Maryland points. This was the first Terp win over an SEC team since 1955.

ORLANDO, Fla. - Tennessee scored two touchdowns in the fourth quarter to overcome a 20-16 deficit and defeat the Terps, 30-23, in the 1983 Citrus Bowl. Maryland took a four-point lead into the fourth quarter, thanks to outstanding play from reserve quarterback Frank Reich. Reich entered the game in the second quarter when starter Boomer Esiason suffered a shoulder injury. Reich's one mistake of the day, an interception early in the fourth quarter, set the Vols on Maryland's 14-yard line which led to a Tennessee touchdown run that was the difference.

QB Scott McBrien ran for a pair of touchdowns, Nick Novak booted three field goals, All-America linebacker E.J. Henderson registered 12 solo tackles, and cornerback Curome Cox returned an interception for a touchdown to highlight Maryland's performance. The Terps never trailed in the game, taking their opening possession in for a touchdown on a one-yard run by McBrien and taking a 17-3 lead into intermission. It was the most lopsided bowl loss in UT history.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. - Former Mountaineer Scott McBrien threw for a career-high 381 yards to help Maryland to a 41-7 victory over West Virginia in the Gator Bowl, a rematch of a regular-season game that was almost as lopsided. Playing against the team he left in 2001, McBrien threw for three scores and ran for another. His teammate, Steve Suter, returned a punt for a touchdown and made a highlight-reel catch to help the Terrapins reach 10 wins for the third-straight year under coach Ralph Friedgen.

ORLANDO, Fla. - Maryland won its school record third-straight bowl game in style, posting a dominating 24-7 victory over Purdue in the Champs Sports Bowl. Senior Sam Hollenbach passed for 223 yards and two touchdowns to earn game MVP honors, while junior Lance Ball had 98 rushing yards to lead a ground attack which piled up 208 yards, much of that coming in the first half when the Terps built a 21-0 lead and never looked back. The Terrapins were able to keep Purdue's offense, the NCAA's 10th best at 425 yards per game, in check. The Boilermakers were held to 21 rushing yards and 285 total yards. Junior Keon Lattimore added 86 rushing yards on 20 carries for the Terps, who held the ball for 39:48. It was the fourth bowl appearance for the Terps under the six-year reign of head coach Ralph Friedgen..

1949 RANKED 14TH

The Tatum system was clicking by the third season under the new coach. Maryland scored more points than in any previous season in its history – 266 to its opponents' 81. Jim Tatum and a collection of new players lifted Maryland to its first ranking in the AP poll. Newcomers such as Ed Modzelewski, Bob Ward, Bob Shemonski and junior All-America tackle Ray Krouse were instrumental in leading the Terrapins to eight decisive regular season victories, losing only to No. 13 Michigan State, 14-7. The Terps plowed through the opposition, and after beating No. 15 Boston U. by a 14-13 count, earned the No. 15 poll position themselves. Maryland ended the regular season with a 13-0 shutout at Miami. The Terps earned their first bowl victory with a 20-7 rout of Missouri in the Gator Bowl.

SOUTHERN CONFERENCE CO-CHAMPIONS

Maryland completed its only undefeated season in history and clobbered top-ranked and heavily favored Tennessee in the Sugar Bowl to lay its own claim to a national crown. Led by All-America tackles Bob Ward and Ray Krouse, brothers Ed and Dick Modzelewski, and QB Jack Scarbath, Maryland accepted a Sugar Bowl invitation against the recommendation of Southern Conference presidents who sought for all league institutions to boycott the bowls. The Terps were decided underdogs against No. 1 Tennessee, but Ed "Mighty Mo" Modzelewski's 153 rushing yards and a 28-13 victory prompted Tennessee coach Bob Neyland to state, "We were soundly beaten by a superior team."

1952 RANKED 13TH

The amazing win streak continued in 1952, but it ended abruptly and Maryland was kept out of a bowl game despite its No. 13 final ranking. The Terps had amassed 19 straight wins and 22 straight games without a defeat before falling 21-14 at Mississippi on Nov. 15. The end came in the eighth game of a schedule that was revised heavily after Southern Conference teams refused to play Maryland because the Terps had chosen to play in the previous season's Sugar Bowl. Ole Miss scored a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns to upend the Terps, and Maryland fell 27-7 to Alabama the following week to quell any hopes of a bowl bid. Bernie Faloney and Jack Scarbath both were All-Americans and Scarbath, a preseason favorite to win the Heisman Trophy, finished second in the balloting.

Chet Hanulak raced past the Boston U. defenders for a 15-yard TD on Nov. 1.

1953 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

ACC CO-CHAMPIONS

College Park was home to the nation's No. 1 football team. The Maryland grid team swept past its 10 regular-season opponents with a perfect record and, in so doing, scored a total of 298 points while limiting its opposition to a record 31. Coach Jim Tatum was named the national coach of the year and many Old Line players were selected to various all-star teams. Operating out of the split T, Maryland ranked sixth in the nation in total offense with a 359.5-yard average. On defense, the team yielded only 193.2 yards per game and led the country in rushing (83.9) and scoring defense (3.1). During the '53 campaign, the Terps made up for two defeats handed them in 1952 by decisively beating Mississippi and Alabama. After the Terps downed Miami 30-0, Hurricanes coach Andy Gustafson summed up the nation's top team by saying, "Maryland has one of the greatest teams I've ever seen." Maryland began the season with a No. 9 preseason ranking by the Associated Press and took over the top spot in the polls on the final week of the regular season after the No. 2 Terps waxed the No. 11 Crimson Tide, 21-0. The top-ranked and undefeated Terps tied No. 18 Duke for the inaugural ACC title, but fell to 10-1 after losing the Orange Bowl to Oklahoma, 7-0.

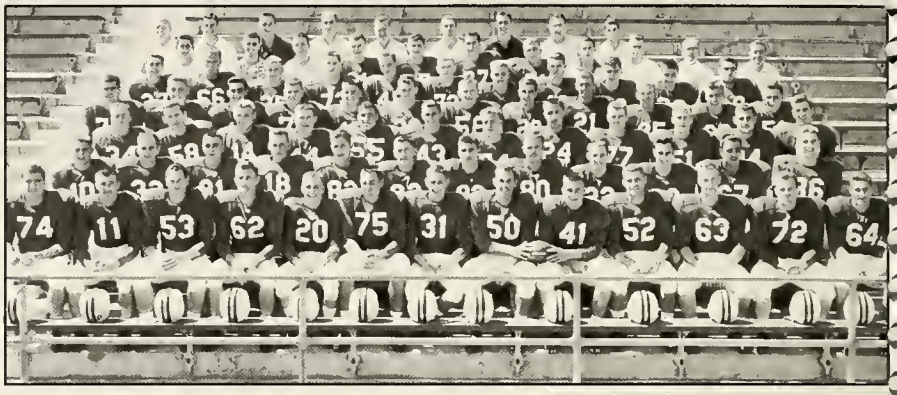
1954 RANKED 8TH



Entering the season ranked No. 3 in the nation, the Terps began the 1954 campaign in convincing style, shutting out Kentucky 24-0 in their season opener. But the Terps stumbled in their next game, losing a close 12-7 decision to fourth-ranked UCLA. That dropped Maryland to No. 13 in the polls heading into its ACC matchup vs. Wake Forest. A 13-13 tie with the Demon Deacons sent the Terps tumbling out of the national rankings for the first time since 1950. Maryland rebounded to shut out North Carolina 33-0 before dropping a 9-7 road decision to Miami. The Terps went on to win their final five games by a combined score of 200-33, including a 74-13 Thanksgiving Day shellacking of Missouri. Maryland finished the season with a No. 8 national ranking.

1973 RANKED 20TH

In his second season at Maryland, head coach Jerry Claiborne lifted the Terps to a 5-1 mark in the ACC, and their first national ranking in 12 seasons. The Terps were 5-3 after a 42-22 loss to No. 6 Penn State, but three decisive wins over Virginia, Clemson and Tulane earned Maryland a bid to its first bowl game since the 1956 Orange Bowl. Maryland dominated Georgia in the Peach Bowl, outgaining the Bulldogs 461 to 284 on offense and driving inside the Georgia 20-yard line seven times. Four turnovers proved costly, however, and after a 10-10 tie at intermission, all Maryland could muster were a pair of fourth-quarter field goals by Steve Mike-Mayer. Defensive tackle Randy White earned the first of his two All-America awards.

ACC CHAMPIONS

Maryland won its first conference championship in 18 years, sweeping past all six of its league opponents. It marked the 10th time in conference history that a team had gone unbeaten in league play. The Terps extended their win streak against ACC foes to 10. Maryland took a top-10 ranking into the Liberty Bowl before falling to Tennessee, 7-3, and ending the season 13th in the final AP poll. Maryland's Randy White was a consensus All-American and won both the Outland and Lombardi trophies.

ACC CHAMPIONS

Maryland captured its second consecutive ACC title by posting a perfect 5-0 league mark and extending its win streak over conference opponents to 15, tying a league record. For the third straight year, the Terps took part in postseason competition, defeating Florida, 13-0, in the Gator Bowl. Maryland, which led the league in total offense with 375.2 yards per game, set an ACC single-game total offense mark with 802 yards in a 62-24 victory over Virginia, Nov. 22. Maryland's John Schultz was the nation's top kickoff returner with a 31.0 average.

ACC CHAMPIONS

The powerful Terrapins swept through the regular season undefeated and became only the second team in ACC history to win three consecutive league titles outright. Coach Jerry Claiborne's club ran its conference victory string to a record 20 straight. The Terps appeared in a bowl for the fourth straight year, losing to Southwest Conference champion Houston, 30-21, in the Cotton Bowl. Maryland tackle Joe Campbell was a consensus All-American. Maryland's No. 8 ranking in the final AP poll was the first Top 10 finish by an ACC team since 1960.

RANKED 20TH

The Terps fired out of the gates 8-0 including a 31-7 homecoming win over No. 20 NC State. Maryland steadily rose in the polls, and after a 27-0 shutout of Duke, was No. 5 heading into a showdown at No. 2 Penn State. The Nittany Lions won a 27-3 decision in front of 78,019 which dropped Maryland to No. 13 in the polls. But after a 17-7 win at Virginia, the Terps were paired with Clemson for an ACC first-place showdown. No. 11 Maryland and No. 12 Clemson entered the regular-season finale both tied at 5-0. Clemson emerged from the Byrd Stadium shootout a 28-24 victor. The loss sent Maryland into a Sun Bowl matchup with Texas, where it suffered its worst bowl loss ever, 42-0.

Junior quarterback Boomer Esiason led the Terrapins and first-year head coach Bobby Ross to a seven-game midseason win streak which earned Maryland its first national ranking in two seasons. After early season losses at No. 7 Penn State and No. 17 West Virginia, Maryland scored points at will while rolling through its ACC schedule. The Terrapins' 31-point average was second only to its undefeated season of 1951, and Ross was named the national coach of the year by the Washington Touchdown Club. A 31-24 win at No. 10 North Carolina put Maryland back in the rankings, and another shootout with Clemson would determine the ACC champion. No. 16 Maryland was invited to the inaugural Aloha Bowl in Honolulu where it surrendered a last-second touchdown to No. 9 Washington, losing 21-20.

Ralph Friedgen is interviewed by ESPN after Maryland captured the 2001 ACC crown with a win over Clemson on Nov. 10.

RANKED 13TH

Maryland closed the season by winning 10 of its final 11 games to match the 1976 team for most wins in school history (11) and finished the season ranked 13th in both major polls. The Terps tied for second in the ACC and captured their first bowl victory since 1985 – a 30-3 defeat of Tennessee in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl. Linebacker E.J. Henderson, the first two-time consensus All-American in Maryland history, won the Bednarik (nation's outstanding defensive player) and Butkus (nation's outstanding linebacker) awards. A school-record eight players were named first team All-ACC.

QB Scott McBrien leaps into the end zone for the game-winning touchdown against NC State on Nov. 9.

RANKED 17TH

After starting its season 0-2, Maryland finished the season by winning 10 of its last 11 games for the second year in a row. In doing so, the Terrapins became the first team in Atlantic Coast Conference history to win 10 games after starting 0-2. The Terps finished 2003 10-3, winning the Toyota Gator Bowl by a resounding 41-7 margin over regional rival West Virginia, a team they had beaten once already earlier in the season. Scott McBrien was named the game's MVP after posting a career performance (21-33, 381 yards, 3 TDs, 0 int, 2 rush TD) against his former school. Ralph Friedgen's 31 wins in three years marked the seventh-most in NCAA history by a third-year coach and most-ever by an ACC coach. Ten players were named first or second team All-ACC, most by any team in the league.

TERPS IN THE HALL OF FAME

JERRY CLAIBORNE

National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame (1999)

Former Maryland football coach Jerry Claiborne was selected to join 12 legendary college football players and two other coaches among the 1999 class of inductees into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame.

Claiborne coached 28 seasons overall between stints at Virginia Tech (1961-70), Maryland (1972-81) and Kentucky (1982-89), and compiled a 179-122-8 record in the process.

At Maryland, Claiborne was named The Sporting News National Coach of the Year in 1974 after winning the Atlantic Coast Conference and finishing the season ranked No. 13 by the Associated Press. He was the District III Coach of the Year in 1973, 1975 and 1976.

In all, Claiborne was the coach of the year in three different conferences --- Southern (1963), ACC (1973, '75, '76) and Southeastern (1983) --- while leading his teams to 11 bowl games. Throughout his coaching career, he was a strong advocate of the right combination of academics and athletics. In his years as head coach, he had four players named Academic All-America and 87 players earn academic all-conference honors. On the field, he coached 13 All-Americans and 53 who earned all-conference status.

DICK MODZELEWSKI

National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame (1993)

Through three All-America years at Maryland and 14 All-Pro years in the National Football League, Dick Modzelewski was always "Little Mo." At 6-0, 235 pounds during his playing days at Maryland, he was one of the bigger collegiate linemen during the early 1950s. He was the second Mo at Maryland, following his older brother Ed, "Big Mo."

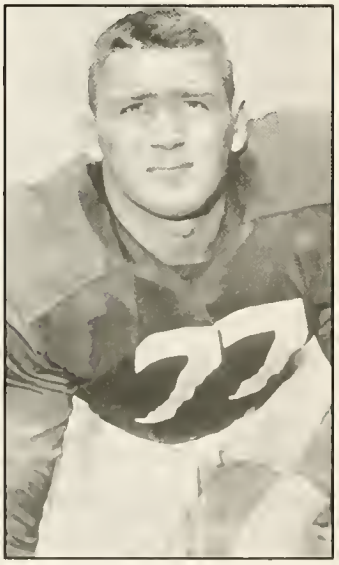
Dick Modzelewski played three years at defensive tackle for the Terps on the great teams which were 24-4-1. He became Maryland's first winner of a major national honor when he received the Outland Trophy as the nation's top lineman in 1952. Through his career at Maryland, the Terps fashioned a 22-game unbeaten streak.

At the end of his senior season, Modzelewski was named to every All-America team. He was a second-round draft choice of the Washington Redskins. He spent 14 seasons in the NFL, with the Redskins, the Pittsburgh Steelers, the New York Giants and Cleveland Browns. Modzelewski was an All-Pro and played on NFL championship teams with both the Giants (1956) and the Browns (1964).

Dick Modzelewski was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame in 1993.

STAN JONES

Pro Football Hall of Fame (1991) National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame (2000)



Stan Jones was the starting right tackle on the Terp defense that allowed only 31 points during 10 regular season games in 1953. With Jones leading the way, Maryland recorded six shutouts and allowed only one team, Georgia, to score more than six points.

It all added up to a 10-0 regular-season for the Terps, who captured the national championship despite an upset loss to Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl.

Jones earned consensus All-America honors in 1953 and was chosen "Outstanding College Lineman of 1953" by the College Football Coaching Board. A fifth-round draft choice of the Chicago Bears, Jones went on to have a lengthy pro career. He spent a majority of his career with the Bears (1954-65) before finishing at Washington (1966).

"I was very prepared for the NFL when I left Maryland," Jones said. "From my coaches who taught me football to my professors who taught me anatomy, physiology and weight training, I received a great education. I couldn't have picked a better place to go."

Jones was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1991 and selected for the College Football Hall of Fame in 2000.

BOB PELLEGRINI

National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame (1996)

Bob Pellegrini was recruited to Maryland as a quarterback, but made his name as one of college football's best linemen. In his first season, Pellegrini was a 6-2, 215-pound sophomore guard for the 1953 national champion Terrapins. He played guard again in 1954 in an era when players went both ways, before switching to center for his senior year to fill a Terrapin void.

As a senior, Pellegrini led Maryland to its second 10-0 regular season and ACC championship in three years as the Terps defeated defending national champion UCLA. He was selected ACC Player of the Year, named consensus All-American and pictured as Herman Hickman's cover boy for Lineman of the Year in 1955.

Pellegrini led the Terps to a 27-4-1 record over his career, with rankings in the top 10 each season. He was the first pick in the National Football League draft by the Philadelphia Eagles. Pellegrini became one of the building blocks of an Eagle turnaround that took the team to the top of the football world. A losing team when he joined, the Eagles defeated Vince Lombardi's Green Bay Packers for the World Championship four years later with Bob Pellegrini at linebacker.

Pellegrini was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame in December 1996.

JACK SCARBATH

National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame (1983)

Jack Scarbath is an integral part of Maryland football history. In his first start, the All-America quarterback scored the first touchdown in the new Byrd Stadium, a 21-yard run in the first game of the 1950 season.

Scarbath was the quarterback for head coach Jim Tatum's new split T offense for three seasons (1950-52). Scarbath led the Terps to a 24-4-1 record, including a perfect 10-0 season and a 28-13 upset of national champion Tennessee in the 1951 Sugar Bowl. Scarbath called the signals during Maryland's 22-game unbeaten streak over the course of the 1950, '51 and '52 seasons.

During his stellar career, Scarbath rewrote the Terrapin record book, completing 125 of 260 passes for 2,287 yards, an average of 18.3 yards per completion. In 1951, AP and UPI voters named him honorable mention All-American. In 1952, he was honored with first team All-America citations from AP, UPI, International News Service, Colliers, and Look. He finished runner-up to Oklahoma's Billy Vessels in the 1952 Heisman Trophy balloting.

A first-round draft choice of the Washington Redskins, Scarbath went on to play with the Redskins and Pittsburgh Steelers.

He was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame in 1983.

BOB WARD

National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame (1980)

Bob Ward weighed all of 165 pounds throughout his four-year playing career at Maryland and, even in the early 1950s, that was no size for a lineman. Especially a lineman who was a first team All-America middle guard on defense as a junior in 1950 and a first team offensive guard as a senior in 1951.

The forte of the Maryland teams of the early 1950s was consistency—a winning consistency. During Ward's four years, the team was a combined 32-7-1, winning two bowl games (1949 Gator over Missouri, 1951 Sugar over Tennessee to complete a perfect 10-0 season).

The awards and honors Ward earned as a Maryland player belie physical stature, but speak volumes about the man. He was the MVP of the 1949 Gator Bowl, Maryland's first bowl victory. He was the only player ever to earn All-America honors as both an offensive and defensive position player. He earned Southern Conference Player of the Year honors as a senior and was chosen Lineman of the Year by the Washington Touchdown Club and the Philadelphia Sportswriters Association in 1951.

Bob Ward was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame in 1980.

JIM TATUM

National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame (1984)

In a brief time as a college football head coach -- one season at North Carolina (1942, 7-2-2), one at Oklahoma (1946, 8-3, Gator Bowl victory over North Carolina State) and nine years at Maryland (1947-55, 73-15-4, 2-2- in bowl games) -- Jim Tatum had become a coaching legend.

Tatum's Maryland teams from 1950-55 were 51-8-2, with a perfect 10-0 record and Sugar Bowl victory in 1951. The squad posted 10-0 regular-season records in 1953 and 1955 before both teams were upset by Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl. Tatum's 1953 team was declared national champion, and Tatum was named national Coach of the Year.

During his career at Maryland, Tatum led the Terps to 19 consecutive wins and an unbeaten streak of 22 games (21-0-1) during the 1950, '51 and '52 campaigns. In the 1952 Sugar Bowl, the Terrapins defeated top-ranked Tennessee 23-13.

Tatum left Maryland following the 1955 season to return to his alma mater, North Carolina. He coached the Tar Heels for three more seasons.

He was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame in 1984.

RANDY WHITE

Pro Football Hall of Fame (1994) National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame (1994)

Randy White changed the look of football's defensive lines. At Maryland, and later in an All-Pro National Football League career with the Dallas Cowboys, he was regarded as the quickest defensive lineman to play the game. He could be in an opponent's backfield before a quarterback could make a hand-off.

In 1974, White cleaned up the college football awards plate. He was honored with the Outland and Lombardi trophies as the top collegiate lineman, was ACC Player of the Year, was an unanimous first-team All-America choice, named the Delaware (his home state) Athlete of the Year and named the Amateur Athlete of the Year by the Philadelphia Sportswriters Association.

A first round draft choice of the Dallas Cowboys, White was an All-Pro performer throughout his career and shared Super Bowl MVP honors with Dallas teammate Harvey Martin when the Cowboys defeated Denver in Super Bowl XII.

White's jersey number, 94, has been retired at Maryland. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame and the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1994.

LeFRAK SCHOLARSHIP

The Samuel J. and Ethel LeFrak Foundation donated $1 million in 2003 to establish the Samuel J. LeFrak Scholars Fund at the University of Maryland.

The gift will fund annual LeFrak Scholars in the sports of men's basketball, football and men's track. Beginning in 2004-05, the three LeFrak scholarships have been awarded annually, concurrently and in perpetuity to three student-athletes who exhibit extraordinary athletic ability, leadership and academic achievement.

Edwin Williams

Men's basketball player Nik Caner-Medley was the first-ever recipient of the LeFrak Scholarship at Maryland for the 2003-04 season and Sean Lowe earned the honor for men's track.

Offensive lineman Edwin Williams is this year's recipient from the football team.

Prior to his death in April 2003, Samuel J. LeFrak, a 1940 graduate of the University of Maryland and one of its most distinguished alumni, was chairman of the Lefrak Organization, one of the world's largest private development companies. The firm's accomplishments include building Lefrak City, a community of apartments, stores and office buildings in Queens, N.Y.; and creating and developing Battery Park City in New York City, as well as Newport, a $10 billion mixed-use community in New Jersey on 600 acres overlooking the Hudson River.

While a student at Maryland, LeFrak was a varsity track letterman, president of the Latch Key Honor Society, and an officer of his class and of Tau Epsilon Phi.

"In keeping with Dr. LeFrak's dedicated support of the university for more than 60 years, the foundation is happy to sustain his wishes to help the school in its many endeavors to maintain high scholastic and athletic standards," said Deborah Dolan, director of the LeFrak Foundation.

Said athletics director Deborah A. Yow, "The LeFrak scholar-athletes will serve as role models to young people across the country. We are very grateful for the generosity of Dr. and Mrs. LeFrak."

FRANK REICH KING OF THE COMEBACK

When it comes to engineering record-setting comeback victories, no one has done it better than Maryland's Frank Reich, who was at the controls for the greatest comebacks in NCAA and NFL history.

Reich's first encounter with greatness occurred as a senior in 1984, when he came off the bench to lead the Terps to what then ranked as the biggest comeback in NCAA history. Down 31-0 at halftime to the defending national champion Miami Hurricanes, head coach Bobby Ross inserted Reich into the lineup in place of Stan Gelbaugh, and Reich proceeded to complete 12 of 16 passes for 260 yards and three touchdowns in propelling the Terps to a 42-40 victory in the Orange Bowl.

Eight years later, on Jan. 3, 1993, Reich met destiny again as he led the Buffalo Bills to the greatest comeback in pro football annals. As in the Miami game in 1984, Reich came off the bench and performed his heroics against a top-notch opponent. This time the foe was the Houston Oilers, who appeared on their way to an easy playoff win by building a 35-3 lead early in the second half.

Reich, however, wasn't deterred. Filling in for the injured Jim Kelly, he demonstrated grace under fire by throwing for a career-high 289 yards and four touchdowns as the Bills went on to win 41-38 in overtime.

YEAR-BY-YEAR RESULTS

Game-by-game results for every Maryland football season since 1892. Maryland was known as Maryland Agricultural College from 1892-1915, and as Maryland State College from 1916-1919. Maryland's conference affiliations: Atlantic Coast Conference since 1953, Southern Conference from 1921-51 (SC standings not available from 1921-32) and South Atlantic Intercollegiate Athletic Association in 1920.

Home games were played at Byrd Field or "Old" Byrd Stadium, across the street from the campus on Baltimore Ave., from 1923-1947 and again in 1949. Home games in 1948 were played at Griffith Stadium in Washington, D.C. Home games since 1950 have been played at Byrd Stadium on campus.

Home, road and neutral records are in parentheses (H, A, N). Maryland and opponent Associated Press rankings are in brackets – AP polls began in 1936. From 1961-1967, the Associated Press ranked only the nation's top 10 teams.

• — indicates conference games
HC — indicates homecoming games

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

DEEP ROOTS, BROAD IMPACT

Charles Benedict Calvert founded the Maryland Agricultural College in 1856 with the goal of creating a school that would offer outstanding practical knowledge to him and his neighbors and be "an institution superior to any other."

One hundred and fifty years later, the University of Maryland has blossomed from its roots as the state's first agricultural college and one of America's original land grant institutions into a model of the modern research university. It is the state's greatest asset for its economic development and its future, and has made its mark in the nation and the world.

Calvert would be astounded by the depth and breadth of research activities, innovative educational programs, and the single-minded pursuit of excellence that are part of the University of Maryland today. Maryland is ranked 18th among the nation's top public research universities by U.S. News & World Report, with 31 academic programs in the Top 10 and 92 in the Top 25. It is also ranked No. 37th in the world, according to the Institute of Higher Education at at Shanghai's Jiao Tong University.

Maryland is the state's premier center of research and graduate education and the public institution of choice for undergraduate students of exceptional ability and promise. The faculty includes three Nobel laureates, six Pulitzer Prize winners, a three-time Emmy Award winner, 40 members of national academies and scores of Fulbright scholars. The university focuses great attention on the highest academic standards, affordability for all qualified students, and a President's Promise program that guarantees opportunity for extraordinary extracurricular and professional experiences for each student.

It has earned a national reputation for its enriched educational experiences for undergraduates, including such widely imitated living/learning programs as College Park Scholars; Gemstone, a unique program that brings teams of students together from across disciplines to tackle specific technical problems; and the Hinman CEO Entrepreneurship Program, sponsored jointly by the A. James Clark School of Engineering and the Robert H. Smith School of Business, and widely recognized as the most successful student entrepreneurship program in the nation.

These programs are guided by outstanding faculty whose accomplishments in research abound. Whether the issue is Mideast peace, cutting-edge research in nanoscience, homeland security or bioscience advances, Maryland faculty are selected for national leadership and are making news. Many recent major faculty initiatives receiving significant external support strengthen our homeland security endeavors—centers for research on agrosecurity and emergency management; intermodal freight transportation security; behavioral and social analyses of terrorism and responses to terrorism; astrophysics and advanced world climate and weather prediction; and a national Center for Advanced Study of Language.

In addition to its academic prowess, Maryland is also home to the Terrapins, whose athletic achievements are a perennial source of pride for nearly 250,000 alumni and residents of the state. In 2005-2006, the Terrapins brought home national championships in four sports — men's soccer, field hockey, competitive cheer and women's basketball — more than any university in the nation.

In 2004, Maryland's School of Music hosted the National Symphony Orchestra in its first university residency, and its 2006 opera production was declared by the Washington Post music critic "... as good as any Bohème you are likely to see this side of the Metropolitan Opera or Covent Garden."

Whether aiming for the skies or pioneering journalism programs in China, the University of Maryland is surging ahead. Building on the work of outstanding faculty and students, and with the loyal support of alumni and friends, Maryland is moving aggressively and confidently to a decade that will shine brighter than any other in its history.

PRESIDENT C.D. MOTE JR.

In September 1998, C. D. (Dan) Mote, Jr. began his tenure as President of the University of Maryland and Glenn L. Martin Institute Professor of Engineering. He was recruited to lead the University of Maryland to national eminence under a mandate by the state. Since assuming the presidency, he has encouraged an environment of excellence across the University and given new impetus to the momentum generated by a talented faculty and student body. Under his leadership, academic programs have flourished. In 2005, the University was ranked 18th among public research universities, up from 30th in 1998. President Mote has emphasized broad access to the university's model, enriched undergraduate curriculum programs and launched the Baltimore Incentive Awards Program to recruit and provide full support to high school students of outstanding potential who have overcome extraordinary adversity during their lives.

He has spurred the university to lead the state in the development of its high-tech economy, especially in the information and communication, bioscience and biotechnology, and nano-technology sectors. President Mote has greatly expanded the university's partnerships with corporate and federal laboratories and successfully negotiated to bring to the College Park area the first Science Research Park sponsored by the People's Republic of China. Under his leadership, the University has established a research park, The University of Maryland Enterprise Campus, M-Square, located on a 115-acre site adjacent to the University of Maryland/College Park Metro with 3 million square feet of development potential. Among its first tenants are the Center for Advanced Study of Language, a joint venture of the University and Department of Defense, and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's new World Weather and Climate Prediction Center.

During President Mote's second year in office, the University began the largest building boom in its history, with more than $100 million in new projects breaking ground that year. New facilities address every aspect of university life, from the arts to recreation to classrooms and laboratories, and, in creative partnership with the private sector, new residential facilities. Highlights of the construction activity include the stunning Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center; the Comcast Center, a state of the art sports complex; a high tech research greenhouse; and new classrooms for chemistry, computer science, business and engineering. President Mote also led the development of a new Facilities Master Plan for development in the next 20 years, which is noted for its emphasis on environmental stewardship.

Dr. Mote is a leader in the national dialogue on higher education and his analyses of shifting funding models have been featured in local and national media. He has testified on major educational issues before Congress, representing the University and higher education associations on the problem of visa barriers for international students and scholars and on deemed export control issues. He has been asked to serve on a high level National Academies Committee appointed at the request of the Senate Energy Subcommittee of the Senate Energy and Natural Resources Committee to identify challenges to United States leadership in key areas of science and technology and to be a member of the Leadership Council of the National Innovation Initiative, an activity of the Council on Competitiveness. He has served as vice chair of the Department of Defense Basic Research Committee, and is a member of the Council of the National Academy of Engineering. In 2004-2005, he served as President of the Atlantic Coast Conference. In its last ranking in 2002, "Washington Business Forward" magazine counted him among the top 20 most influential leaders in the region.

Prior to assuming the Presidency at Maryland, Dr. Mote served on the University of California, Berkeley faculty for 31 years. From 1991 to 1998, he was Vice Chancellor at Berkeley, held an endowed chair in Mechanical Systems and was President of the UC Berkeley Foundation. He led a comprehensive capital campaign for Berkeley that raised $1.4 B. He earlier served as chair of Berkeley's Department of Mechanical Engineering and led the department to its number one ranking in the National Research Council review of graduate program effectiveness.

Dr. Mote's research lies in dynamic systems and biomechanics. Internationally recognized for his research on the dynamics of gyroscopic systems and the biomechanics of snow skiing, he has produced more than 300 publications, holds patents in the U.S., Norway, Finland and Sweden, and has mentored 56 Ph.D. students. He received the B.S., M.S. and Ph.D. in mechanical engineering from the University of California, Berkeley. President Mote has received numerous awards and honors, including the Humboldt Prize awarded by the Federal Republic of Germany. He is a recipient of the Berkeley Citation, an award from the University of California-Berkeley similar to the honorary doctorate, and was named Distinguished Engineering Alumnus. He has received two honorary doctorates. He is a member of the U.S. National Academy of Engineering and serves on its Council, and is a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences. He was elected to Honorary Membership in the ASME International, its most distinguished recognition, and is a Fellow of the International Academy of Wood Science, the Acoustical Society of America, and the American Association for the Advancement of Science. In Spring 2005, he was named recipient of the 2005 J. P. Den Hartog award by the ASME International Technical Committee on Vibration and Sound to honor his lifelong contribution to the teaching and/or practice of vibration engineering. In Fall 2005, he received the 2005 Founders Award from the National Academy of Engineering in recognition of his comprehensive body of work on the dynamics of moving flexible structures and for leadership in academia.

He and his wife of over 40 years, Patricia Mote, have two married children, Melissa and Adam, and four grandchildren. Patsy Mote has continued her strong support of the arts and is spokesperson for the Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center and a member of Prince George's County Arts Commission.

DEBORAH A. YOW

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS • 14TH YEAR AT MARYLAND

Deborah A. Yow is in the 14th year of her outstanding tenure as director of athletics at the University of Maryland, a tenure that has seen unprecedented success and achievement in Maryland athletics. In Yow's 13-plus years at Maryland, the Terrapins have won a remarkable 15 national championships and graduated student-athletes at an enviable rate as Maryland athletics has soared to sustained new heights among the nation's elite intercollegiate athletic programs.

The comprehensive success of Terrapin athletics under Debbie Yow's leadership is a clear and compelling testimony of her values of excellence, teamwork and accountability.

Likewise, her prior election to the presidency of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics is an indication of the wide respect with which she is regarded among its 6,100 members representing 1,600 colleges and universities in the U.S. and Canada.

She was honored recently by Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal as one of the 20 most influential people in intercollegiate athletics and she has received the Carl Maddox Sport Management Award presented by the United States Sports Academy for excellence in athletics administration.

Dr. Yow was selected to serve on the U.S. Department of Education's Commission on Opportunities in Athletics to review the status of Federal Title IX regulations. She recently served as the chair of the Atlantic Coast Conference Committee on Television. The committee is charged with overseeing the league's TV contracts and dealing with issues related to television. Yow led the committee during the successful renegotiation of comprehensive, multi-year ACC football and basketball contracts with ABC, ESPN, ESPN2 and syndication entities.

Additionally, she has represented intercollegiate athletics with presentations in a number of prominent settings such as the Harvard University School of Law conference on "Shaping the Future of Collegiate Athletics" and the Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal "National Forum on the Direction of Intercollegiate Athletics" in New York. She was also recently inducted into the State of Maryland Women's Hall of Fame and the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame, joining fellow Terp Buck Williams as honorees.

Yow, who has served on the NCAA Management Council and the NCAA Division I Budget Committee, is a strong and steady voice on behalf of intercollegiate athletics in America.

Since taking over as AD at Maryland in 1994, she and her staff have:

- Transformed Terrapin athletics into a responsive, goal-oriented organization with 27 sports and more than 700 student-athletes.
- Balanced all 12 of the department's annual budgets (none of the budgets were balanced in the 10 years prior to her arrival). The budget has now reached $55 million annually and the multi-million dollar accumulated operating debt which her administration inherited has been eradicated.
- Greatly enhanced the academic support services provided for student-athletes, with an enviable exhausted eligibility graduation rate of approximately 85 percent for student athletes at Maryland.
- Led the Terrapins to a national all-sports ranking in the upper 7 percent of all NCAA Division I institutions.
- Significantly expanded marketing and fund-raising efforts on behalf of Terrapin athletics. As a result, private gifts to athletics have increased over 350 percent and corporate sponsorship revenues have increased by over 300 percent during her tenure at Maryland.
- Continued to dramatically improve venues and facilities for the department's 27 teams. The Comcast Center for men's and women's basketball and other sports that use the facility is a prime example of the remarkable upgrade of athletic facilities.
- Implemented a strategic management model.
- Developed a comprehensive Internet strategy with management, marketing and fund-raising applications.

IN DECEMBER OF 2004, DEBORAH A. YOW WAS NAMED ONE OF THE MOST INFLUENTIAL PEOPLE IN COLLEGE ATHLETICS BY STREET & SMITH'S SPORTS BUSINESS JOURNAL.

Yow congratulates one of the members of the Maryland Competitive Cheer team that won the 2006 NCA Division I National Championship.

- Significantly improved customer care in every area of Maryland athletics.

The most recent achievements of Maryland athletics are exceptional:

- Maryland captured a remarkable six national championships during the past two seasons (2005-06, 2006-07).
- In 2006, the Terrapins achieved the highest student-athlete graduation rate in the history of Maryland athletics.
- Maryland was selected by U.S. News & World Report as one of the Top 20 athletic programs in the nation (for overall quality and competitive excellence).
- In 2005-06, Maryland Athletics won the inaugural PRISM Award as the most well-managed Division I collegiate athletics program in the nation.
- In men's basketball, the Terps won the Atlantic Coast Conference title over Duke in the championship game in 2004 and won the NCAA National Championship in 2002. Under Coach Gary Williams, the men's basketball team appeared in 11 consecutive NCAA Tournaments and in 12 of the last 14 tournaments.
- Maryland was ranked as the sixth-finest athletic program in the nation by the Laboratory for the Study of Intercollegiate Athletics, based on comprehensive criteria such as graduation rates, financial efficiency, equity effectiveness and competitive excellence.
- Women's basketball won the 2006 NCAA National Championship under head coach Brenda Frese, completing an amazing turnaround that saw the program go from a 10-18 record to a National Championship in four seasons.
- In football, the Terps won the 2001 Atlantic Coast Conference championship and played in the 2002 Orange Bowl, followed that with an 11-win season and a 30-3 victory over the University of Tennessee in the Peach Bowl, again followed by a 10-win season and a 41-7 win over West Virginia in the Gator Bowl on New Year's Day 2004. In 2006, Maryland returned to the bowl scene, where the Terps beat Purdue, 24-7, in the Champs Sports Bowl. Graduation rates in football are near 80 percent and the program was recently recognized by the American Football Coaches Association for its academic excellence under Coach Ralph Friedgen.
- Additionally, Maryland is one of only nine universities to win the National Championship in football and men's basketball and is one of only three universities in the nation to win National Championships in men's basketball, women's basketball and football. Stanford and UCLA are the only other NCAA Division I institutions to achieve that mark.
- Set an ACC single-game record for women's basketball attendance by drawing 17,950 to a regular-season game at Comcast Center.
- Hired Dave Cottle, the third-winningest active men's lacrosse coach in the U.S., who guided his team to the NCAA Final Four in three of the past five seasons.
- Field Hockey earned National Championships in 2005-06 and in 2006-07, and has become a perennial participant in the Final Four in that sport.

Dr. Yow with Boomer Esiason (left), Bonnie Bernstein (center) and Steve Francis (right).

- Women's Lacrosse has continued its winning ways with seven national championships from 1995-2001, with additional Final Four appearances.
- Men's Soccer has appeared in four consecutive Final Fours and won the NCAA National Championship in the 2005-06 season.
- Football facilities have been significantly enhanced with team house, stadium and practice field upgrades. The Academic Center was the first improvement, as it took priority over all other initiatives.
- The Terrapins have moved into the $130 million Comcast Center, housing athletic department offices and seating for 18,000 fans for basketball and other events – part of a remarkable $250 million upgrade and expansion of athletics facilities during Dr. Yow's leadership of Maryland Athletics.
- In 2006-07, 13 Maryland teams competed in postseason play.
- The productivity, morale, and the competitive and academic achievement of Terrapin athletics are exceptional and continue to gain momentum.

Regarding the many achievements of Terrapin athletics over the past 13 years, Yow says, "We are pleased, but we are not satisfied... our vision is to be one of the Top 5 programs in the nation consistently... we see no reason to settle for less."

Yow is known for her goal-oriented and proactive management style. She consistently inspires and challenges those around her to "raise our sights and sharpen our tools... to work hard and work smart... to recognize that our only limitations are those that we place upon ourselves."

As a manager and a leader, she clearly models these principles. She is the only known current AD in NCAA Division I who has hired both the National Coach of the Year in football (while at Maryland) and the National Coach of the Year in men's basketball (while at Saint Louis University). In 2002, she brought to the University of Maryland Brenda Frese, who at that time was the National Coach of the Year in women's basketball. Four years later, Frese led the Terrapins to the NCAA National Championship at the Women's Final Four in Boston.

Dr. Yow is known as "a coach's AD," while also being highly organized and a strategic and proactive leader and administrator. Quite simply, Debbie Yow personifies the relational and management dynamics that are necessary to be an excellent administrator.

A successful former basketball coach at the University of Kentucky and University of Florida, she moved into athletics administration at the University of Florida and the University of North Carolina, Greensboro, followed by a successful tenure as AD at Saint Louis University from 1990 through 1994.

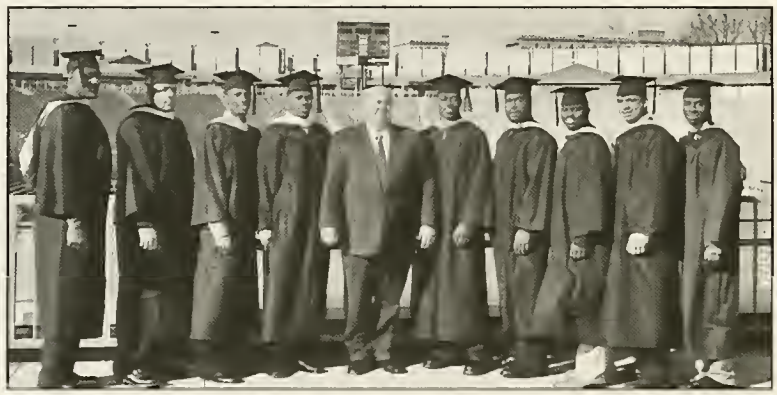
She has authored numerous articles and books on athletics management and human behavior, and is a respected leader in intercollegiate athletics in the United States.

Summing up the entire Maryland athletics program, our athletics director recently stated, "We have the finest student-athletes, coaches, support staff and administrative team in America. It is because of their courage, hard work and cooperative spirit that we now have a strong, viable athletic program. I am immensely proud of each of them. I am equally proud of our Terrapin fans who buy tickets, our Terrapin Club members who faithfully support the Maryland athletic program with their donations for scholarships, and the M Club members who serve and give liberally. We are also blessed with a terrific President, Dr. Dan Mote, who has fostered a mindset of excellence across our institution. He is a strong and balanced advocate for what he calls 'the three A's of the University – Academics, the Arts and Athletics'. We have a great Terrapin family. That's the foundation for all of our success... and the basis for our bright future. It's a great time to be a Terp."

ACADEMIC SUPPORT & CAREER DEVELOPMENT

The University of Maryland is committed to providing the highest quality education to all of its students. The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics strives to provide student-athletes excellent opportunities to participate in an intercollegiate athletics program of the highest quality, with the result that their athletics participation becomes an integral and valued component of their total educational experience at the university.

Terrapin student-athletes will find that the same hard work and discipline that has earned them success in athletics competition is also required in the classroom. Balancing the significant time demands and responsibilities required to be a successful student-athlete at the highest collegiate level is no small task. Therefore, as a result of their commitment to representing the university through athletics, Terrapin student-athletes are able to utilize support programs designed to meet their specific needs.



Led by associate athletics director Anton Goff, the mission of the Academic Support and Career Development Unit (ASCDU) is to provide quality developmental programs and need-based services that will enhance academic progress, facilitate career development, and encourage the psychosocial growth of all UM student-athletes.

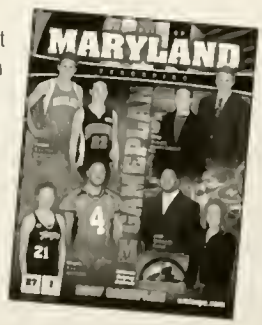
The Gossett Academic Support and Career Development Center for Terrapin student-athletes, named for long-time Terp supporters Barry and Mary Gossett, is located in the Comcast Center. It features a study center that includes 25 desktop computers, a tutoring center, a classroom, a CHAMPS/Life Skills resource room and individual offices for professional academic counselors, a director of enrichment programs, an assistant program coordinator and a graduate assistant. In addition, a new academic wing was added to the Gossett football team house recently. It features offices for two counselors, a program coordinator and three learning specialists; as well as a quiet study area, 29-desk computer lab, classroom, tutor rooms and classroom/lab for the individualized learning program.

Academic courses, programs and services offered by ASCDU include the following:

- Student-athlete orientation
- Academic counseling
- NCAA academic eligibility monitoring
- Academic enrichment and career development presentations and workshops
- Accredited tutorial support
- Individualized learning program
- EDCP 108-K (College learning strategies and skills)
- EDCP 108-M (Math learning strategies and skills)
- UNIV 100 (First-year transitions to the university)

MARYLAND GAMEPLAN

The Maryland Gameplan is intended to assist graduating Terrapin student-athletes as they begin the job search process. It is distributed to more than 500 corporations and businesses across the country, in addition to being featured on the M Club website. Prospective employers are introduced to our graduating student-athletes with resume information relative to academic, career and personal achievements. The Maryland Gameplan directory is produced annually in collaboration with the M Club.



CAREER NETWORKING NIGHT

Because career development is an ongoing process, ASCDU provides a variety of programs for student-athletes throughout the year. Professional assistance with resume-writing, interviewing skills, graduate school search and job search is readily available to all student-athletes. During the spring semester ASCDU hosts the Career Networking Night, where student-athletes can learn about career interests and career planning. Unlike typical "job fairs," the purpose of this program is to allow student-athletes to explore multiple career opportunities by speaking directly to individuals in their chosen areas of interest. Employers at the Career Networking Night recognize the marketable qualities student-athletes have gained through athletic participation. Student-athletes learn about opportunities for internships and full-time jobs.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ADVISORY COMMITTEE

The Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (S.A.A.C.) plays an important role in the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics. It consists of two representatives from each varsity sport and meets on a regular basis with representatives from the athletic administration. The S.A.A.C. mission is to enhance the total student-athlete experience by developing leadership skills, promoting student-athlete welfare and fostering a positive student-athlete image on the Maryland campus, local area and nationally.

CHAMPS/LIFE SKILLS PROGRAMS

ASCDU houses the NCAA's (National Collegiate Athletic Association) CHAMPS/Life Skills Program. The ASCDU staff, in collaboration with various other Department of Intercollegiate Athletics' units and campus resources, strives to provide a systematic personal development program designed to reach each student-athlete based on his or her individual needs. The focus of the program is on the individual academically, athletically and emotionally, and on the changing needs and skills of that individual in the years during college and after graduation. The menu of presentations, workshops and seminars is a comprehensive and balanced system of "life learning" programs promoted for use by each varsity sport team.

NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills PROGRAM

Highlights of the CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs:

- Support efforts of every student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation
- Use athletics as preparation for success in life
- Meet the changing needs of student-athletes
- Promote respect for diversity among student-athletes
- Enhance interpersonal relationships in the lives of student-athletes
- Assist student-athletes in building positive self-esteem
- Enable student-athletes to make meaningful contributions to their communities
- Promote ownership by the student-athletes of their academic, athletic, personal and social responsibilities
- Enhance partnerships between the NCAA, member institutions and their communities for the purpose of education
- Encourage the development of leadership skills

CHAMPS/LIFE SKILLS PROGRAMS COMMITMENT STATEMENTS

Commitment to Academic Excellence

To support the academic progress of the student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation.

Commitment to Athletic Excellence

To build philosophical foundations for the development of athletic programs that are broad-based, equitable and dedicated to the well-being of the student-athlete.

Commitment to Personal Development

To support the development of a well-balanced lifestyle for student-athletes, encouraging emotional well-being, personal growth and decision-making skills.

Commitment to Career Development

To encourage the student-athlete to develop and pursue career and life goals.

Commitment to Service

To engage student-athletes in service to his/her campus and surrounding communities.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT FOR RETURNING ATHLETES PROGRAM

The Academic Support for Returning Athletes Program was created in 1986 to support the academic efforts of former varsity student-athletes at the University of Maryland, College Park. In 1989, ASRAP was assigned by the President's Office to the Academic Achievements Program and enrolled 40 students that year. As a member of the National Consortium for Academics and Sports (NCAS), the University of Maryland is committed to assisting its former athletes with degree completion. A key component of the program is community outreach. Each returning student completes a "workship" that allows the cost of tuition and fees to be exchanged for community services with youth. In 2002, ASRAP moved into the ASCDU.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

In today's highly competitive world of collegiate football, the off-field preparation of the student-athlete is a critical component to the on-field success of any Division I program. Dwight Galt, Maryland's director of strength and conditioning, believes strongly that a solid off-field training program can dramatically improve levels of performance, as well as significantly reduce the chance of injury. The benefit of performing structured strength and power training throughout the entire year has allowed the Terps to reach new levels in physical development.

At the University of Maryland, the maximal development of athleticism is the primary goal of the strength and conditioning program. To accomplish this requires more than just strength and power training in the weight room. Speed improvement, agility, flexibility, conditioning, plyometrics and nutrition also play critical roles. The Terps' strength staff places substantial emphasis on all these areas, with special attention to the improvement of speed potential. Galt and his staff employ a wide range of state-of-the-art training methods to assist in enhancing all aspects of speed development.

The Terrapins are fortunate to train in one of the premier weight training facilities in the country. Conveniently located in the Gossett Football Team House, this facility has excellent aesthetic appeal, with two magnificent skylights and large windows overlooking the playing field at Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium. The Terps' spacious weight room includes 7,200 square feet of functional floor space, with two elevated offices that are easily accessible to the training floor.

Maryland football players train with some of the best equipment available, including 20,000 pounds of customized York free weights, seven pieces of Keiser progressive air resistance machines, and a full line of Hammer strength equipment. The weight complex also features immense, self-contained power rack stations, Olympic lifting platforms with Eleiko bumper plates and 10 upper body pressing stations.

A meaningful goal of every Terrapin football player is achievement of the prestigious "Iron Terp" award, which is recognized twice a year to those team members who achieve extremely challenging strength goals, based on body weight. It is a great honor and matter of pride to earn an "Iron Terp" award, and the Terps must "pay the toll" to accomplish this.

SPORTS MEDICINE

The University of Maryland Department of Intercollegiate letics and the University of Maryland Medical Center's orts Medicine program have joined forces to provide the st possible medical attention and care to all Terrapin dent-athletes.

Says Deborah A. Yow, Maryland's director of athletics: hen we recruit student-athletes to play for Maryland, we e them the best education, the best coaching and the st comprehensive health care. It is especially gratifying us to partner with our medical center in the same fashion other ACC institutions do with their medical schools."

ATHLETIC DEVELOPMENT

TERRAPIN CLUB

Athletic excellence is a tradition at the University of Maryland—a tradition alumni and friends alike want to see continue and flourish. That's why we are inviting you to be a member of the Maryland Athletics Family by joining the Terrapin Club. Whether you are an alumnus of the University of Maryland or a friend interested in supporting the state's flagship campus, belonging to the Terrapin Club enables you to:

- Provide annual scholarship support for our student-athletes who will contribute to the community
- Share our vision to fully scholarship all sports to best represent the University
- Take pride in the achievement of athletic excellence
- Participate in the camaraderie and fellowship unique to Terrapin Club members
- Receive a tax deduction for your financial contribution for scholarships
- Enjoy access to great benefits including priority seating in Byrd Stadium for football and Comcast Center for basketball, priority parking and tickets to other events

At Maryland, the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics operates without significant University funding and receives no state appropriations or tax dollars for operational expenses. Sanctioned by the University of Maryland College Park Foundation, 100% of the funds raised through the Terrapin Club are managed by the Foundation for the exclusive use of Maryland Athletics. Your contribution directly supports an annual student-athlete scholarship cost of over $8 million and Terrapin Club and department expenses. The Terrapin Club provides scholarship support to many of the 700 student-athletes who compete on 27 varsity team representing the University of Maryland.

GETTING INVOLVED

Direct Gifts are the most common way of contributing They are made in the form of cash, stock, checks or credit card (Visa, MasterCard, American Express or Discover). For your convenience, a personal checking account can be debited a set amount every month.

THE M CLUB

An 84-Year Tradition of "Athletes Helping Athletes"℠

The M Club was founded in 1923 by a group of former University of Maryland athletes led by Dr. H.C. "Curley" Byrd to encourage excellence in athletics. It is one of the oldest and most respected letterwinner clubs in the country with an organization of more than 4,500 former Maryland varsity athletes and a leader in the National Letter Winners Association.

The M Club goals are to help achieve the very best overall academic and athletic program for all the varsity teams, to aid the athletes in making positive contributions to the community, to obtain and maintain funds for awards and scholarships and to cultivate networking, social contact and good sportsmanship among the wearers of the "M."

Membership participation, through the payment of annual dues, helps build the scholarship endowment fund, support student-athletes' awards and recognition efforts and provide for career development initiatives. Members receive information about the current teams and news about former teammates through a monthly electronic newsletter and a quarterly printed newsletter.

In addition, active members receive information about, and discounts for, various M Club activities. Many benefits are intangible, though, including the satisfaction of having lettered at a great university and being a part of a unique and exclusive organization that is nationally recognized

University of Maryland letterwinners interested in the M Club should call David Diehl at (301) 314-5372 or Dotti Warren at (301) 314-7020, or visit our website at www.themclub.org.

MAJOR GIFTS FUNDRAISING

In the Fall of 2006, the University of Maryland publicly launched Great Expectations: The Campaign for Maryland, a $1 billion fund raising effort that will transform the University from excellence to greatness. Intercollegiate Athletics, one of the most visible units of the University will seek to raise a total of $133 million to: (1) enhance and improve competition, practice and training facilities for a number of our teams; (2) fund annual scholarships for student athletes; and (3) endow student athlete scholarships, coaching positions and teams.

A centerpiece of the ambitious Great Expectations fund raising campaign, enhancements to Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium will begin in Winter 2007. Phase One of this project includes the expansion of Tyser Tower along the South concourse, allowing for the addition of 64 luxury suites of varying sizes. Additionally, mezzanine seating for approximately 500 will be added (featuring heated and covered seating and food service); a University Suite with seating for 200 guests; new work areas for television, radio and print media; new work areas for coaches and game day operating staff; a new game-day merchandise outlet; enhanced seating for disabled customers; and a state-of-the-art video scoreboard on the West concourse.

Phase Two includes the installation of railings in the North and South lower bowl to enhance fan safety and comfort; chair back seating in the 200 level on the North side; and additional restrooms and concessions on the South side. The playing field will be lowered to improve sight lines for seats on the first 10 rows, converting those 3,000 seats from obstructed view to some of the best views in the stadium. Additionally, all of the blue roofs in the stadium will be painted.

Future Expansion includes the renovation of Gossett Football Team House to include larger locker rooms and training areas, as well as the transformation of the West End Zone with the addition of nearly 8,000 seats which will bring stadium capacity to approximately 60,000 seats.

This expansion plan is an ambitious one. Critical to its success is the leasing of all available Suites within the expanded Tyser Tower. You can support the proud tradition and future growth of Maryland Football by contributing to the Great Expectations campaign or leasing a luxury Suite at the stadium.

To obtain information on leasing a suite at Byrd Stadium, or any other component of the Great Expectations Campaign for Athletics, please contact the Athletics Major Gifts Office at (301) 314-7020, or toll free at (800) 653-7667, by email at terrainclub@umd.edu, or visit www.GreatExpectationsAthletics.com

TERPS ON THE RADIO

All of Maryland's games will be broadcast live on the Terrapin Sports Radio Network, which boasts one of the longest coverage areas in college sports. Terrapin Sports Marketing, a division of CBS Sports, manages the Terrapin Sports Radio Network. In its sixth year as the multi-media marketing rights partner for University of Maryland Athletics, Terrapin Sports Marketing has built a stronger network that provides coverage in Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Delaware, New Jersey, and Washington D.C.

Live 105.7 FM (WHFS) and ESPN Radio 1300 AM (WJFK-AM) in Baltimore serve as network's flagship stations, with many more affiliates across the state picking up the games.

Maryland's broadcasts will be accessible on the Internet via the Terps' official athletics website, www.umterps.com.

JOHNNY HOLLIDAY

Play-by-Play Announcer
29th Year

One Washington's most versatile broadcasters, Johnny Holliday, is now in his 29th season as play-by-play voice of the University of Maryland. Holliday has broadcasted more than 1,100 Terrapin football and basketball games, including 10 bowl games, 10 Sweet 16 and two Final Four appearances, including Maryland's national championship victory over Indiana in 2002.

Holliday's sports reports are heard mornings coast-to-coast on the ABC Radio Network, as well as on XM and Sirius. Dick Vitale has named Holliday one of his "top 15 play-by-play voices in the nation." Holliday's list of credits includes ABC's coverage of the Winter and Summer Olympic Games, championship boxing, the USFL with hall of fame member Paul Hornung, The Masters and television coverage of the Liberty and Aloha Bowls. Holliday also co-hosts the Ralph Friedgen and Gary Williams shows on both radio and television. Holliday was public address announcer for the Cleveland Browns, Oakland Raiders, San Francisco Warriors and the Washington Bullets.

In Washington, Holliday hosted the Washington Senators pregame show on the radio with Ted Williams and in San Francisco the Giants pregame show on television. He also handled play-by-play duties for George Washington University basketball, Navy football radio and television coverage of the Washington Bullets and Wizards and hosted a Redskins television show with Dexter Manley, Mark Moseley, Bobby Beathard and Charley Casserly. Holliday also handled television play-by-play duties of ACC Women's basketball, Baltimore Orioles and national gymnastics events.

Holliday has been honored by Washingtonian Magazine as "Washingtonian of the Year". His basketball and softball teams have raised in excess of $1.5 million for charity. Holliday has been honored by the University of Maryland with the school's Distinguished Citizen award, and by the Touchdown Club of Washington with the outstanding achievement in Sports Broadcasting "Timmie" award.

Holliday was inducted into the Radio Television Broadcasters Hall of Fame in 2003. In 2005, he was given the Lindsay Nelson Outstanding Sportscaster award by the All-American Football Foundation, and in 2006 was honored by the National Football Foundation and the College Football Hall of Fame with the Chris Schenkel Award. In 2006 the Catholic Youth Organization named Holliday its National Person of the Year, and the Diabetes Association recognized him as its Father of the Year. Holliday last year was inducted into the Baltimore Sports Media Hall of Fame.

Holliday also received the "Smile" award from Operation Smile for outstanding service to the community. Holliday still finds the time to participate in a variety of community activities, among them, Catholic Charities, Special Olympics and The Youth Leadership Foundation. Holliday is on the Board of Directors of Victory Youth Centers and Children's Charities Foundation. Holliday has served as television host for Muscular Dystrophy, Leukemia, Cerebral Palsy, Children's Hospital, March of Dimes and Easter Seals telethons.

His network credits include announcing duties for NBC's "Hullaballoo" and "The Roger Miller Show," ABC's "This Week with David Brinkley" and "This Week with Sam and Cokie", along with ABC radio's Sam Donaldson Show. Holliday was also seen on the CBS television series "Good Morning World." His face and voice are one of the most familiar in all of Washington radio and television with hundreds of commercials and narrations to his credits.

Holliday was born and raised in Miami, Fla. Before coming to Washington in 1969 he was a top-rated radio personality in Cleveland, New York City and San Francisco. Before giving up music, Holliday was named America's number one disc jockey. A visit to the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in Cleveland will enable you to listen to Holliday during DJ days in Cleveland. Holliday also co-hosts "Catholic Radio Weekly" with Carol Lehan, syndicated radio stations throughout the country.

Holliday and his wife Mary Clare are the proud parents of three daughters, Kellie, Tracie and Mona, three son-in-laws, Steve, Chris and Bob, seven grandsons, J.T., Devin, Anthony, Chnstopher, Nicholas, Jack and Liam, and one granddaughter Maggie.

JONATHAN CLAIBORNE

Color Commentary
Eighth Year

Former Terrapin standout Jonathan Claiborne is in his eighth season as the color analyst on Maryland's radio broadcast team. Claiborne, who lettered from 1975-77 as a safety, is the son of former Terp head coach Jerry Claiborne, who was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame in 1999 after a 28-year career as head coach at Virginia Tech, Maryland and Kentucky.

Originally a walk-on at Maryland in the mid-'70s, Jonathan Claiborne eventually worked his way into a first-string safety position and earned a scholarship. He was a two-year starter and played on three bowl teams. The Terps were 28-7-1 during his varsity playing career.

Claiborne, who is now a practicing attorney in the Baltimore area for the firm Whiteford, Taylor and Preston, excelled on and off the field while playing with the Terrapins. He was a two-time All-ACC Academic selection and a 1977 CoSIDA Academic All-American. He also was the recipient of a NCAA Post-graduate Scholarship in addition to earning a fellowship from the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame. Claiborne earned a double degree at Maryland (history and accounting) with a cumulative GPA of 3.57. He was a two-time winner of the George C. Cook Award (given to the Terp varsity football player with the highest grade point average) and also won the Talbot T. Speer Award for leadership, scholarship and athletic ability.

Claiborne previously spent four years as a color analyst on Towson Tiger football radio broadcasts.

TIM STRACHAN

Sideline Reporter
12th Year

Former DeMatha standout Tim Strachan is in his 12th season as the sideline reporter on Maryland's football broadcasts. Strachan, a 1999 graduate of the University of Maryland with a degree in communication, was a student assistant coach with the Terps from 1996-99. He graduated from Georgetown University Law Center in the spring of 2004.

Strachan, who was paralyzed in a swimming accident before his senior year of high school, launched T13 Charities — A Foundation for Spinal Cord Injuries as a way to benefit others with spinal cord injuries. He is a professional motivational speaker and also is a freelance reporter for the Ralph Friedgen and Gary Williams coaches' television shows. He was named the 1999 Washingtonian of the Year by Washingtonian magazine.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS POLICY

The University of Maryland issues press credentials under the priorities and according to the guidelines set out below. These priorities and guidelines are designed to achieve efficient use of limited space available for working members of the media and of other types of access not enjoyed by members of the public at University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic events.

The University of Maryland Department of Intercollegiate Athletics Office of Media Relations is responsible for administering this policy. Credential requests must be made by sports editors or sports directors online at UMTerps.com no later than five days prior to an event. For more information, contact the Media Relations Office at 301-314-7064.

PRIORITIES:

1. Originating radio and television personnel involved in a live television or radio broadcast of a University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competition.
2. Daily newspapers, wire services, and regional and national publications that regularly and substantially report on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competitions.
3. Non-originating radio and television personnel producing reports on a University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competition. Only local radio stations with a full-time sports director conducting a regular and substantial sports show reporting on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competitions receive consideration for credentials.
4. Officially recognized University of Maryland daily student publications and daily student electronic media outlets that regularly and substantially report on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competitions; and official websites of Atlantic Coast Conference schools, non-conference opponents, and the Atlantic Coast Conference office.
5. Non-daily newspapers or publications that regularly and substantially report on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competitions.
6. Online entities that meet the requirements set out in guideline number 7, below.

GUIDELINES:

1. Season media credentials are issued to those organizations that report on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competitions on a regular and substantial basis, as outlined above. Issuance of season media credentials does not guarantee working space in media work areas.
2. With the exception of Terrapin beat reporters reporting on the team on a daily basis and producing daily reports, all passes are approved and issued on a game-by-game basis.
3. Except as otherwise provided for in this Policy, all passes and credentials are non-transferable and are subject to immediate revocation if transferred to any other person, including non-working members of a media organization.
4. Due to limited space and to ensure compliance with NCAA guidelines, credentials will not be issued to "free-lance" writers or photographers without a specific assignment received in writing by the assigning organization.
5. The University of Maryland and the NCAA prohibit the issuance of credentials to representatives of an organization that regularly publishes gambling information, such as "tout sheets" or "tip sheets."
6. Credentials may be issued to the official websites of Atlantic Coast Conference schools, non-conference opponents, and the Atlantic Coast Conference office.
7. Credentials may be issued to other online entities that. a) are affiliated with a national or regional media organization; b) host a website that regularly and substantially reports on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletics, and, c) employ for that University of Maryland dedicated website at least one full-time, permanent employee who writes a substantial majority of all material posted on the site. An online entity that is an outlet primarily devoted to the recruitment of student-athletes will not qualify for credentials.
8. All persons picking up credentials will be required to furnish positive identification. No credentials will be issued to individuals under the age of 18.
9. Media Relations may deny or revoke credentials for noncompliance with the Priorities or Guidelines set out in this Policy; for violations of University, Department of Intercollegiate Athletics, NCAA, or ACC policies; and for conduct for which there are reasonable grounds to believe violate state or federal law, or constitute a breach of professional ethics. Any organization that wishes to contest a denial or revocation shall: a) request Media Relations provide a written rationale for the denial or revocation; b) submit a written response to that rationale to the Associate Athletic Director for Media Relations. After reviewing the response, the Associate Athletic Director for Media Relations, in consultation with appropnate University officials, shall issue a decision to uphold or reverse the denial or revocation. The Associate Athletic Director's decision shall be final.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Credential requests must be made by sports editors or sports directors on official letterhead no later than five days prior to an event. They should be sent to the attention of Doug Dull, Athletic Media Relations Office, University of Maryland, 2725 Comcast Center, College Park, MD 20741-0295 They may also be faxed to 301-314-9094 No credential requests will be accepted via phone.

Admission to media facilities are for working media only

E-MAIL SERVICE

Football releases can be obtained electronically by contacting Shawn Nestor at snestor@umd.edu List TERP NEWS in the subject heading, and include the name of your media outlet and phone number in your message. (This is a media service only).

INTERNET GUIDELINES

The acceptance of media credentials is an acknowledgement of the University of Maryland's rights to the game and play-by-play coverage and an outlet's agreement to abide by any restrictions the University of Maryland may place on real-time play-by-play coverage and use of comprehensive game statistics. Failure to abide by these restrictions implemented by the University of Maryland may result in revocation of press credentials. Maryland reserves the right to grant approval for distribution of real-time play-by-play, game-related statistics and information through the Internet ("real time" is defined as any online media providing live continual play-by-play coverage, in-game statistics, digital photographs, or audio or video of an event).

PARKING

Game-day press parking is located in the Union Lane Garage which is adjacent to Cole Field House and along Field House Drive. The parking garage is best accessed from the Stadium Drive entrance to campus. Access is via pass only and is available on a limited basis.

PHOTOGRAPHY REGULATIONS

Photo passes will be issued only to accredited photographers on assignment. Photographers should obtain an armband from the media-relations staff in Tyser Tower to gain admittance to the field. Under NCAA and ACC rules, photographers are not allowed between the 25-yard lines and must remain outside of the restraining lines surrounding the playing field.

Photographers are expected to comply with all University regulations and policies. Any photographer or any media a member not complying with instructions of University staff may be required to surrender their credentials.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All player interviews must be arranged through Shawn Nestor the Terps' assistant football contact. Players and coaches have been instructed not to participate in interviews unless they have been arranged through the Media Relations Office. Interviews will be conducted Tuesday through the start of practice on Thursday. No interviews will be allowed on Sunday or Friday. Player phone numbers will not be released, and members of the media are asked not to attempt to contact student-athletes or relatives on the telephone or via e-mail. Players are not available for live call-in radio shows.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Head coach Ralph Friedgen and selected players will be brought the Gossett Team House Dining Facility on the main floor of the Gossett Football Team House for postgame interviews following home games. The team room is accessed through the front door the complex, located one level above the playing field. Interviews with the visiting team coach and players will be coordinated by the opponent SID staff and specifics announced in the press box on game day. The interview area for the opposing team is in a tent located outside the visiting locker room, opposite side of the field from the Tyser Tower Press Box (unless otherwise stated). The Terps follow similar guidelines for coach and player interviews for road games.

Maryland's locker room is closed following games.
